Discover For Yourself GREEN TEA

To drink a cup is a revelation. Try is.

THE RADIO DETECTIVE

BY ARTHUR B. REEVE.

CHAPTER XXIV.

THE WIRELESS BOMB. As we stood, temporarily defeated even in our success, at the red barn.

"I think I can get an inking of it."

plane is there, too!" he exclaimed.
"We'll take it by the shore road. I think we can make it if we don't get the right time. Some brain that knew

Kennedy wasted no more time over every detail and figured it all out had the wrecked gray racer in the old red planned this, he was sure anyway. It was Dick we must save. first, then catch the perpetrators of the great radio robbery. He was driving the car up to the limit, both in the back roads and on the shore

While we were racing against time, on board the "Scooter" the mysterious individual in the main cabin had turned from the wireless detonator to the services and keyed up.

So far, so good. He had come to radio sending outfit and had started to get in touch with someone else on the land other than the gang with the gray racer.

Hank was at the very moment exalone, ready to receive.

Over the sir now came the orders to Hank. "Tow that thing in the cid duck boat out to the shed and leave it under the Evans Radio Shack before five. Be sure. Before five Five is the hour set.' Hank got it and replied with alacrity that he would do it. Then he started out of the room on the run to make sure that his orders were executed in time. Indeed, if only those dog he could not see. working for good, would show as much! energy and promptness as those working for evil, this world might be a far more fit place in which to live.

It was not long before Hank was unlocking the door on a shed built out over the water at the other end of the harbor. In the shed, floating, was a litt duck boat, covered over except for the cockrit in which the duck hunt-What was in the best Hank himself could not have told precisely. He had been warned to let it alone mir. I to die when things were coming so we to him. Besides, he had seen enough to realize that, if he disobeyed, the threat might not be idle, even though he did not know just how he would lose his life.

There's a Treat for you and your children in the Peppermint sugar jacket and another in the Peppermint flavored gum inside.

Anchored out in the harbor from the that, ever.

What's that, out there? Is that shed Hank had at a mooring, a little Kennedy's mind was now working rap idly on the next problem that confrot with it. It was with this little open "It's not only Ken but it's Hank," that the desperadoes of the radio conmotor boat that Hank had been directexclaimed Craig as he pulled up the ed to tow the duck boat to its destined car and we looked. "What's it all tion when he received his orders. And about this fight?"

remarked Kennedy. He had been piecing things together rapidly. "I can't forget the last part of that message from our friend K903 in Deer Park— 'Kennedy and Jameson away from Evans' boathouse." He paused a Evans' boathouse." He paused a together that duck hoat and its con- whistle on the message one thing he was sure. He was bound to deliver that duck hoat and its con- whistle on the message to deliver that duck hoat and its con- whistle on the message to deliver that duck hoat and its con- whistle on the message to deliver that duck hoat and its con- whistle on the message to deliver that duck hoat and its con- whistle on the message to deliver that duck hoat and its con- whistle on the message to deliver that duck hoat and its con-

the Radio Shack was a blow aimed directly at his heart.

Out across the centre of the harbor burning rapidly.

Hank had had some idea what it down before cooks, and after a good.

directly at his heart.

"But how would they know that we we're away," I asked. "No one has knows were away," I asked. "No one has knows we're away from the activity at the bead of the harbor.

Another problem that worried him was going to stow this duck beat to get it directly under rapidly now. "Take the other recent messages." 'Apparatus O.K.,' for instance. And now this: 'All set for five o'clock." He looked at his watch, was a straid of it. "Something to do with that Radio Shack—and Ken. It's meaning place of the king of the same in the called it. The called it. The cond on the inventor of a particularly dell' resume the was going to stow this duck beat to get it directly under rapidly now. "Take the other recent messages. 'Apparatus O.K.,' for instance. And now this: 'All set for five o'clock.'" He looked at his watch, meaning place of the Radio Shack as he had been a beat house once and now Easton had turned it into a heart of the Radio of the Radio Shack—and Ken. It's was a straid of it. "And my radio plane as for the going that the reliable on this to the place of the same the place on the same that the motorboat had been the circled, conciding that there would be run in and out to the least of the whatity at turned, broke from them, ran to the was granted to them even a granted to them even a function of letting Hank to Conqueror bestowed up on the scape that way.

