WHY NOT A CELEBRATION FOR JARVIS ON MAY 24?

We have the grounds and the people, and our energetic Mr. Parkinson can soon collect funds sufficient for a good start for prizes for our young sports, if we but ask him.

No better day for a line of sports than the time honored birthday of Queen Victoria.

THURSDAY HALF HOLIDAYS

We, the undersigned business men of the Village of Jarvis, do hereby agree to close our respective places of business on each Thursday afternoon at 12 o'clock noon, during the months of May, June, July, August and September, 1927:

WORK AMONG THE BOYS IN COUNTY

Conference of Leaders Held in Dunnville Tuesday and Wednesday

The Boys' and Leaders' Conference, held under the auspices of the Haldimand County Boys' Work Board, opened in the Presbyterian Church, Dunnville, on Tuesday evening last, with an address by the Rev. H. C. Wright, who chose as his theme, "The Great Teacher." For fifteen minutes the speaker, dealing with a portion of the sermon on the Mount, spoke on the methods of the Master teacher, giving examples of modern teachers to stress his point. In place of May or Patterson, Mr. W. H. Wingfield spoke an official word of welcome to the visitors, stressing on them the value of their work.

The conference officers were elected by an elimination vote. Six names were offered — Jim Gibson, Wilfrid Clark, Bill Kitchen, Walter Webb, Harold Jones and Russell Walker — and those elected assumed their positions according to popular vote. Russell Walker was elected president; Clark, secretary, and Harold Jones, treasurer.

Jim Gibson, Haldimand member of the Boys' Parliament, gave his address and report, which was well delivered and well received.

The selection of topics for group discussion took some time, and eventually the following topics were chosen: "Appetite and Amusement;" "Girl and Boy Relations;" "Home Relations;" "The Church and Its Place in the Community;" "War;" and "Vocation." The first and fourth topics, peculiarly, received the least support of any.

The address of Mr. D. R. Poole, of the National Boys' Work Board, Toronto, was of necessity brief. He stressed the "unlimited capacity of man to become." He pointed out that the lower animals could develop only to a certain point, but that man was capable of becoming just what he desired to be. The cause, he said, helped some, but it was the man behind the cause that grew and made the cause grow also. Desire, sufficiently strong, could encompass this and faith in the "Great Teacher" would ensure success. He cited several experiences in conferences in the west on both sides of the line as examples of what the boys' movement was accomplishing.

Continuing on Wednesday morning at Grace United Church, Rev. D. A. Cowan of Cayuga opened with devotions, choosing as his subject "Being Taught." His topic, a direct contrast to that of Tuesday evening, was well handled indeed.

Four discussion groups were formed, under the following leaders: War, Mr. D. R. Poole, Toronto; Home Relations, Mr. W. F. Spidell, Caledonia; Boy and Girl Relations, Rev. E. W. Brearley, Hagersville; and Vocation, Rev. H. C. Wright, Dunnville.

The round table conference on the summer camp for Haldimand County resulted in the formation of the following executive: Rev. E. W. Brearley, Hagersville; Jim Gibson, M.B.F., Caledonia; Russell Walker, Chapside; Dr. R. G. Hyde, Hagersville. The executive was instructed to get in touch with the Welland County Boys' Work Board and endeavor to arrange for the use of their camp at Mohawk Point after they have made use of it this year.

By no means the least important item on the day's program was the banquet, prepared by the Bees group of the Baptist Ladies' Aid. Everything possible to make this a success had been done, and the result certainly justified the effort. Cayuga, Hagersville, Dunnville and Caledonia groups performed their various stunts to the amusement of the gathered guests, and Fred Payne, M.B.F., Minister of Organizations, of Welland, gave a 15 minute address. Mr.

Payne amazed his listeners with his flow of oratory, and his period of talking ended all too quickly. His topic was, "What C.S.E.T. Means to Boys."

Mr. Poole's address in the Baptist church during the afternoon session was a continuation of the brief talk of the previous evening. He dealt in detail with the possibilities for boys, latent perhaps, but responsive to training, and urged that every effort be put forward to train the boys.

The conference closed with a session of the Work Board and election of officers, which resulted in the re-election of all last year's executive: President, Rev. E. W. Brearley; Vice President, Jim Gibson; Secretary, Russell Walker; Treasurer, Harold Jones; returning officer for the coming election, Walter Hill of Selkirk.

