The Finance Committee recommend that the auditors' report be adopted.
 The Committee recommend that a grant of $25.00 be made to Mr. J. J.
 Parsons to cover clerical help in the audit of the last two quarters. This has been made necessary owing to the death of Mr. C. J. Martindale.

 Communications be adopted as read.
 Carried.
 Ramsey-Wingfield—That this Council endorse the plan of the Agricultural Representative, Mr. Main, who for the second time is conducting a three months course in Haldimand.
 The young men and women of Dunnville and surrounding districts are deriving much benefit from the different courses and Mr. Main is a man of whom the County should feel highly honored to have as their District Agricultural Representative. Carried.

French-Scott—That the Provincial Government be respectfully asked in preparing plans and specifications for Caledonia Bridge, that on account of the High School being on the opposite side of the river to that in which most pupils reside, that the foot walk be built on the east side of the driveway, the side nearest the school. Cd.
 Scott-French—That the Warden and Clerk be authorized to sign and submit to the Minister of Public Works and Highways of the Province of Ontario, the petition of the Corporation of the County of Haldimand, showing that during the period Jan. 1st, 1926, to Dec. 31st, 1925, there has been expended upon the County Highway System the sum of $69,320.06 and requesting the statutory grants on that amount as provided by the Act to aid in the improvements of public highways. Carried.
 Miller-McDonald—That we do now adjourn to meet on Tuesday, March 8th, at 10 a.m. Carried.
