ANNUAL CHURCH PARADE

On Sunday, June 20th, King Solotheir annual church parade, when they day. attended Wesley United church for the evening service at 7:30 p.m.

The parade, which was one of the iargest Masonic parades seen in many years, contained not only the members and officers of the local lodge, but also brethern from Cayuga, Waterford, Hagersville and Port Dover. R. W. J. J. Parsons, D.D.G.M. of Mr. Robert W. Butcher was the Brant District and R. W. Dr. Jaques, guest of his brother the first of the R.W. C. Graham, both P.D.D.G.M. of week. the same district, were also present. Amongst the brethern was Dr. Sherk of King Hiram Lodge, Hagersville. one of the oldest Masons in the district, being a Mason for 60 years.

On arriving at the church the brethern occupied the centre seats. The Nanticoke Male Quartette contributed several selections, also the choir, which were very much appreciated by the large congregation.

The pastor, Rev. H. Brand, gave a very able address on "Friendship," basing his remarks upon the friendship of David and Jonathan. He A. L. Belbeck. pointed out the value of making friends and especially making a friend of the Friend of Friends.

After the service the brethern re- a. Tillsonburg. turned to the lodge rooms..

SOFT BALL NOTES

A very enjoyable game of soft ball was played at Springvale ball grounds on Saturday evening last. The U. F. O. defeated the Springvale team by a score of 23-9. The scoring was close the first part of the game, being one, two, three, out, but the U. F. O. sluggers broke away. Hazlett and Mason starred in the batting for the locals, Hazlett with two homers and Mason one.

No game was played beetween the Jarvis and Erie teams on Saturday.