The conference from first to last was a pronounced success, and the efforts of the workers were well rewarded. The attendance was good and the spirit keen, and there is every hope for a re-formation of a Tuxis Square and Trail Ranger group in Dunnville, which in another year will be in a position to take an active part in the conference.

SANDUSK W. L.

The regular meeting of the Sandusk W. L. was held at the home of Mrs. J. Bush with 24 in attendance. The President in the chair. The meeting was opened by singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," followed by all repeating the Lord's Prayer. The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. A letter from the Supt. of the Dunnville Hospital was read. Moved by Mrs. C. Bush, seconded by Mrs. W. Mattice, that the Secretary write for information of urgent needs; carried. Moved by Mrs. F. Pond, seconded by Mrs. E. Pond, that Mrs. C. Bush, Mrs. L. Dougherty and Mrs. F. Sternman be appointed a committee; carried.

Mrs. Tyrrell gave a splendid report of the School Committee, and we express our appreciation of the work of the teacher in having the children keeping the school yard, etc., tidy. Moved by Mrs. J. Bush, that we buy towels, roller and soap, also emergency kit for the school, Mrs. J. Bush to make the purchases; carried. Moved by Mrs. F. Pond, seconded by Mrs. L. Dougherty, that we buy prizes for the pupils. A talk was then given on "First Aid" by Mrs. J. Walker.

A reading by Miss F. Nicol; an interesting travel talk by Mrs. J. Bush. Roll call, "Uses of Salt, Soda and Mustard"; a paper and a humorous reading in which some good points on housecleaning were brought out, was given by Mrs. J. Peacock. The meeting was then brought to a close by singing the National Anthem. The hostess served lunch and a vote of thanks was tendered her for her hospitality.

CHAS. P. MCCARTHY

On Easter Sunday, April 17th, the whole community was steeped in sorrow by the death of a highly respected citizen, Chas. P. McCarthy.

The late Chas. McCarthy was born in Walpole, near Sandusk, on the farm now occupied by his brother Neil. He received his early education at the Sandusk public school. When a boy in his teens the late Mr. McCarthy engaged in the threshing business under the firm name "McCarthy Bros." During 20 years he followed the above occupation becoming widely and favorably known. In the intervals between the threshing seasons he learned the carpenter trade which proved very beneficial to him in after years. In 1904 he disposed of his threshing machinery and moved to Toronto, where he took service with the Toronto Street Railway Company as motorman. In June of that year he was united in marriage with Ellen Start, eldest daughter of the late Wm. Start of Walpole. After five years of faithful service with the Toronto Street Railway he resigned his position and moved to the farm on which he died.

In August last he was stricken with a malady caused from a defective tooth, and all that medical aid and tender nursing could do, after an illness of some eight months, he passed to his eternal reward.

The funeral was held on Tuesday, April 19th, to St. Ann's Church, Walpole, of which he was a life long member and trustee. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Father Harris, after which he gave an able and instructive sermon on the duties we owe first to Almighty God, second, the duties of parents to children; third, of children to parents, and last but not least, the duties we owe our neighbors.

The deceased leaves to mourn his loss a wife and eight children, four boys and four girls, the eldest of whom is teaching the public school adjoining the home farm. He is also survived by three brothers, namely: Daniel of Masontown, Pa.; James and Neil of Walpole, and two sisters, Mrs. D. Cullen of Walpole, and Mrs. M. Poole of Toronto. Two sisters predeceased him some years ago, namely, Mrs. C. O'Mahoney and Elizabeth.

The pallbearers were: Robert McNeil, Joseph Owen, Chas. Montague, Lucy Smuck, Wray Bousfield and Isaac Fitzgerald.

SITE FOR MEMORIAL CHOSEN FOR GUELPH

Guelph's memorial to her soldier dead will, in a little over two months time, stand in Trafalgar Park, overlooking the central section of the City. The exact site for the huge monument was chosen on April 21 by J. M. Taylor, Chairman of the War Memorial Association; City Engineer Nicklin; Alfred Howell of Toronto, the sculptor; Col. W. Simpson, and Peter Thompson of Toronto, who is cutting the memorial from the virgin granite. Facing directly down Wyndham Street toward St. George's Square, with the wooded sloping park as a background, and in the most prominent position possible, the memorial will be a fitting reminder for years to come of those of Guelph's sons who died in France and Belgium. It will be seen from all roads converging at this point. The monument will be in place by July 12th.
