Jarvis and Walpole Churches Visit Buffalo

(Contributed)

The members of Knox church, Jarvis, and Chalmers church, Walpole, who visited West Avenue Presbyterian church, Buffalo, on the invitations of the Sessions and Trustees Board of the church, had a very enjoyable time last Sunday.

Leaving in good time, by auto and bus, the party arrived at the Peace bridge around 11 o'clock. Here they were met by Mr. Stewart Rice, one of the reception committee, who piloted them to the parking ground. Arriving here a detachment of Boy Scouts of Troop 81, B.S.A., were on hand to conduct them to the church. Headed by the flags of both countries the procession moved off to the church. Before service a pause was made to enable the press photographers to obtain photographs of this unique occasion; the officials of both churches being photographed together.

At the church Rev. and Mrs. Brown, Messrs. White and Jaques, received the visitors. The service was one specially arranged for the occasion, and the sermon, which is given in full below, was on "The New Internationalism," and was delivered by the Rev. W. T. Brown.

Immediately after the service, a luncheon was served in the beautifully decorated assembly rooms of the church. Following the luncheon, toasts were drunk, "The Two Nations," responded to by the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" and "O Canada," "The Church," proposed by Mr. Stewart Rice and responded to by Rev. P. E. Deeth; "The Visitors," by Mr. A. L. Shuart, responded to by Mr. R. H. Falls. Mr. Rainor, bass soloist of the West Avenue Quartet, also contributed two solos. But the real treat of the day was an address of Dr. C. H. Stewart, minister of the North Presbyterian church, on "International Friendship."

Dr. Stewart, who was born in Canada and who has been in the States for the past 14 years, was at his best. His address was a masterpiece and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. He urged a greater understanding of each other which would lead to a deeper appreciation of each others good points.

At the close of the luncheon the visitors were conducted for a tour through Delaware park, returning to West Avenue, where they left carrying with them the hearty good wishes of their American friends.

A feature of the proceedings was the reading at the church service of a poem especially written for the occasion by Mr. F. H. Thatcher of West Avenue church.

THE NEW INTERNATIONALISM

In that day there shall be a highway out of Egypt into Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians. In that day shall Israel be a third with Egypt and Assyria, land whom the Lord of Hosts shall bless, saying, "Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance." Isaiah xiv vv 20-25.

One of the most interesting and instructive things that any man who has a grain of imagination can do, is to study the great prophetic voices of the Bible in the light of history, to take up some of the words of the great prophets and consider them in the light of the time in which they were spoken, and see how far the vision of the prophets transcended the realities and actualities of his day; see how far ahead he was of his time. The prophets have been called "seers" and "seers" they were in the noblest sense of the word. They were men who were far in advance of public opinion, men who pushed out into the uncharted seas of religious life, or social, political or national life. They were the pioneers of a new day, a new era in human relationships. Dreamers there have been aplenty in this world of ours, for it is an easy thing to be a dreamer, but of prophets there have been all too few a number. To be a prophet, a seer, demands genius, it demands a depth of vision, a clarity of sight, a boldness of speech, a breadth of outlook, a tremendous faith, characteristics that are vouchsafed to few men. Your prophet must face defeat and disaster and still continue to preach, he must be ready to hear his message derided and sneered at by the practical man of his day, he must be content to hear his ideas called impractical and foolish, and himself laughed at for even thinking of them. He must be content, I say, to face all these things and yet go bravely on his way and keep on working at his task, preaching his God given

VIA PEACE BRIDGE

Aggregations of Jarvis and Walpole Churches at Buffalo

HAMILTON, June 20.—The honor of being the first congregations ever to participate in services on the American side of the border, belongs to the united congregations of Knox church, Jarvis, and Chalmers church, Walpole, which yesterday morning crossed the international boundary to join with the parishioners of the West Avenue Presbyterian church, Buffalo, in religious worship.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY

West Avenue Presbyterian Church, Buffalo, June-19, 1927.

No mighty stream with ceaseless flow, Nor thousand miles of inland sea, Can sever ties that firmer grow, The friendships of a century.

No bristling forts mar that peace line From ocean East to ocean West; No pacing sentinel belies The love-flame in each Nation's breast.

Our peoples speak a common tongue, Both boast the Anglo-Saxon blood; In this New World both still are young, Like the guidance seek of God.

A new tie makes our two lands one, A part of steel from short to shore, Where Peace's messengers shall run, Above the swift Niagara's roar.

America, united, free, Though nations two, in spirit one, Shall bear the torch of liberty From rising sun to rising sun!

And shall not higher honors be To these fair sisters of the West? To lift the cross of Christ, that we May send its light to all the rest! United in the holiest aims, And bound by every sacred tie, The oracle of Peace proclaims A friendship that shall never die! —F. H. Thatcher.

