CHORAL SOCIETY TO GIVE CONCERT

TO RENDER SELECTIONS FROM NOTED COMPOSERS, TUESDAY, MARCH 16

Residents of Jarvis and district will doubtless be glad to know that the Jarvis Choral Society will give a concert in the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday evening, March 16th, the program commencing at 8:15 sharp.

The society has been rehearsing for the past three months, and under the baton of its conductor, Mr. George Rapley, will render part songs by Macfarren, Sullivan, Damrosch, Offenbach, Gounod, Bonheur and Dickinson. Assisting the choir will be Mrs. Urith Taylor-Seymour, a reader of outstanding ability, whose work always commands unstinted praise, and Miss Betty Applebe, a young and talented violinist.

Speaking generally of the work of Choral Societies, a writer once said: "Their purpose is at once educative, recreational and social. There can be no more liberal education than a knowledge of good music. There is no more absorbing or elevating recreation than the practice of beautiful music and there could be no better influence on the social life of a community than the making of and listening to fine music. It raises both singer and listener into a higher, purer, and more ideal atmosphere, leaving him less selfish and less sordid than it found him."

"Music, when soft voices die, Vibrates in the memory."

Admission to this concert will be 35 cents. Tickets are on sale from the Choir members and can be had at the principal stores in the village.

We hope a capacity audience will greet the new choir in its initial appearance.

Coal Found Near London Hamilton Man Claims Fox New Industry For Hanover White Star Steamship Burned

Hanover is to have a new industry, which may employ at least 25 men. The company is being formed with local and outside capital for the manufacture of radios and electric supplies. The Fisher Foundry building is being fitted up for the new factory.

Coal in commercial quantities has been reported as being found near London, Ont. The samples are said to approach the American anthracite in quality. Work is going ahead to develop the seam. If coal is found in any quantity in Ontario it will be a wonderful thing for this hitherto coal-less province. So far we have been entirely dependent on outside sources for our coal. It was made the fuel expensive and at times, hard to get. Nature would indeed be good if coal is added to Ontario's already long list of natural endowments.

Magistrate Mackins, in the County Court at Stratford, ruled that punch boards are illegal under the Lotteries Act and found four Milverton merchants guilty. They pleaded ignorance of the law and were let off with payment of costs.

The police have been requested by a Hamilton man, owner of a fox farm, to investigate the shooting of a silver black fox at Ballinfad. The Hamilton breeder claims that the fox in question is a high-priced one, and that it escaped from his fox farm a few days before it was shot.

Fire last week destroyed the White Star steamship, at Hamilton, owned by the Canada Steamship Lines, and valued at $60,000.

The traditional white gloves denoting the absence of criminal cases, were presented to Justice Grant by Sheriff McGee, at the opening last week of the Criminal Assizes at Woodstock.

The action launched by Austin Garner of Stratford, seeking $5,000 damages from Philip Martin of St. Marys for the alleged alienation of his wife's affections, was thrown out after evidence had been taken for the plaintiff by Justice Logie upon a non-suit motion by the defendant.

Attempting to park his car on the angle at a King St. curb, Catham, brakes failed to act for David Walker of Charing Cross, with the result that his machine mounted the sidewalk and chanced through a plate glass window of a china store. YEARLY MEETING OF U. C. BIBLE SOCIETY

OFFICERS ELECTED—REV. S. G. PINNOCK GIVES ADDRESS ON WORK OF SOCIETY

The Jarvis branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society held their usual yearly meeting on Wednesday evening, March 3, at 8 p.m. in the lecture room of Knox church. The attendance was very small, owing to the severity of the weather.

After devotional exercises, conducted by Revs. H. Brand and W. T. Brown the election of officers for the ensuing year was proceeded with and the following were elected to the various offices:

President—Mr. James Hazlett Sec.-Treas.—Mr. Homer Trousdale Committee—Mr. W. Henning, Mr. A. Hodgson, Mr. J. Thomson

Following the election of officers, a most interesting address on the work of the society in Western Africa was given by Rev. S. G. Pinnock, a returned missionary, with 33 years service, and now secretary of the Bible Society. In a graphic way he pictured the experiences that befall missionaries in their work, the abundant success that results from their labors, and the wonderful help given them by the Bible Society in publishing the Bible in the native tongues.

It is safe to say that every one present was thoroughly interested by the speaker, and it is regrettable that so few heard him. It is hoped in the near future to have Mr. Pinnock return to Jarvis and occupy the pulpits of the churches, when a larger number will be given the opportunity of listening to him.

