COUPLE CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING

The pleasant and commodious home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Nixon, Renton, was the scene of a very happy gathering on Saturday evening last, the 27th inst., when their friends and acquaintances gathered from far and near to celebrate the occasion of their silver wedding.

Shortly after 7 o'clock, over 40 guests were seated at tables in the diningroom, which was tastefully decorated with bouquets of daffodils and tulips, and partook of a very sumptuous dinner.

Following the dinner, the toastmaster, Rev. W. T. Brown, in a few well chosen words referred to the occasion of the gathering and conveyed the hearty greetings of the gathering to the happy couple. The following toasts were drunk: "The King," "The Bride and Groom," proposed by Mr. Austin Shand, who was best man 25 years ago, responded to by the Groom. "The Ladies," proposed by Mr. J. A. Fallis, and answered by Miss Erie Shand; "The Gentlemen," proposed by Mrs. W. Meikle, and responded to by Mr. W. Meikle; "Absent Friends," by Mr. John King; "Grandma Nixon," proposed by the Toastmaster, and responded to by Mr. W. Z. Nixon. After dinner games and music were engaged in, the party ending at midnight. In addition to the hearty congratulations of all present, Mr. and Mrs. Nixon were the recipients of many gifts, indicative of the esteem in which they are held by their friends and the community.

NANTICOKE INSTITUTE

(Intended for last week.)

The Nanticoke Women's Institute met on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 18, at the home of Miss Julia Evans. Owing to the illness of the president, Mrs. Butcher, the meeting was conducted by the Second Vice President, Mabel E. Thompson. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. The members listened with regret to the resignation of the President, which was read by the Secretary. A motion was made that the Secretary convey a message to our retiring President, showing the sympathy of the members and wishing her a speedy recovery. The meetings for the rest of the year will be conducted by Mrs. Freeman Field, who was vice president. At this meeting it was decided to hold a St. Patrick's social, for the purpose of raising funds for the Institute. An interesting reading was given by Mrs. Field on "Co-operation." This was followed by a paper on "The Advantage of a Horticultural Society in Each Community," given by Mabel E. Thompson. After a dainty luncheon, served by the hostess, the meeting was brought to a close.

Dynamite Cap Accident

Ingersoll Has New Industry Sleighs Rent at $15 an Hour Valuable Inch of Land in City

Chris Dawdy, 10 year old son of B. Dawdy, who resides one mile from Eagle, near West Lorne, suffered a serious mishap while playing with some other playmates. Finding a dynamite cap in an empty house, the boys decided to light it with a match, which young Dawdy proceeded to do, the cap exploding and blowing off the thumb and first two fingers of his left hand. Doctors from West Lorne were called and said the boy would recover if no complications set in.

A hen owned by Harry Heller of Kiamensi, Delaware, has established what is thought to be a world's record. In two days she has laid four perfectly formed eggs. The best of hens lay one a day. Then hen, Clara Regina, 1 year old, White Rock breed, laid two eggs the first day within five minutes of each other and the second day repeated within the same time limit.

Spots of humor showed through the mantle of tragedy draped by a blizzard at New York last week. In that city, the old-timers had their ining. There were only four sleighs in the city, it was stated, but these were brought out of storage and put to use—at the rate of $15 per hour to passengers. In the suburbs the flier was reported taking second place to similar sleighs resurrected from the past as roads became impassable.

Real estate is valuable providing that the real estate is in the right place. One little inch of land has just been sold for $33.27 in a city tax sale in Toronto. The inch was an important part of a parcel at the rear of a lot. It is not often that land is bought by the inch. Yet there are some pieces of real estate, an inch of which would be worth hundreds of dollars. Of course that inch would have to be accompanied by several other inches to make it valuable. And it would have to be in a desired spot.

We recall a litigation case in Chicago quite a few years ago, where a large building had overlapped its bounds, encroaching on a certain Jew's property an inch and a half. It was to be taken to law, but was at the last moment settled out of court. If the Jew had of won the whole store would have had to move. However, the plaintiff received some odd thousand dollars for that little inch and a half of land. High finance we would call it.

The Salvation Army is considering the erection of a $75,000 building on its present Merrick Street property in Hamilton, it was learned last week. The new building will have accommodation for 150 men, and it is the intention to supply lodgings and meals for those in distress.

New Idea Furnaces, td., is the new industry which Ingersoll has secured recently. The Canada Gazette has reference to the new firm, showing there to be a capital stock of 2,000 preferred shares of the par value of $100 each and 4,000 common shares without par value. The new firm will manufacture modern heating appliances in the Bissell plant. It is expected that the Bissell company will leave Ingersoll in May.

Insuring brains is the newest innovation of big insurance companies leaving no part of the human anatomy on which they have not taken risks. Last week a policy for $1,000,000 was underwritten on the brains of two Detroit men, N. A. and J. A. Hoffman. The Hoffmans are about to begin a heavy building program. The policy protects the interests of the partnership during the expansion in case of the death of either partner.

An examination of the books of London Township discloses the information that the municipality is faced with a deficit of $10,000, and possibly more. Until such time as the auditors have finished their examination the full extent of the deficit will not

REV. W. T. BROWN ADDRESSES CLUB

The Erie Community Club held its usual fortnightly meeting on Tuesday, the 2nd inst.

In spite of the inclement weather there was a good attendance present. Murray Biggar, president of the club, occupied the chair.

The speaker of the evening was the Hon. Pres., Rev. W. T. Brown, who spoke on "Robert Burns. Poet and Man." The speaker traced in an interesting way the background of the poet's life, his early days and struggle, his first attempts at poetry, his popularity, decline, and death at the early age of 37 years. He asked the question—What is it that makes Burns so popular? and answered it by pointing out the qualities he possessed. His power to discern true worth, his love for humanity, for the beasts and the flowers, his hatred of hypocrisy and show, his sterling patriotism, and broad toleration; these things made Burns beloved by all. Illustrative extracts from the poet's works were read throughout.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the lecturer at the close of the proceedings. Miss P. Fallis and Miss N. Coles also contributed recitations. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

DEATH OF REV. R. W. SCANLAN

At his home, 144 Cowan Avenue Toronto, on Friday evening the death of Rev. R. W. Scanlan, Ph.D., occurred. Dr. Scanlan, for more than 38 years was a minister of the Methodist churches in the Hamilton Conference. He retired from the active ministry and was superannuated about seven years ago, after suffering a stroke. He was born at O'Brien's bridge, County Limerick, Ireland, 72 years ago. He was well known and beloved both in the Hamilton and Toronto Conferences. He is survived by his widow; one son, R. O. Scanlan of Cabri, Sask., and one daughter, Mrs. A.R. Whittemore, Toronto.