Suddenly, between the bows on the same granted to them even a granted to them even a function of letting Hank to Conqueror bestowed up on the scape that way.

Suddenly, between the bows on the same granted to them even a granted to them even a function of letting Hank to Conqueror bestowed up on the scape that way.

In the look in the harbor the least of the king on the least of the king on the land of the Shack, and he gazed at it keenly as he put-putted nearer. Would someon nterfere at the last moment? if he should meet Ken and some other members of the troop? They would take it out on him for past sins then the Radio gang would take it out on him for dischedience, or, worse to them, failure. Hank was just a bit the landing dock and shut down his little motor, sosing his way in toward! the piling where he hoped to shove the duck boat. No one had showed a liank was at the very moment ex-pecting a message and was in his room and surely by this time as he made enough around the dock they must have heard if anyone was there.

Hank was almost within sight of success when he heard a loud barking upstairs overhead at the noise he was forced to make.

"Confound it! It's that coilie, Laddie, of Ken's. Why did they have to leave that kiyoodle in the place?" Hank shook his fist impotently at the

But Laddie was not affected by thoughts. He continued his barking. Laddie had many kinds of barks. There was one bark for a friend; quite Impartially on drift-weed, sand or another for an enemy. And anyone was Laddie's enemy until he knew him for a friend. Hence it was the enemy bark that Hank had excited. Laddie barked even louder. Hank hurried. Perhaps, if he could untie this duck boat and tie it up seeurely under the piling in which the Burn, like stretched silver of a ware Radio Shack in that part over the under pain of death and Hank had no water rested, he might get away, then town?" Laddie would quiet down. And even if Laddie had been excited, once the cause of the excitement was removed, he would never in time disclose what had happened under the Radio Shack friends he will ever have. to interfere with Hank's plans or the plans of his friends, whatever those money he will ever earn. Dans were.

Ken, however, was playing in some kind of luck, the kind that comes to bey who is always on the job. He had Garage. He was on the job, after God. Vira had been saved, in getting away from it and down again to the Radio the lines of his palm, for his good for-Shack which he had been left to guard. tune. How he wished he had been along on that radio tracking expedition with his wrole! But then he could not complain: Between Ruth and Vira, Ken had not found existence exactly dull and uninteresting in our absence. Well, there was the Radio Shack, anyway. It was safe. Laddie had been there.

What was that? Ken paused, then hastened his steps. Laddie was barking at something and Ken knew Laddie's barks. It was not the joyous bark of the dog when he saw his young master. It was fierce and deep, betokened something wrong, something that Laddie with his camine instinct

Ken paused a moment to gather where it was Laddie suspected something wrong. In that pause he more than fancied he heard a deep vibration below. Was that a one-cylinder mo-tor? Down under the Radio Shack? Ken did not turn into the entrance WTEREVERY MEAL from the cliff level to the workshop above. He climbed down the side as sed aboard the little motor best with its engine running, awarg the rulling after it the Gates of a Seed Farm. as he threw in the propeller. The Haus yes ever seen a field, unending least moved off, pulling after it the Of online only, out in bloom, "Leggo!" Hank with a sund hop the below of broken snow and s

The boys struggled for the taller Thick above black-muck hem wheel and the little motor best ren in the perfect field of a garden so a wide and crazy series of curves. Same weed finds room? harbor. Ken did not know what it was all about. But it simply must be rear thing. And if Hank wanted to be near the Radio Shack, Ken wanted him as the Radio Shack, Ken wanted him as the Radio Shack, Ken wanted him as far away from it as possible.

