IT IS FALL

Lodges are getting their winter's activities under way. Young folks are wooing Terpsichore again. There is a smell of camphor in many homes as the indoor games are being opened up. New loud speakers are being installed for the radio. Study circles are resuming. There is hot competition around the reading lamp for possession of the home town paper. Euchre is still played. There is some demand for corn-poppers. The ice cream man looks a little glum but the electric light and gas meter reader wears a smile like a split watermelon as he sets down the figures.

It has been a wonderfully fine summer with more than usual opportunities for out-door enjoyments, because of the sunshine which continued for so long. We are having more than our share of the fall rains, too, and later the nip of frost and the sheen of snow. Just as one of the fine things about going away from home is to come back there, so one of the fine things about a prolonged summer is that finally we come to its end and to normal change. Seasons wind variety and prevent monotony. And each of them in Jarvis is enjoyable.

TWO SIDES

There are two sides to every question. This is just as true in advertising as in an argument. In advertising there is the side of the advertiser and the side of the public.

From the viewpoint of the advertiser in the newspaper, advertising is a means of increasing his volume of business. Commercial development demands advertising as necessary to retail business as customers. Without customers the advertiser could not remain in business, so he advertises to attract customers.

The other side of the question is that of the public. To the public newspaper advertising means the bringing of the store show cases to the office and living room. It is a service extended to the public by the advertiser, because it aids the customer in ascertaining where that which is wanted can be purchased at the most advantageous price. Newspaper advertising has abolished shop-searching. To save time for the shopper lengthens his day.

So although there are two sides to newspaper advertising, there is no disagreement between the two. Finding that advertising serves the public as well as business the merchant has two reasons instead of one for advertising, and the customer learns that the most progressive merchants are the most extensive advertisers, so there is a double attraction. By the nature of business, if advertising did not help the buying public it could not help the advertiser.

An onion a day will drive the family away.

The first home run king was the prodigal son.

A girl with a contagious laugh is worth catching.

Some men look so cheap they give themselves away.

The man who sings his own praises doesn't draw a crowd.

As life draws to a close some men take up religion; and some take up golf.

It's a wise grandmother today who profits by her granddaughter's mistakes.

You can be an idealist, however, without slipping the other fellow all the time.

And yet we doubt if red theories have done more to retard civilization than red tape.

The "charming naturalness" you like in a girl cost her many weary hours of practice.

The first step in the direction of disarmament has been the gradual elimination of wrist watches.

Here: One who grinds one's axe. Crime against civilization: The act of grinding the other fellow's axe.

Knox Church to

and Foreign Bible Society in Quebec. A year later (April 21, 1904), the Rev. D. M. Buchanan, B.A., of Lanark, was inducted into the pastorate. It was during his ministry that Dr. Wm. Jaques, John Thomson and W. J. Fallis, present members of the session were elected and ordained to that office. Mr. Buchanan resigned in 1912, and at present is ministering at Tuganoke, Saskatchewan.

He was followed by Rev. J. R. MacCrimmon in 1913, and who continued to minister to the congregation until ill health caused his retirement in 1916. After returning to the ministry Mr. MacCrimmon held pastorates in the West, and is now minister at Almonte, Ont.

In 1916 Rev. Arthur W. Hare succeeded Rev. MacCrimmon and continued to be pastor of the congregation until his resignation in November, 1922, to accept the oversight of the congregations at Hillsburg and Bethel. He is now in-charge of the congregation at Beaverton, Ont.

Rev. W. T. Brown, the present minister, was inducted on March 8th, 1923.

Such, in brief, is the history of Knox Church throughout its 70 years of service. Many names might be mentioned of those who contributed very largely to the work that it has done in this community. Of the older members few remain, the oldest being Mrs. John Brown and Mr. Stephen Allen, both of whom have passed the age of 80 years. One only of the session before 1898, Mr. James Williamson, is with the congregation today.

It is the second and third generation of the old pioneers who are left to witness this 70th birthday, the others have passed on to their reward, leaving behind them the memory of work well done and service nobly rendered.

SEPTEMBER ROD AND GUN

A collection of articles of local sport in various parts of the Dominion sums up the contents of the September issue of "Rod and Gun," the Canadian game magazine, which is just published.

An interesting article on some moose experiences, principally in Eastern Canada, by William J. McNulty, appears followed by an amusing story of a British Columbia trip, "Poor Fish," by C. J. Broderick. Bonnydale Dale in this latest issue deals with some experiences, "Living at Close Quarters With the Moose of Nova Scotia," J. W. Winsor writes an interesting study of the Saw Whet and Heron-owls, the regular department edited by G. P. Sladen contains several articles of diversified angling interest and C. S. Landis' Guns and Ammunition department carries a number of instructive articles for the shooter. In the contents is also a good article on the slaughter of ducks by floating oil on Hamilton Bay. "Rod and Gun" is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

Panama Bathing Beauties

Twenty of these twenty-two children are girls whose ages range from seven to fourteen years, and they are not mere bathing beauties. From their infancy they have played in and around the water at Panama, and they now give regular exhibitions of their aquatic skill. The girl on the left of the row now in a high-styled and graceful demonstration of the Panama Canal Zone is to take part in the Olympic Competitions. The photograph was taken after an exhibition before the passengers of the Canadian Pacific S.S. Empress of Canada, now on World Cruise.
