

MAKE CARE OF BABIES EASIER

Stomach disturbances and constipation are responsible for much of the peevishness of babies and young children. When the baby is cross or irritable the mother should not resort to so-called soothing mixtures to correct the trouble, for in the majority of cases these mixtures simply drug the child into an unnatural sleep. What is needed is a gentle laxative that will sweeten the stomach and regulate the bowels. Such a remedy is found in Baby's Own Tablets. They are easy to take and guaranteed to be entirely free from opiates and narcotics. Concerning them, Mrs. Joe. Toussaint, Ste. Sophie, Que., writes:—"I would like all mothers to know that I feel there is no other medicine to equal Baby's Own Tablets. I always keep a box in the house and their prompt use never fails to restore my little ones to health." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cts. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

What is Christianity? In the home, it is kindness. In business, it is honesty. In society, it is courtesy.

In work, it is fairness. Toward the unfortunate it is pity. Toward the weak it is help. Toward the wicked it is resistance. Toward the strong, it is trust. Toward the penitent, it is forgiveness.

Toward the fortunate it is congratulation. Toward God it is reverence and love.

RHEUMATIC MISERY

Relief Can Only Come Through Better Blood—Liment of No Use.

In no other disease does the blood become thin so rapidly as in rheumatism. Not only does it become thin, but it is loaded with impurities—rheumatic poisons. Without the proper treatment these poisons increase, the inflamed joints swell and the patient becomes a cripple. Most treatments simply aim to keep down the pain, hence with every unfavorable condition a renewed attack follows.

To cast out rheumatism the blood must be enriched and the rheumatic poisons driven out with the natural secretions of the body. This can best be done through a course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which have a specific action on the blood, giving it new richness and redness. Thousands have tried this treatment with beneficial results. That every sufferer from rheumatism who does not try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is neglecting the most hopeful means of recovery is shown by the statement of Mr. David Carroll, Pitou, N.S., who says:—"For years I was troubled with rheumatism. The pains were not continuous, but they always returned, and kept getting worse. I tried so-called electric belts and many medicines, but did not get more than temporary relief. Only those who have suffered from this trouble will realize what I suffered at times. I had begun to despair of getting better when a friend urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. In a short time I could feel this medicine helping me so I gladly continued taking the pills and soon found that every trace of the trouble had disappeared and there was a great improvement in my general health. It is now two years since I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I have not had the least twinge of the trouble in that time. That is why I confidently recommend the pills to other sufferers."

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE TEETH AND THEIR CARE

Progress Made in the Prevention of Dental Disease.

Marked progress has been made during recent years in working out a programme for the prevention of dental disease. Outstanding research workers have spent their time and energy in an effort to ascertain the real causes of decay and pyorrhea and to find out how the public can successfully combat or correct these conditions. Such investigation is absolutely essential because so many people are not only suffering from tooth ache and the loss of valuable teeth but a number of systematic diseases are the result of bad mouth conditions.

It has been discovered that dental diseases are largely due to modern habits of living and that people in highly civilized countries have more tooth decay than those less highly favored. It is always difficult to persuade the public to live in accordance with natural laws and consequently, some extra protection must be provided. The research departments of the Dental Faculties of the Universities and other investigators are convinced of the necessity for and the value of this study and the large number engaged in the work gives promise of many worth-while developments.

Knowledge of any kind is of little value unless applied and a programme for the prevention of dental diseases will not be of much service to humanity unless brought to them. The logical person to educate the people in regard to mouth conditions is the dentist, but how can he bring the advantages of modern dentistry to the public unless he is himself informed.

The chief agency used by the dentists for the purpose of keeping abreast of the times is the dental convention. These meetings held once a year in the province enable the members of the dental profession to secure through essay and clinic the very latest in both knowledge and methods. The Dental Convention to be held in Toronto during this month promises to be of unusual importance because it will be the Diamond Jubilee of the Ontario Dental Association and will be a joint convention with the Canadian Dental Association.

