SANDUSK

 Sam's sleigh last Saturday and had his right wrist badly fractured.
 Mr. Geo. Peacock, from the West, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Peacock, decided that "it's not good that man should be alone," and so was united in the holy bonds of matrimony on St. Patrick's Day to one of our former, popular Sanduski girls in the person of Miss Lizzie Awde of Hagersville. Congratulations!

Mrs. Byron Pond has been visiting with her sons in Detroit.

Several have tapped in this vicinity and report an unusually good run of sap.

Several from here attended the funeral of the late Mrs. L. Hodges, of Hamilton, which was held from the residence of her son, W. Hodges.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bradley entertained some of their friends to a dance last Friday evening.

Mrs. John Walker spent last week visiting friends and relatives in Jarvis.

What's the matter with our bachelors, to allow a Western widower to visit his old home and start the wedding bells ringing? Wake up, boys!

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mattice and Miss Sadie Werner spent Sunday evening at Mr. Chas. E. Bush's.

Mrs. Wm. Deal and Children and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Werner spent Monday evening at Mr. John Walker's.

APRIL ROD AND GUN

Of considerable interest in view of the recent controversy in Ontario over the usefulness or not of the crow, is a series of articles on Jack Miner's work that is running in Rod and Gun, the sporting magazine. The April issue contains an interesting article with reference to his advice on the establishing of a large bird sanctuary. The April issue of "Rod and Gun" also contains a very good offering of reading matter of interest to the sportsman, the lover of wild life and the outdoors and the casual general reader. An account of a tennerfoot bear hunt in the Wilds of British Columbia makes very interesting reading as do the current articles of Raymond Thompson's series "In the Big Woods of Canada" and A. Bryan Williams' "Breezes from the West."

The regular departments on fishing, outdoor life, guns, dogs and traps, as well as some good reading matter as well as instructive material. "Rod and Gun" is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ontario.

In Colors to Go With Your New Coat

There are soft little beret toques of the new crossgrain silks — often in the new two or three tone color alliances of gray and blue, gray, blue and rose, or a trio of new greens.

There are large hats — in larger head sizes — that bring together straw crowns and crisp taffeta brims.

There are trimmings of flat flowers; burnt ostrich and this spring's favorite banding.

The colors begin with the new light shades of green and rose and tan, and run the scale to black — plenty of black — an important color always, and especially so this spring, according to Paris.
