There passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. David Petheram, on Saturday, Mrs. Barbara Cust. Mrs. Cust was a very active old lady and had attained the remarkable age of 96 years. She was up and around until the day of her death, when she passed peacefully away in her chair. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. W. D. Clark on Monday. Interment was made at Laurville. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the community.

It is with the deepest sorrow and regret that we announce the death of Mrs. Sanford Fearman (nee Ethel Howard) of Hagersville. Great anxiety was felt on Sunday when it was learned that she was very ill with pneumonia, and the entire community was shocked on Monday when it became known that she had passed on to the Great Beyond. Mrs. Fearman lived in this community from a little girl until after her marriage. She was very active in church and community circles, being a teacher in the Sunday School and organist of the church for a number of years. Her kindly disposition made her a friend of everyone. The deepest and sincerest sympathy is extended to her sorrowing husband and little sons and also to her father and brothers.
