PATRONIZE HOME TRADE

Some residents evidently do not realize to how great an extent they are hurting home trade by occasionally ordering goods from mail-order houses, judging from remarks that have been made since The Record started the campaign against out-of-town trading.

"What difference does it make," one resident remarked, "if I send a few dollars to mail-order houses every now and then?"

Were her particular case the only one of its nature in the town, it would make but little difference, but individual cases in the aggregate do make a great deal of difference. She is only one of hundreds who are doing the same thing she is doing, and, added together, the amounts have been estimated to total about $1500 a month. It is the small buyers that keep the mail-order houses going.

While we have no way of knowing what the mail-orders average in any particular house, yet it is safe to say that the sum is only a few dollars. The $2.98 you send away today is not much in itself, but when it is pooled with hundreds of other like amounts it makes a substantial sum. That $2.98, or 69 cents, or however small the amount may be, is a very important matter in every mail-order house. The small sums form by far the greatest part of the millions of dollars of mail-order business done in this country every year.

So spend your $2.98's with local merchants. If you do that, you will not only be helping them and your town, but will also be helping yourself by keeping more money in circulation here. If you spend your $2.98 here, you stand a chance of getting a part of it back some day, but if you send it away the entire sum is taken out of local circulation.

In its campaign against out-of-town buying, The Record has called on local merchants to advertise their goods more extensively, so that the purchasing public in Jarvis will be in a better position to buy at home.

CONTENT ELUDES US ALL

When one is born into this world naked, with no place provided in advance for shelter and no provision made for food, such person, if he have a grain of intellect, becomes a reformer. He questions the right of the more fortunate to be born to downy cradles or frescoed ceilings. He is earnestly bent on an equal distribution of the good things of the more fortunate or the better born.

On the other hand, he who is born rich or attains to riches soon learns that all the gorgeous creatures in their fine houses and automobiles, silks and laces, diamonds and furs, are chasing in the same race with himself — after the unattainable. The real aristocracy, like the foot of the rainbow, vanishes as he approaches.

There are two phases of life unfavorable to peace and content; the one is adversity, the other prosperity. It is hard to tell in which a man is more discontented with himself and more offensive to others.

When prosperous, he patronizes; when evil trouble falls upon him he whines and is a horrible bore. When he is down his friends wish him up on their account; when he is high up they sigh for mountains to fall on him and bury him out of sight.

GIRLS WITH BRAINS

According to statistics compiled by women's colleges in England, brains are below par in the marriage market. Girls with high scholarship records to their credit receive fewer matrimonial proposals than their less intellectually endowed sisters. Wait-

COUNTY COUNCIL

Colter-Sherk—That the members of the Council of the County of Haldimand assembled desire to place on record their sincere regret at the death of Michael McConnell on the 16th of June, last.

The deceased was a member of this Council in the year 1903 also in the year 1904 when he was Warden. He was County Treasurer during the years 1905 and 1906 and in July 1907 he was appointed Sheriff of the County in an office which he held with credit to himself until the time of his death. His wide experience, his deep knowledge of human nature and his sterling integrity, made him a valued member and official and his genial, kindly manner and attractive personality caused him to be held in the highest personal esteem.

That a copy of this resolution be placed upon the minutes of the Council and that a copy be sent to the relatives of the deceased. Carried.

Glenny-Saunders—That we do now bring the point that brains may be handicapped in competition with superficial beauty, it is fair comment to remark that brains and hearts are separate and distinct and often unrelated in Cupid's scheme of things.

A toss of a curl, a dimple in a cheek, a curve of the hips, a gleam of an eye may smite a man who remains cold in the presence of mere brains. Once smitten, his own and his inamorata's brains, if she has any, count for little. The poets from the distant past till now have testified to the maddening effect of love in robbing its victims of their brains. Besides, after all, man does not fancy a superior or even a rival in brains sitting across the domestic hearth. A brainy girl has conceit-smashing possibilities that are fearsome.

THE JULY ROD AND GUN and Canadian Silver Fox News

Containing a varied assortment of stories of outdoor features, the August number of "Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News," well-known Canadian sporting magazine, has been received. A more unusual feature is included this month in the story "Midwinter Nights' Dreams," an interesting collection of reminiscences of the little known Hudson's Bay country. Samuel Alexander White contributes another stirring yarn of the old time fur traders, "Convoys Courageous," while Bonny-castle Dale this month has as his subject the Atlantic Salmon.

Among the other interesting stories is one of fishing for rainbow trout in B.C. by Justin Wilson, and an article on photographing bird nests by H. H. Pittman. Notes of especial interest to hunters and anglers are contained in the regular Guns and Ammunition, Fishing Notes, Outdoor Talk and Kennel Departments.

"Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News" is published monthly by W. J. Taylor Limited, Woodstock.

GOOD ROADS COMMITTEE REPORT

To the Warden and Members of the County Council:

Gentlemen—Your Good Roads Committee beg leave to report as follows:

We have examined the pay lists and accounts submitted by the Superintendent and recommend that they be paid.

