LADIES' NIGHT, KING SOLOMON LODGE NO. 329, A.F. & A.M.

King Solomon Lodge, No. 329, A. F. & A. M., upheld its reputation for hospitality and good fellowship when on Friday, February 25th, it played the part of host to the numerous wives, mothers and friends of its members.

A very efficient committee consisting of Messrs. G. L. Miller, J. J. Parsons and T. McNeill, had charge of the arrangements, and are to be congratulated on the splendid evening.

In spite of the inclement weather a very happy company gathered at 6.30 p.m. in Peacock's Hall, and after being welcomed by War. Bros. R. H. Fallis and G. L. Miller, spent a pleasant half hour listening to the music furnished by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Parsons, Mr. John Parsons and Mr. F. R. Archibald. Dinner was served promptly at 7 p.m. and was done ample justice to. There was only one toast, the all important one, "The Ladies," which was proposed by J. J. Parsons and responded to by Rev. W. T. Brown. Following a session of community singing, progressive euchre was indulged in, Mrs. Albert Booth and Miss Stella Jones carrying off the prizes.

Afterwards the company proceeded to trip "the light fantastic," everyone, including rector, minister and "Parsons," taking part. The happy company dispersed at 11.30 p.m. after singing "Auld Lang Syne," everyone voting the entertainment worthy in every respect of the Brethren.

G. L. Miller acted as Master of Ceremonies and performed his duties with his usual grace and good humor.

CHEVROLET DEMONSTRATION DRAWS A GOOD CROWD

The educational demonstration held in Peacock's Hall on Monday night, under the auspices of Chevrolet Motor Company of Canada, was well attended. Messrs. Marshall and Ross, who were in charge of the demonstration, gave instructive accounts of the modern trend of the automobile. An amusing as well as instructive feature was the movie "Man's Conquest of Time." Mr. Booth, the local Chevrolet dealer, staged a prize-drawing, entitling the lucky ticket holder to $10 and $5 worth of merchandise. John Faulkner and Lewis Miller held first and second prize respectively.

PARENTS AND TEACHERS SHOULD ENCOURAGE PUPILS TO ENTER

On this page will be found the first announcement of an Essay Contest for school children which is being conducted by a group of weekly papers, including the Jarvis Record. Not only are there valuable cash prizes to be won, but pupils winning prizes will bring signal honor not only to themselves, but to their parents, their teachers, their schools and the community as a whole.

There is no reason why the readers of the Record should not win the first prize. We believe that a number of the prizes can be brought home to this community, and we urge parents and teachers to do all they can to encourage boys and girls to enter the contest.

Read the rules carefully and if there is anything about them that you do not understand, the editor will be glad to explain.

PRESENTATION AT CHRIST CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL

On Sunday morning last, after the opening exercises of the Sunday School an address and presentation was given to the Rector of Christ Church, Nanticoke, Rev. C. J. Lamb, ere his departure to his new field of labor. The address was read by the Secretary, Mr. Roy Field, and the presentation, a pretty mahogany clock for his study, was made by Miss Carrie Jackson. The following is the address:

It is with a feeling of profound regret that we learn you are soon to leave our Sunday School. How often we are reminded of the words of Tennyson, "Men may come and men may go." Days change so many things. While for ourselves we regret your departure from our midst, we hope for yourself the change will be a wise one, and that you will have abundant opportunities of a life of service in the extension of His Kingdom.

As superintendent and teacher we shall miss you in our Sunday School. We cannot help feeling that we have had an exceptionally good year—by the increased attendance, liberal offerings and interest shown by pupils and teachers, which we realize was due largely to your efforts. You have tried to lead us to a growing appreciation of God and a recognition of the claims of others upon us and we thank God for the Holy ties which bind our hearts in Christian love.

As a small token of our appreciation and regard for you, and a tangible expression of goodwill, we pray that you may be pleased to accept—this clock—as a gift from our Sunday School, praying that heaven sent blessings from God, the Almighty Father, may be yours now, and in future years if spared.

We hope and trust that a kind Providence will grant unto you and your family good health, so that you may go about doing good, and as a farewell thought, we quote the words of the poet:

"Behind the dim unknown
Standeth God within the shadow
Keeping watch over His own."

Signed on behalf of the Sunday School of Christ Church, Nanticoke:

Mebel E. Thompson
Lillian Hallam
Evelyn Meade
Roy Field
Blake Field
Carrie Jackson.

Mr. Lamb, although completely taken by surprise, replied in a very fitting manner. He referred to the quotation made in the address, "Men may come and men may go." Although he was leaving, the work of the Sunday School would be like the river in Tennyson's poem: "To go on forever," and if he had been of real value to the Sunday School, he was glad, since it was not only a pleasure but a privilege to be a worker in the Sunday School.

KNOX CHURCH

The services at Knox Church will be held as usual on Sunday next. At the morning service the minister will deal with the important subject of Practical Christianity. Jesus was nothing if not practical. He LIVED the Christian life, men today theorize about it, but often fail to practice it. We blame Christianity for not accomplishing more in the world than it does, but does the fault lie not with Christianity, but with those who profess to be Christians, and who will not practice the principles of the Master. If we practiced Christianity this world of ours would be a totally different place.

The writer of the Epistle to the Hebrews speaks of Jesus as being "tempted in all points like as we are." What were the temptations that Jesus underwent—are we tempted in the way He was? Can we meet temptations and overcome them as He did? This subject will be dealt with at the evening service, when the fourth lesson from Luke's Gospel, "The Temptation in the Wilderness," will be considered.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services.
