CHESAPEAKE

The Chesapeake Women's Institute are putting on a play in the Community Hall on Friday evening, Oct. 20th. Watch for further particulars and reserve the date.

The concert which was given by the teacher and members of the Sunday class was a decided success in every way. The Colored Choir sang themselves in every way and captivated their audience. The others who took part, outside the class, were Miss Dorothy Bothwright, Mr. Marshall, Miss Vera Bush and Miss McConis. Each one, in their respective ways, excelled and gave great satisfaction to the audience. The dialogue which was given were also well rendered and had good words as well as being instructive. Rev. Mr. Walker, who made a very capable chairman, called much also to the program. It is considered one of the best ever given in Chesapeake.

SANRUSS

Miss Mildred Walker, accompanied by the Misses Mercer, spent Sunday under the parental home.

Mrs. Robert Dalby, of Rossville, has returned home after spending the past week with her sister here, Mrs. Chris. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Booth and family spent the week-end with relatives in Hamilton.

Mr. John Walker, while driving north on Chesapeake road on Sunday last, collided with another car en route to Woodlawn Park. Fortunately no one was injured. Both cars were slightly damaged.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Messinger and son Murray, of Copetown, spent the week-end at Mr. W. R. Werner's.

Mr. John Hemming spent Sunday at Mr. John Walker's.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Mattice and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Bush and little son Norris spent Sunday at Mr. Bert Awdie's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pond held a reception for Hartley and his bride on Saturday evening. During the evening another bunch gathered to welcome him back by giving him a chair-van.

Miss Estella Pond, of Paris, spent Sunday at her home here.

Sanduski was well represented among the prize winners at the Jarvis fall fair last week. Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Pond received 1st on their second daughter Sheila, in the baby show. Robert Booth 1st on his carriage team of horses, and Wm. Lofthouse swept the ring in sheep.

Miss Mildred Walker has accepted a position with the British Hosiery Co., in Simcoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Brown and daughter, of Buffalo, visited with J. W. Pond's on Sunday.

Local ball fans were much interested in hearing the little World Series games last week on the radio and the big World Series this week.

ROCKFORD

(Too late for last issue)

Mr. Wm. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Howard and Gordon Howard attended the reception for their cousin at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Howard of Hartford, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Somers spent Sunday with the latter's parents. Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Wilson of Wilsonville, attended the Rally Day service there.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson and Harold spent Sunday with friends at Wilsonville. Mrs. Wilson and Harold attending Rally Day service.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Priest and Bud Priest attended the Rally Day service at Wilsonville on Sunday and took tea with Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Riddle.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams and Jimmie and Miss Margaret Bemie of Hamilton, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Alex Angus.