Your Committee authorized the Superintendent to employ Mr. Roger Lee of Brantford, civil engineer and surveyor, to make a survey of the hill ½ mile north-east of Clambrasil on County Road No. 5. Mr. MacInnes, inspecting engineer from the Department of Public Highways of Ontario, and the Superintendent were with Mr. Lee when he made the survey.

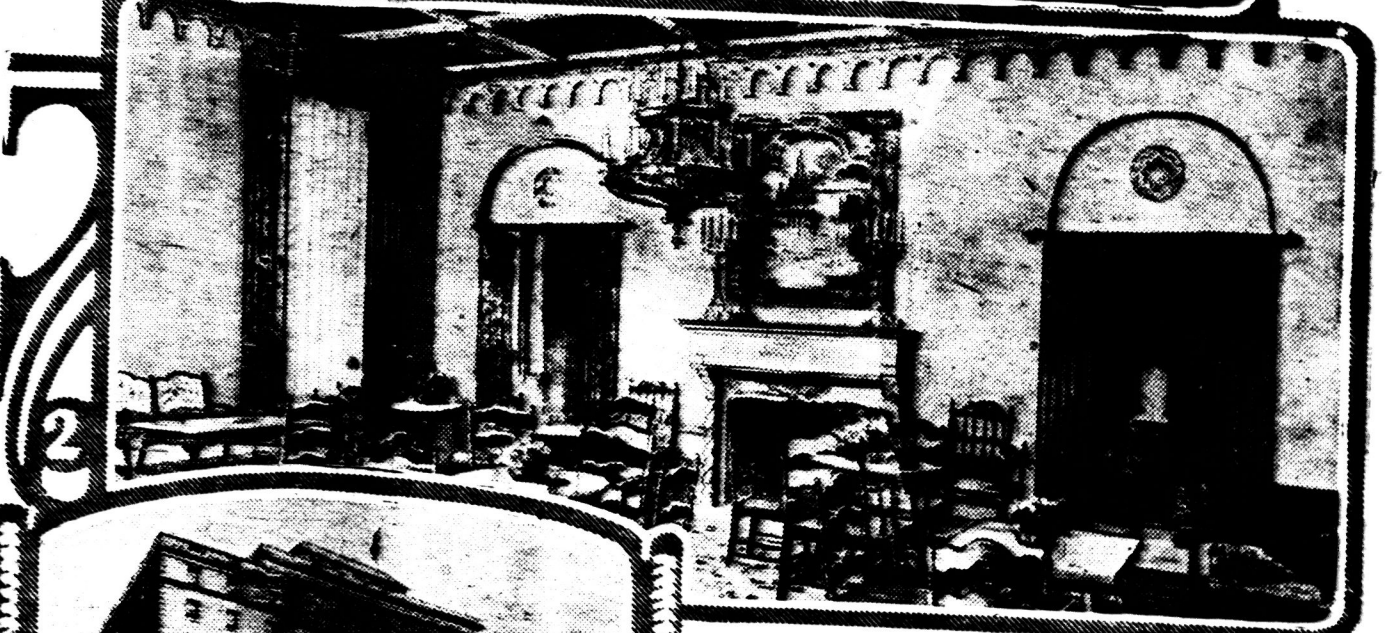

A plan and profile of a possible improvement to the above road was submitted by Mr. Lee. He estimated that a cut averaging 30 feet wide and having an 8% grade, along the center of the road allowance would necessitate the removal of 4100 cubic yards of limestone rock at a cost of $3500. He also estimates, roughly, that a diversion around the hill would cost half of the above amount.

The Superintendent submitted a progress report of work done on the County Highway System to July 15, 1927. The total expenditure up to July 1, 1927, is approximately $20000.

Grading was delayed until late in the season, owing to the heavy rainfall. As soon as the ditches were fit to go into, eight grading outfits were put to work, and we hope to be able to complete nearly all the mileage of grading in the estimate, and later in the season to get sufficient help to carry out the complete

Regina's New Hostelry

1. The Library. 2. Tea Room. 3. "Hotel Saskatchewan".

The new hotel was conceived and designed with two considerations always uppermost in the minds of its creators; the maximum of comfort and convenience for its guests and a pleasing architectural effect. With the desired result in mind the architects have developed a design which is singularly pleasing and which will be regarded as one of the most beautiful buildings in Western Canada.

The exterior of the building is designed in Georgian style, the first two storeys above the street being faced with Tyndale stone, quarried near Winnipeg. The main entrance has been treated with Corinthian pilasters.

The Hotel is an eleven-storey building, containing 214 bedrooms with baths, and many beautiful public rooms and administrative offices. Two storeys with space for more guest rooms have been left uncompleted.

One of the most pleasing rooms in the Main Lobby is overlooking the Park. The treatment of this room and large carved fire-place giving it a pleasing effect. The ceiling is heavily beamed and paneled.

The Ball Room, of a George Adams design, is on the first floor, as are also, the Lounge, the Library and the Writing Room.

The mechanical equipment is of the most modern design, all the services being practically self-contained. The hotel has its own refrigeration and electrical generating plants.
