JARVIS AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY FALL FAIR

Prize Lists Being Distributed—A Few Corrections in the Special Prizes

The prize lists for the Fall Fair were mailed on Tuesday and any person not receiving one can obtain a copy by calling at the office of the Secretary.

In the list of Special Prizes, No. 22, by R. E. Miller, should read, "value $2.50," and No. 27, by H. S. Falls, same should read, "one Serving Tray," instead of "one Sewing Tray." No. 28, by T. H. Lewis, should read: "for the best bushel of McIntosh Red Apples (retained) 1st, $3.; 2nd, $2.

The Committee on Special Attractions are now doing their bit, booking many new features for the last day of the fair.

MR. JACOB PARK

The Collingwood Saturday News of August 28th publishes the following notice of the death of Mr. Jacob Park, father of Mrs. Arthur Cross, and brother of Mrs. Mitson, of Simcoe:

Early in July a frequent visitor to Collingwood, Mr. Jakob Park, came here from Detroit to spend the summer with his daughter, Mrs. W. McDowall. At this time he was in the usual good health of one in the seventy-ninth year and as was his wont renewed acquaintances with friends he had made from time to time. On Monday of this week he was suddenly stricken with paralysis and on Thursday afternoon he passed away.

Mr. Park was born at Jarvis, Ont., seventy-nine years ago. He lived there practically all his life and for many years carried on a general business. He was married at Jarvis, his wife predeceasing him four years ago. Since he has made his home with members of his family, spending part of the time in Detroit and part in Collingwood.

The surviving sons and daughters are: Frank and R. D., in Detroit; Mrs. J. Leyman, in Detroit; Mrs. Arthur Cross, in Simcoe; and Mrs. McDowall, in Collingwood. One brother, Mr. E. Park, is in Essex, where he is postmaster, and one sister, Mrs. Mitson, lives in Simcoe.

The remains were taken to Jarvis on Friday, where interment took place that afternoon.

The deceased was a member of the United Church and when in Collingwood attended Trinity United church, the pastor of which, Rev. W. B. Smith, conducted the funeral service at the home of Mr. McDowall, on Thursday evening.

Mr. Park was a man of quiet disposition, and while advanced years compelled him to live quietly, he always retained a lively interest in the affairs of the day. Those who knew him always held him in the highest esteem.—Simcoe Reformer.

BROWN-McGLENNING

A pretty autumn wedding was solemnized on Saturday noon, September 4th, 1926, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McGlenning, 337 Western Avenue, when their only daughter, Agnes Isabel, became the bride of Horace Clifton Brown of Detroit, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton C. Brown of Chesapeake, Ont. Rev. D. T. L. McMerrell, pastor of Victoria Presbyterian Church, officiated in the presence of immediate relatives and a few intimate friends. The rooms were bright with the season's flowers in pink and white effort. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in her wedding gown of blonde and French-blue cut velvet with trimmings of georgette, and carried an armful of Ophelia roses. The bride's maid, Miss Dorothy Burton, wore a pretty gown of Copenhagen flate crepe and carried Columbia roses. The groom was attended by Mr. J. B. McGlenning, brother of the bride. The wedding music was played by Miss Martha Hogg, A.T.C.M., organist of Victoria Presbyterian Church. After the ceremony a reception was held, and a dainty luncheon served. Toasts were proposed and responded to, after which the young couple left on their honeymoon by motor to Buffalo and other American points. Mrs. Brown, travelling in a deif blue broadcloth suit with blonde velvet hat, shoes and stocking to match. On their return they will reside in Detroit. Guests from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Clifton C. Brown, of Chesapeake, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Watson, Niagara Falls, N.Y.; Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Bone, Hagersville, Ont.; Miss S. MacCallum, Paisley, Ont., and Mrs. W. E. Hewis, Whitby, Ont.

JARVIS W. I.

The Institute held the September meeting on August 31st, at the home of Mrs. Rodgers, with 18 members and 14 visitors present.

The President opened the meeting in the customary way. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Correspondence was read concerning prizes for school fairs and voted $5 to same. Mr. Walter was appointed to look after the beautifying of small park. Business being completed, the roll of membership was called and three new members added. Followed by a reading entitled "Over the Hill to the Poor House," read by Miss M. Cullen for Mrs. Rodgers, "Darling Nellie Grey" was sung. Mrs. Butcher prepared a paper on "How the W. I. can Beautify the School Grounds," a discussion followed led by Miss Allen. It was decided to give a donation toward repairing the flower beds on the school grounds. Miss Allen gave a vivid outline of the tour she had made to the Maritime Provinces, which was very much appreciated by all.

