mple as the greatest cure-all for present day ills, the Rev. John Rob W ertson of Toronto made a plea for Evening Service his heavers to take on renewed courage when failure seemed almost inevitable. It was the occasion of the Sunday, August 28th. He is one of Perkins into the pastorate of Grace byterian Church in Canada today. United Church and the Woodhouse hearty invitation is extended to United Church and Mr. Robertson was right at home with the congregation for he had labored here for over thirty-six years, resigning his pastorate of Knox Church over the Union issue. The speaker was at his hest, and delivered his fifteen-minute discourse with a vim and enthusiaem that was so characteristic of Evening Service him in his younger days. The rev gentleman preached from the text: "I must work the works of him that KNOX PRESETTERIAN CHURCE sent me me, while it is yet day: the night cometh when no man can work. -John 9:4." Before entering fully Sabbath School .......... 10 a.m. dehertson assurred the congregation that it was a great pleasure for him to be once again in Port Dover and to greet so many of his form friends. He had been attending divine service regularly in Toronto, but on these occasions he sat in the news and received the message rather than after Trinity in the pulpit giving it. And he had Holy Communion and he hoped that in his message turns. GREAT NEED FOR "SERVICE"

In the text that I have chosen you have the words of Christ and the subject emphasized is that of "service" To-day in Western Christendom at at Simcoe on Sunday, Aug. 28th, any rate the keyword of life is service.
