GEO. M. WIEDRICK STRUCK BY TRAIN AND KILLED

48th Year.

George M. Wiedrick nied at his home in Walpole Township on Tuesday afternoon, from the result of ina train on Monday morning last. The accident occurred near Townsend station on the M.C.R., a short distance cast of the crossing. Mr. Wiedrick was walking up the track and apparently did not notice the approach of the freight train which was going in an opposite direction. It is thought that he was seized with a fainting spell, for as before meeting the train he was seized with a fainting spell, for as before meeting the train he was walking clear of the track, as the locomotive was almost opposite or the track, but as the locomotive was almost opposite or the unit deporture to their appears in the district or the unit deporture to their appears in the track as the locomotive to the unit of the unit o juries received from being struck by but as the locomotive was almost op- ville. wite him he seemed to lurch over and struck the side of the locomotive. The injuries received from the impact and being thrown heavily to the roadbed were the cause of his death.

73rd year, and was well known and Lewis, Jarvis, Ont. highly respected throughout the district. He leaves a wife and four sons to mourn his loss, who have the sympathy of the community in their very sed and tragic bereavement.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, services being held in the Salem church and interment in the Springvale cemetery.

the home of Dr. Sherk, our librarian, correct. to due an honor to him, which was as the result of the postponed birthday party on Friday evening. It being a fine evening, quite a goodly number came. Among them were some of the prominent men of Selkirk, Drs. Hall and Ward; Mitchell, the banker; Mr. Bothwright, the dairyman, Mr. Wheeler, the owner of the fisheries, and Mr. C. Reck. Rev. Mr. Neill acted as chairman. The program commenced with an instrumental selection by Miss Margaret Mechan, who is always ready and willing to do her bit on any occasion. Some of above noted men gave speeches in between the other selections. Miss Elsie Niell, who is a sweet singer, also lent her voice for the occasion. Lastly, but not least, Miss McKenzie. who has found her place smongst us, added one of her splendid selections to the list. Then Mr. Neill gave a talk along the line of the appreciation of the Doctor's faithful service, and at the close Mr. Bassindale presented the Doctor with a purse of money. Dr. Sherk responded in his very able manner and gave an interesting talk along the progress of the years since he was born, this being his 85th birthday. Mr. John Walker also added much to the evening by his speech. Then the ladies took charge and served a bountiful lunch, which is very characteristic of them. In closing it was seid it was the finest evening spent together in his community.