Outstanding dentists and physicians from all parts of America will be present to give essays and clinics and the meetings will be so instructive and inspiring that the vast majority of the dentists of the Province will be in attendance.

Beethoven in the Home.

The great symphonies and string quartets of Beethoven represent that master-composer's genius at its highest. On the face of it they are exclusively works for the concert-room, except where a group of skilled chamber-music players can be assembled in the home. But as a matter of fact, most of these wonderful works for a number of instruments have been transcribed for performance as piano duets, and great is the enjoyment to be had from playing them in that form in the home. Beethoven's concert-room works have been made marvelously available to the home, also, by gramophone records, so that there is little need nowadays to limit our pleasure in his genius entirely to our touch with it at concerts.

What United States Still Owes Britain.

The report for 1926 of the Council of Foreign Bondholders, which has just appeared, is most interesting, perhaps, for its reference to the defaulting Southern States of the great American Republic, says London Truth.

"A little calculation shows that the amount owing by Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, and the two Carolinas is about $53,000,000, taking the average duration of default at 70 years and the rate of interest at 5 per cent. This sum is nearly sufficient to pay two years' instalments on our debt to America (interest and repayment of principal), and if we could have saved that amount it would have been very useful in tiding over the period of misfortune caused by the coal dispute.

"To indicate the character of the debts of these Southern States of America, the Council of Foreign Bondholders take the case of Mississippi. The debt of that State was contracted between 1831 and 1838, and default began in 1841, or some twenty years before the Civil War broke out. The money borrowed by Mississippi was applied to the establishment of two banks, and when these banks ceased to be remunerative investments, the State promptly repudiated its obligations to the bondholders. And that is the position now."

Television Makes Its Bow.

So rapid is the pace of science today that the theoretical possibility of a great invention is hardly grasped by the public before we learn that it has become a reality. This was the case with the transatlantic radiotelephone. And now, only a few weeks after this invention is put to commercial use, we enter a new era of communication as fascinating and stupendous in its potentialities as the radio or the telephone.

Yesterday, television was a dream; now it is a fact. In time millions of people may watch and listen to the inauguration of a Governor-General, a championship football game, or even the clash of armies on a battlefield.

Television, we are informed, is a method of transmitting synchronously a voice and a picture of the person speaking.

Canadian Farmer Tells His Experience

"Les" Booth, widely known Ontario farmer, and a sick man for 20 years, suffered daily, only half alive. Now strong, robust, vigorous, credits new found health to Tanlac

Though popularly known as "Les," Mr. Booth's correct first name is George. His home is at 271 Perth St., Brockville. For the past three years he has enjoyed vigorous health but what he endured before then is best told in his own words. "For twenty years my arms, shoulders, back and hips, ached with rheumatism," said Mr. Booth. "When I had to quit work entirely and I remember one bad spell that kept me in bed for six months."

"My case got to be so chronic that the help ran the farm. I was practically helpless. Even my wrists and hands would swell up so that I couldn't write my name. I nerved bedtime, for I got no rest, but lay there in agony, waiting for morning. Nervous spells would seize me and I would tremble all over like a leaf. I couldn't get any benefit from my food and had to force myself to eat. My weight was far below normal."

Three years ago I decided to give Tanlac a good trial, for nothing else had helped me. I could scarcely believe such results were possible as those Tanlac soon showed. The aching stopped, my appetite came back and I could eat heartily. My nights became more restful, too, and I slept soundly. I gained 16 pounds which I still retain, and I now work hard outdoors from 8 to 10 hours a day. I never have an ache. It's hardly believable! If folks want to know what Tanlac can do, tell them to write to Les Booth, or to come and see me. I'll tell 'em."

If your health is broken from overwork or neglect, profit from Mr. Booth's experience. Try Tanlac, nature's own body builder, made from roots, herbs and bark. Your druggist has it. Over 52 million bottles sold.