It was at just this moment that Kesmedy, Easton and myself awang in the car up the cliff road after as hard a drive as I have ever sum Kennedy make. True, Easton and I had more orderly, the endless match-had our eyes glued to the road behind us for any trace of a motor cycle. But I don't want any more road races file. That any other farm shows.

one-lung, two-cycle engine in a small Ken?" Easton pointed. Two boys in August Phave seen a mile of onions motor boat. It was only three and a were struggling over the tiller of a Blasses out and stand half horsepower, but it served Hank's small motor boat which seemed to be Ellis a bleaching mesh of broken snow

"I've known some funny things in ife but this sure knocks you dead." That girls now wear less clothes when dressed, than when they go to

"Beautiful, Proud Sen." areless forever, beautiful proud sea You laugh in happy thunder all alone. You fold upon yourself, you dance your dance

You make us believe that we can out live death. You make us for an instant, for your sake.

Not breaking, but about to break Every Man Must Rely--Upon his will efforts for all the the bottom of the lake. -Upon his ability to serve for his true worth to the world.

-Upon the life of usefulness, not -Upon his wisdom rather than upon belief, for proof of his religion.

A cow's hide produces thirty-five pounds of leather; a horse's only eighteen pounds.

- Martha Webster Merrichew.

Evans' boathouse."

He paused a moment. "That's a reason for fearing for the boathouse."

Evans' boathouse."

The paused a moment. "That's a reason for fearing for the boathouse."

Evans' boathouse."

If his engine did not break down he could do it. The engine did not break down he could do it.

mended as a stuffing for turkeys.

popularity, brought within the means In the Middle Ages the head cook of a femilal castle was a personage of con- book 10 cents the copy. sidesable importance. He gave his HOW TO ORDER PATTERNS subcrdinates. He held in his hand a patterns as you want. Enclose 20e in it rge wooden speen, the insignia of his stamps or coin (coin preferred; wrap office. With it he tasted the various it carefully) for each number and dishes designed for his lord's table, address your order to Pattern Dept., and with it also, using it as a rod, Wilson Publishing Co., 73 West Adahe corrected the gluttony and idleness Lide St., Toronto. Patterns sent by of those around him. return mail.

A good cook will always take his profession with becoming seriousness. but Vatel, a French cook who lived in the seventeenth century, carried his chagrin too far when he committed suicide because, at a banquet given by the Prince of Conde to the French king, the lebsters ordered for the sauce ordained to be eaten with the turbot had not arrived.

Cereme, another illustrious French cook, received from George IV. a salary of $5,000 a year. In spite of this salary, he resigned his post at the Court of England because, like many another artist, he could not bear the cold and gloomy English climate. not on the square."

Europe's First Houses.

Werkmen excavating near Lake Zurich have unearthed the remains of Lake dwellings which date back to the Stone Age, more than 7,000 years ago. Stone axes, spears, and domestic utensils are among the objects found.

The Swiss lake dwellers were reyoungster was picking posies. vegied to the world in 1853 by a great drought, when the waters in the lakes those flowers?" he called. and rivers of the country fell many feet below normal level, and so far as plied the boy. is known they are unique of their kind in Europe. The structures which supported the wooden platforms on which a few of them a good home." -Upon his friendliness for all the the dwellings were built are made of strong piles of tree trunks driven into

A combination of clay and wood was used in the construction of the a teacher to a class of boys, indicating lake huts, and the floors of the huts the writing on the blackboard. "Now, -Upon his own prayers if he en with were above the water line were been on the job at the Rendezvous pects to make the acquaintance of made of large slabs of stone bearing tell me why?" inscriptions of the Stone Age in hieroglyphs.

World's Wettest Spot. London's average rainfall is some 23 inches, but in Freetown, the capital of Sierra Leone, 131 inches of rain descend from the skies every year. Assam. lidia's most easterly province, has actually the weitest climate in the world, however, with an annual rainfall of 489 inches. This, by far the heaviest downpour known anywhere. has been registered at Cherrapunji, in the Khasi hills, where, on certain days in June, as much as 30 inches of rain have fallen within twenty-four hours. the equivalent of London's supply for a whole year. Quick-time Tailoring.