The meeting was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem, after which lunch was served and a social half hour spent.

The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Belbeck's home on Oct. 13.

COUNTY CONVENTION OF HALDIMAND PROHIBITIONISTS

A county convention of the Haldimand Prohibitionists was held in the Cayuga United Church on Sept. 3rd. Miss McCorkindale, of Australia, delighted the audience with her splendid address.

The following resolution was carried unanimously:

"That we receive the replies of Mr. Stringer and Mr. Senn with pleasure and that it is the feeling of this convention that the replies of the candidates be published and the people left to independent action."

The questions submitted to the two candidates and the replies received are as follows:

1. What attitude do you take on this export question, irrespective of party? Would you take the initiative in moving a resolution on the order paper?

2. Are you opposed to political parties accepting campaign funds from the liquor interests?

3. What is your position in regard to the manufacture of liquor in provinces where sale is illegal?

Reply from Mr. Warren Stringer follows:

Dunnville, Aug. 30, 1926.
Mr. Leonard Parke,
Caledonia.

Dear Sir:

Am enclosing a reply to the questions put to me in our interview in the office of Mr. Almas. I am doing this frankly, knowing that it is perhaps the first time a candidate for the Federal House has done so, knowing also the possibilities of its causing the opponents of temperance to redouble their efforts against my candidature. However, I am placing my views before your association frankly, and leave it in your hands.

Yours truly,
Warren Stringer.
P.S.—Please read this to your association. W. S.

Dunnville, Aug. 30, 1926.

To the Temperance People:

In reply to the questions put to me by your President I would say:

1. That I am opposed to the export of liquor to any country having a law prohibiting liquor and would be willing to take any necessary steps—moving a resolution on the order paper or any other action that would be of assistance in securing control of the situation—regard always being had to the situation existing in the House, not to raise antagonism at a time when it would tend to hinder our cause being considered at a more favorable time. That is, I would not take such a step at any time, favourable or unfavourable simply to fulfil a promise.

2. I am entirely opposed to any party in politics accepting contributions from liquor interests either directly or indirectly.

3. This is a bigger question that might at first appear, and while my opinions is that no liquor should be manufactured in a dry province it might be well nigh impossible to carry this out, but I am positive in the stand that no liquor should be sold in a dry province whether manufactured inside or outside of it. Manufacture and sale must be controlled if we are ever to get proper results from dry law.

Very truly yours,
Warren Stringer.

Caledonia, Sept. 1, 1926.
Mr. Leonard Parke,
Caledonia.

Dear Sir:

With reference to the questions submitted in your letter of recent date I wish to state that I am in perfect accord with the action of the Hon. Mr. Stevens in his efforts to suppress the illicit traffic in alcoholic beverages which is being carried on. I am in favour of a thorough investigation into the customs irregularities such as is being conducted by the Royal Commission sitting.

I have never received any subscription for campaign funds from the distillers or any other organization and do not believe in this practice.

Yours sincerely,
M. C. Senn.

CONCERT

The Sunshine class of the Baptist church, Chesapeake, will hold a concert in the Community hall, on Monday evening, Sept. 27th. One special feature of the program will be the "North Cayuga Baptist Church Colored Choir." Watch for further announcements and reserve the date.

CHURCH NOTES

KNOX CHURCH

The action of the clergy of Great Britain in appealing to the Prime Minister on behalf of the miners of that country, urging him to endeavor to obtain a Christian settlement of the strike, has met with a good deal of criticism. Much of the criticism has been favorable, a good deal unfavorable. The old cry that the church has no business to meddle with the economic system, that it had better confine itself to the preaching of the Gospel, has again been heard. The answer to that criticism is that Jesus has a message for the economic world. That anything that will bring good will in the world of labor must concern the church. Jesus has a message for employer as well as employee. This fact will form the basis of the morning sermon on Sunday next, when the minister will discuss "The Parable of the Employer."

Jesus came preaching the "Gospel of the Kingdom," but he was not sanguine of its immediate reception by all men. He recognised that all men would not accept it, some would but others would not. His ideas on this matter were embodied in story form in a vivid telling fashion. "Four Types of Mind" will give you his idea on the subject. These types of mind will be discussed at the evening service.

11 a.m.—"The Parable of the Employer."
7 p.m.—"Four Types of Mind."
