SEPTEMBER ROD AND GUN

A collection of articles of real sport in various parts of the Dominion sums up the contents of the September issue of "Rod and Gun," the Canadian sport magazine, which is just published.

An interesting article on some moose experiences, principally in Eastern Canada by William J. McNulty appears followed by an amusing story of a British Columbia trip, "Poor Fish," by C. J. Broderick. Bonnycastle Dale in this latest issue deals with some experiences, "Living at Close Quarters With the Moose of Nova Scotia." J. W. Winson writes an interesting study of the Saw Whet and Screech owls.

Fishing Notes, the regular department edited by G. P. Sladen contains several articles of diversified angling interest and C. S. Landis' Guns and Ammunition department carries a number of instructive articles for the shooter. In the contents is also a good article on the slaughter of ducks by floating oil on Hamilton Bay.

"Rod and Gun" is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.
