IN MEMORIAM

There passed away at his residence on Grace Street, Port Dover, Wednesday morning, November 23rd last, Mr. Jesse Thompson. Mr. Thompson had been a resident of this town for the past twenty-seven years and was the eldest surviving son of a family of nine boys. His parents, Joseph and Elizabeth (Nuttall) Thompson, were born in Derbyshire, England, and settled at Nanticoke, Ont., in the early thirties. At that time the country was all bush farm. Shortly after he bought the farm known as the Thompson Homestead. He was called to the Mackenzie Rebellion in 1883, returning to his homestead after it was settled. Mr. Joseph Thompson, of whom we speak before, followed his trade of a mason and built most of the brick buildings in this village and in Vittoria. He and Henry Slocomb were well known in Port Dover as masons and built the Deminion Hotel Block, which at that time was known as the Joe Bell hotel.

The late Mr. Thompson followed in the footsteps of his father, his trade was carpentering and many buildings and houses are the product of his handiwork. In the later years of his life, he spent much of his time in a small shop which he had at his residence making pieces of walnut furniture, such as chairs, trays, cabinets and in his residence is a Grandfather clock made by him in his 77th year.

His wife, who was Matilda Jackson, was also born at Nanticoke and passed away some three and one-half years ago. They both were members of St. Paul's Anglican Church and took a very active part in its affairs. Mr. Thompson was superintendent of the Sunday School in Nanticoke for thirty-three years. Mrs.
Thompson took particular interest in the W. A., the Guild and other church activities, and was also instrumental in securing the surpluses for the choir at St. Paul's church.

Of his immediate family, two sons and one daughter survive: N. Middleton Thompson, J. J. Thompson and Mrs. Maytham. Three brothers of a family of nine boys are left: Samuel, of Nanticoke; George, of Port Dover; and Arthur, of Simcoe. The funeral was held from his late residence on Friday, November 26th, when he was laid to his long rest beside his wife in the Port Dover Cemetery—Maple Leaf.

Mr. and Mrs. Cove Beecraft spent Sunday last with the latter's parents in Charlotteville with Mr. and Mrs.
David Osborne.

THE FEBRUARY ROD AND GUN AND CANADIAN SILVER FOX NEWS

While Jack Miner is well known for his interest in the breeding and conservation of wild fowl, comparatively few know of a remarkable fan club most in the suburbs of Toronto where all varieties of wild geese and other water fowl are being bred. This interesting place forms the subject of one of the articles in the newly published February issue of "Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News," in which George Heblen Corsan Sr. tells how he raises the wild geese on his farm at Islington. The article is well illustrated.

The contents of the issue include many fine stories of hunting and fishing. The regular departments relating to angling, guns and ammunition, and the outdoors, contain a great deal of good information on their particular subjects.

Within the cover of this issue, is included Number 2 of "Canadian Silver Fox News," which justifies this promise shown in the first appearance. Some important phases of fur farming are dealt with in the many articles.

"Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News" is published monthly by W. J. Taylor Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

Sonless Father Takes His Boys to Alaska

BUCHANAN AND HIS BOYS

"PRINCESS ALICE"

GEORGE E. BUCHANAN

A bachelor who loves boys but who has no boys of his own! That is George E. Buchanan, a wealthy coal dealer of Detroit, a hard-boiled business man who thinks that the best possible education a boy can have is the education of travel. He has sent 145 boys to Alaska from Detroit and Vancouver via the Canadian Pacific "Princess" Steamers to Shagway; and now he plans to not only send a group of boys to Alaska the coming year, but he has enlarged his program and his former slogan: "On to Alaska with Buchanan" has a side-partner. "On to Europe with Buchanan!" Buchanan is a Canadian Scotchman who has prospered wonderfully in Detroit.
He will tell you he has made money there, but—his big idea is to give the growing boy a chance. The boy says, "I'll do it," but Buchanan knows in his canny Scotch way that the only thing worth having is the thing you have to earn. So he says to the boys: Here's a trip to Alaska, here's a trip to Europe for you, but listen:
"No boy, or man, ever appreciated or got any benefit out of anything he did not work or sweat for. You earn one-third of your passage money, and I will tell you how to do it as best I can; you get your parents to put up the third and I will loan you the remaining third—and you can pay it back to me when you get ready, so that another boy can be sent to Alaska—or Europe." Every boy who has made good his passage money to Alaska is eligible for the European trip—and the percentage of "make good" boys has been very high, according to Buchanan. Of all these Alaska boys, Buchanan says that two-thirds have voluntarily repaid him, although he has merely put them on notice to do it when they got ready—and he forecloses no legal obligations, because there are none. Any boy, anywhere in the United States or Canada, can qualify for George E. Buchanan's trip to Alaska or to Europe, and can earn his third anywhere but, of course, he should get in touch with Mr. Buchanan, in Detroit, to learn how to earn his third. All of his boys have a wonderful time, no matter whether they go to Alaska, or to Europe, and when they finish with him they have had a business and travel education worth a whole lot.