From sheep's back to tailored coat in one day is the record of a garment worn by the Lieutenant-Covernor of their creations are those of tested

FLARES TEMPER STRAIGHT

SILHOUETTE.

Not on the Square.

"Inferior ingredients, I suppose?"

Offering Shelter.

boy out of his wood lot, where the

"What are you going to do with

"They're wild ones, aren't they?" re-

"Weil. I just thought I'd like to give

"Two cows is in the field," said that sentence is wrong. Can any boy

Perhaps.

One youngster sought to help her out of the difficulty: "P'r'ars one of them are a calf, miss!" he suggested.

Nature's Aid to Larelines

Preserves

beautifies

complexion

Complements

Italiam

doughnuts are all he bakes."

Price 20 cents.

Strained backs, ugly hands angled nerves and shore empers all come from the ting rub-rub-rubbing

Rinso do the work.

Change the hard work of washing to just rinsing.

Simply dissolve Rinso in the wash-water, put in the clothes, soak for 2 hours or more and just rinse.

Let Rinso do your ment

Made by the makers

Autumn is Passing. of the average woman. Price of the Autumn is passing on and icy northern

> Even now, with chilling wintry keen-King Frost will soon take charge of mother earth

And change her garb to that of ice The trees are bare, the flowers are long decayed. The birds have taken their songs to warmer climes. But we remain through dreary months to dream Of sunny days in former summer

Tis well that seasons thus should come and go. And summer skies give place to those of grey, Just as we find that tears and sorrows

More value to the joys of yesterday. -George Beattie.

Minard's Liniment for Neuralgia. "The goods that baker puts out are Interference. "What did you think of the radio "No, not that; but pretzels and program last night?"

"I got only part of it." "Why, that's too bad. What was the trouble?" "The installment man came and A farmer hurried to chase a small took away my set!"

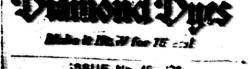

tints like This! To give your dainty underwear and stockings true tints, you must use real dye. For the gorgeous tinting like you see in things when they are new, use the original Diamond Dyce. Don't stop with tinting, though! It's just as easy to Diamond Dye almost anything you wear or the hangings in the home—a brand new color right over the old. Home dyeing is lots of fun-and think of what it saves! FREE now, for the asking! Your druggist will give you the Diamond Dye Cyclopedia telling dozens of dye secrets, containing simple directions, and will show you actual piece-goods samples of colors. Or write for hig Elustrated book Color Craft, free from DIAMOND DYES, Dept. N4, Windsor,

Yet most peop that pure butter obtains it, is no Often it is white requently an a harmless way, to writes a doctor i ing despatch. I say most per knowing it, st The idea of ye ing in lush mea us. At any cos self-deception, buttercups on or Exactly the : whiskey, which tred, is a "white believe, once pi the market—th: key. It was a The Va The yellow flo kev drinker. artificially color One feels inc on these facts. ture. But I am laughter is jus more sense in than is general For example, dark, port win actly alike, so perienced in w which is which. tastes entirely Is it the colo ference? And, titled to say th not confined en is spread, als senses?

Again, it is people like to d cup or tea out NEW ZE

TRY PRO A HIGHLY

SCHEME Labor to Re venues of

New A highly int taking "' 'a in try which has home of so mu industrial legis the traditional the two partne and labor, and the community the government tute book an panies empowe ing the neces memorandum c what are know all employees. These labor value, and do capital of the the holder to a ings of shareh assets in the e up, to such an mer as may memorandum tion, says a N "The Westmin shares, and scheme, is va

No scheme

Arbitration app chliation and the necessary ployees, and re als are favoral court if the sei or unfairly adv changing circui certificate. in shares commit its regulations Significantly vative capitali of the class w exist, and the raison d'etre. v the sharing of traditional pr foreboding. fatigable zeal o a New Zealand joint author pamphlet entit! Problem." Mr. the whole of ou to the long-ext values, and the which subordin property, and he ent solution of through adhered in all our burin He claims, th not morally so