DEATH OF WILLIAM R. FALLIS

Death claimed very suddenly on Tuesday, April 13th, one of the district's foremost and most highly respected citizens in the person of William R. Fallis. Deceased was born at Jarvis, Ont., April 11th, 1857. In 1885 he married Carrie E. Cunningham, sister of the Rev. Andrew Cunningham then stationed at Jarvis. Of this union two sons and two daughters were born, the sons predeceasing him in 1895, and his wife in August, 1901.

Deceased came to Moosomin in the spring of 1890 and settled on a farm in the "Mile Belt" between Moosomin and Fleming, making Fleming his post office. He moved to Welwyn in 1897 and settled on his present farm half a mile south of town. No railroad was through the district at that time and many were the hardships of the pioneer days. In 1903 he married Elizabeth Sanderson, of Jarvis, Ont., who proved a devoted wife and helpmate until she was called to her reward on December 2nd, 1919.

The late Mr. Fallis early associated himself with church work, being organist for 12 years in the Jarvis, Ont., Methodist Church, and during his sojourn at Fleming was leader of the choir. He and his wife started the first Sunday School at Ferndale. He was very faithful in church work at Welwyn, having been leader of the choir for a number of years, and at the time of his death was an elder of the church.

In public life the late Mr. Fallis was a real asset to the community, being Vice President of The Welwyn Farmers' Elevator Co., Ltd., a member of the Council of the Rural Municipality of Moosomin, and at various times served on the School Boards of Fleming and Woodbine Schools.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. H. D. Willson and Miss Carrie Fallis, of Welwyn, and four grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Geo. Jupp, Fleming, and three brothers, Dr. Samuel W., Toronto, Ont.; John J., Elbow, Sask.; and H. A., of San Francisco, Cal.

Relatives from a distance attending the funeral were: Mrs. R. W. Thompson, of Grenfell, Sask.; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fallis, of Elbow, Sask.; Mr. and Mrs. A. George and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Anderson, Mamsin, Man.

The heartfelt sympathy of the entire community is extended to the family in their sad loss of a loving father and brother.

IN MEMORIAM—A TRIBUTE

Death has claimed one of our citizens and the sturdy pioneers. Are mourning his departure from this lowly vale of tears.

But no monument is needed to perpetuate his name.

For his many years of service for the people will proclaim. And stamp him as a man who had a mission to fulfill. And his work in Church, Council and in School affairs showed skill. That work is now completed, and his name will be revered. By all those with whom he labored ere the hand of death appeared.

PRESENTATION AND FAREWELL

On Tuesday evening the members of the W. The visit was made the occasion of a presentation to Mrs. Piper of a Wedgewood "compo" and a pair of candlesticks to match. The presentation was made by Mrs. J. S. Burwash, the president of the W. A.

The ladies were accompanied by a deputation of the men of the congregation. Dr. Lewis in a happy speech presented Canon Piper with an address and a purse, in token of the esteem in which he is held. "Auld Lang Syne" was sung, and the deputation dispersed after wishing Canon and Mrs. Piper God-speed.

Your Sheep Deserve Attention

As time goes on, progressive farmers are placing a higher valuation on the variety of sheep they raise and the care they are given. It is generally realized that a sheep raiser secures two crops per year—the lambs and the wool. All indications point to a well sustained price for lamb and mutton due to the fact that consumption has at last overtaken production and prices being paid for wool, mutton and lambs are, even now, most inviting.

Compared with other live stock, sheep raising provides a profitable source of cash income. Early lambs can be made ready for market by June and when the wool is harvested and sold in June and July, this revenue is received at a season when most needed by the average farmer. There are many instances where farmers of sheep have kept their flock out of debt. In one instance, 50 ewes produced 85 lambs which when marketed averaged 66 pounds at 15c per pound or a total of $648.75. The wool clipped from the 50 ewes averaged a

CHURCH NOTES

KNOX CHURCH

What is the Bible?—That is a question that has been troubling the minds of many thinking men. How is it to be regarded? Is there anything in the modern view of the Bible? All these things are of first rate importance and worthy of study. The minister has already delivered the first sermon in the series. On Sunday next he will deliver the second, "The Bible, What Is It?"

The local lodge of the I.O.O.F. will visit Knox Church for their annual church service on Sunday, May 23rd, at the evening service.

The Mothers Choir, which led the praise service on Sunday last at both services, was very much appreciated, large congregations being present at both services.

WESLEY UNITED CHURCH

Last Sunday being "Go To Sunday School" and "Mother's Day," was a splendid success. The congregations both morning and evening were larger than usual, while the juvenile choir in the morning and the mother's choir at night excelled themselves; and many kindly criticisms were offered in favor of their splendid singing.

On Sunday evening next, the 16th inst., the firemen here, with visiting friends from a distance, will attend in a body divine service in this church and they will occupy the center pews from the front. Printed leaflets will be distributed with the order of service and the hymns upon them for the convenience of all visitors. Come early and enjoy the service throughout.

"THE WANDERER"
With Ernest Torrence, Greta Nissen, Tyrone Power

The famous Biblical story of the "Prodigal Son," with a wonderful cast and elaborate scenes, is told in "The Wanderer." Miss Nissen appears as Tisha, the temptress, in the most important role of her career thus far. Young Collier is great in the role of the Prodigal Son. Torrence gives a fine performance in a villainous role. Destruction of the wicked city while a big banquet and revel is in progress is the big scene.

FABLES IN COLOR
"Voice of the Nightingale"

This is a distinct novelty and one of the best short subjects that has been on display for a long time. It is the first of a series of one-reelers in color and reveals some beautiful photography and a pretty little story that is of exceptional merit.