NANTICOKE

A St. Patrick's supper will be given in the Nanticoke town hall on Wednesday, March 17, under the auspices of the Women's Institute. This will be followed by cards and dancing. All are cordially invited.

An interesting paper was given by Mrs. Vokes on "Facility Raising on the Farm," dealing with the four branches: Eggs, chickens, ducks and turkeys. Mrs. Marr also favored the Institute by a reading. Suggestions for next year's program were given. After a palatial luncheon, served by the hostess, the meeting was brought to a close. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Oakes.

CHEAPSIDE W. I. COMMUNITY SUPPER

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS EVENT—PROGRAM ONE OF THE BEST EVER HELD

The Women's Institute are to be congratulated upon their first community supper held on Monday evening, March 1st, in the new town hall. The Pork & Bean supper was successful in every way. The attendance was approximately estimated at over 250 people, who were served by a most dainty and appetizing full course supper. The program was pronounced one of the best ever held in the community and composed entirely of local talent. Some of the outstanding features were the chairman's address by Rev. J. O'Neill; the Kitchen Band orchestra, including about 20 of the members of the Institute; and Professor Atkinson, cartoonist, whose artistic talent was both humorous and instructive. Several splendid duets were rendered. The program included a comedian Merriell Neill, who provoked considerable applause and encore. The election selections rendered by Miss McKenzie and Miss Marshall, are worthy of high commendation. Incidentally, the service of the orchestra while supper was being served and throughout the program, was appreciated, as well as those of our pianist, Miss Walker. The closing feature of the program was the president's address, Miss Stillwell. She spoke of the splendid community spirit, appealing toward the uplift of mankind. The motto given us: God first, the other fellow second, and ourselves last. At conclusion she stated that the membership of the Women's Institute was 35, and gave a very cordial invitation for others to join them. The proceeds of the evening were $53.00.

FORMER NANTICOKE CLERGYMAN'S EXCELLENT SHOWING

Under the caption, "Oldest Church Ends Good Year," the St. Petersburg, Florida, independent, makes the following comment:

"St. Bartholomew's church is only $2,000 in debt at the end of two years after building a $10,000 rectory, purchasing a $2,000 lot and raising the pastor's salary twice within the first, so the annual report at the yearly meeting Thursday night shows:

"This church, the oldest in Pinellas county, was built during the first settlement 40 years ago and then abandoned for 20 years until the Rev. John Herbert Leake, a retired Episcopal clergyman, and a few residents in the church neighborhood reopened the old church in 1923.

"St. Petersburg grew not from its first settlement in Maximo and Lakeland but away from it. The intervening years since the church was closed have brought development to the old section and during the last year the church membership of residents has increased 50 per cent. Tourists and winter residents have given largely to the church, according to the Rev. Leake, who is still pastor."

Cow Testing Associations Invaluable Aid to Milk Production

Elimination of non-productive cows from milk herds increases net profit.

Getting more milk from fewer cows is the aim of the cow testing association. Hundreds of cases have demonstrated in a most striking manner that the weeding out of non-productive milk cows and better care for the producing members of the milk herd pay big dividends.

This point was strongly stressed in an exhibit at the International Dairy Exposition held at Indianapolis last October. An actual instance was given which disclosed the following facts:

A milk producer had a herd of six milk cows producing 27,000 pounds of milk annually. He joined a cow testing association. The first step taken was to weed out the non-productive cows, that is, those cows yielding insufficient milk to net a profitable income over and above feed cost. The weeding out process left only four cows in the milk herd. But these remaining cows were fed according to their individual requirements. No sanitary or beneficial feeding measure was neglected. During stable months, they were given plenty of clean bedding; stables were kept clean; the long hair on flanks and udders were kept clipped. The cows were brushed or wiped with a damp cloth before each milking. Utensils were sterilized. The stable was well ventilated and plenty of clean, pure water was given the cows. A year from the time the member joined the association, his records showed an increase in milk to more than 28,000 pounds from the four cows as compared to 27,000 pounds from six cows prior to this period. There was more than a corresponding increase in butterfat.

The cow testing association consists of about twenty-six farmers who co-operate and employ a trained tester to test their cows for economical production of milk and butterfat. The tester spends one day a month on each farm and obtains a complete record of each cow's milk and butterfat production, feed consumed, feed cost, growth, and income, and income over feed.

The first cow testing association in the United States was that organized at Newaygo County, Michigan, in 1905. Since then, there has been a fairly constant growth until 1925 shows a tally of 732 cow testing associations with excellent prospects of the number doubling within the next three years.