JAMES A. PRIEST

On June 13th, 1927, there passed away in St. Joseph's hospital, Hamilton, James Alfred Priest of the Rockford community. Township of Townsend. The late Mr. Priest had enjoyed his usual good health until only a few weeks ago when pneumonia set in from which he failed to make recovery. His death has come as a great shock to his family and a large circle of friends among whom he was deeply loved and respected.

Born in the neighboring township of Walpole nearly fifty-four years ago, Mr. Priest for 40 years has resided at Rockford. In 1897 he married Etta, daughter of William and Mary Lemon, and their union has been blessed by the gift of one son, Bud. An earnest Christian, Mr. Priest from boyhood has been a member of the Rockford Methodist church (now United), which he has served with great faithfulness. For 14 years he has been superintendent of the large and efficient Sunday School there. After Union he was honored by being elected a member of the session. Always a strong prohibitionist, Mr. Priest was one of the many life-long Conservatives to break with his party in the recent election on the Government Control policy. He served his community for six years as school trustee and for seven years as secretary-treasurer of the school board. In addition to his community interests he has been a member of the Jarvis Lodge, No. 191, I.O.O.F. and of Ridgely Encampment No. 52.

Deeply mourned by the widow and son his loss is keenly felt likewise throughout the entire neighborhood. Four brothers survive: Charles, of Hamilton; Marshall, of Brantford; Thomas, of Puslinch, and Henry, of Rychman's Corners.

The funeral service took place from his late residence on Thursday, June 16th, and was largely attended. Rev. W. D. Clark officiated, being assisted by members of the Rockford choir. The floral tributes were many and very beautiful, representing almost every organization of his church, the Oddfellows Lodge and private friends. Interment was made in the cemetery of Wesley United church, Jarvis, the I.O.O.F. taking part in the service.

PORT DOVER HOTEL IS DAMAGED BY FIRE

Good Work of Firemen Saves the Erie Hotel — Repairs Already Under Way

PORT DOVER, June 20.—A speedy run by the local brigade was all that saved the Erie Hotel from a disastrous fire early this morning. At about 5:30 a.m. the house manager, Mrs. Kennedy, coming down stairs, noticed the kitchens were filled with smoke and turned in an alarm over the telephone.

Mr. Summers, the general manager of the hotel, stated this afternoon that although the damage would amount to $3,000, it was only due to the fact that the firemen had two streams of water on the job in less than five minutes that the building was saved. The local brigade, which is a volunteer organization, is deserving of great credit for the way the members turned out and in Mr. Summers' opinion, which is shared by the surrounding country and the underwriters, it is the most efficient of its kind in Ontario.

The loss fortunately is covered by insurance and workmen are already at work repairing the damage. It was most fortunate that the fire occurred this month instead of later, as the hotel is booked practically solidly from the first of July for the balance of the season.

CAYUGA MOURNS DEATH OF SHERIFF MCCONNELL

CAYUGA, June 18.—The flags of the court house and town hall, Cayuga, are flying at half mast as a tribute to the late Sheriff McConnell, whose sudden death occurred at his home on Thursday evening. The sheriff had been attending court all day but was taken ill about 4 o'clock. He phoned for Dr. Bromley and was taken to his home, but was not considered critically ill. About 9 o'clock, however, he died, death being apparently caused from heart failure.

He was born in Burford 77 years ago and first moved to Cayuga in 1872. In 1876 he was married to Johanna Slattery, of Woodstock, with whom he celebrated his golden wedding last year. He held the position of warden of Haldimand in 1904, was appointed county treasurer in 1906 and sheriff in 1907. In 1905 he contested the county in the provincial elections. He was a man of exceptionally fine and sterling qualities and his removal is a distinct loss to the county and a source of deep regret to his many friends.

One brother, James, survives, residing on the old homestead at Burford. Mrs. McConnell died on May 7th, just about six weeks ago and it is now thought that the sheriff never fully recovered from the shock of her death.

The funeral took place on Monday from the family home to St. Stephen's church and the Roman Catholic cemetery.

Entertainment of distinguished visitors at the Canadian National Exhibition this year will be conducted by the wives of the Directors.

Mrs. James Priest and Bud Priest desire to thank their neighbors and friends for the sympathy and kindness shown them in their sad bereavement.

INCREASED DEMAND FOR ROBINSON GRADUATES

Although the majority of students attending the Robinson Business Colleges graduate during June, nearly one hundred young people have accepted positions since the beginning of the school year last September. More than that, several calls have come to us that we were unable to fill—our graduate supply not being equal to the demand.

Because of this fact and also because of the great improvement in industrial conditions, prospects are exceedingly bright for the biggest Fall Opening we have ever had.

Attend any one of the six Robinson Schools most convenient for you: Waterford, Simcoe, Brantford, Tillsonburg, Dunnville or Norwich — as you will get genuine Robinson Service at any Robinson School.

For full information concerning courses and rates apply to the Secretary-Treasurer, O. U. Robinson, Principal at Waterford.
