RESPECTED CITIZEN AT REST

After only a short illness, at nearly midnight on July 27th, 1928, Mr. Joseph Peacock slept peacefully away. A really beautiful ending of life, for just at the last he laid his hand across his breast and breathed his soul into the presence of his Master

Mr. Peacock was born a little over 75 years ago in Halton County, near Bronte, where he spent the first 21 years of his life. His parents were Geo. W. Peacock and Isabell Buchanan. He had five brothers, three of whom are doctors: Dr. Norman Peacock of Darlington, Indiana; Dr. Albert Peacock of Chicago, Ill., and the late Dr. Sam Peacock; Jas. Peacock, farmer of Burlington, and the late Geo. Peacock, farmer of Bronte. Two sisters predeceased him and his living sister is Mrs. W. G. Anderson of Toronto

About 47 years ago Mr. Peacock married Miss Margaret Alice Phibbs, who has proved a true helpmate to him and survives him. This union was blessed with six sons and two daughters: George and John of Frontier, Sask.; Roy, of Chicago; Herbert, of Jarvis, and Charles, of Hagersville; Mrs. C. Deal, of Port Dover, and Mrs. C. K. Jarvis, of Milton. One son, Stacy, having died when 9 years of age.

Mr. Peacock was a prosperous farmer, of a quiet, retiring nature, a staunch Liberal, and an adherent of the Church of England, and always willing to lend a hand to help a neighbor.

The funeral service was held at his home and was largely attended. The remains were interred in Hagersville cemetery and borne by six of his nearest neighbors: Messrs. Elvin Pond, Wm. Lfthouse, Byron Pond, Lorne Dougherty, Frank Pond and Wm. Wilson.

The floral offerings were beautiful. Among those present at the funeral were relatives and friends from Chicago, Darlington, Bronte, Port Dover, Hagersville and Jarvis.

BETTER BUSINESS BUREAU

The Better Business Bureau Movement, which is widespread throughout the United States and which is taking hold in Canada, has been influential in raising standards of merchandising, preveting false advertising and unethical business practices, resulting in greater confidence between buyer and seller as well as in the protection of investors from the activities of those individuals who prey upon the public in the offering of securities of doubtful value and in many cases very little or no value at all. These individuals are very versatile in their method of operation, and in the use of high pressure methods, and have robbed trusting investors of many hundreds of millions of dollars during the past few years. The Better Business Bureaus have been instrumental in curbing to a marked degree the operations of these doubtful individuals, and in sending many of them to jail, while many others have been forced to close their offices and cease operations in the districts where the Better Business Bureaus have been active.

As announced in the press a short time ago by the Attorney-General, he welcomes the formation of a Better Business Bureau in the Province of Ontario—already a Bureau is in active operation in the Province of Quebec, with headquarters in Montreal and is doing excellent service.

The Better Business Bureau, as at present constituted comprises representatives of the Toronto Board of Trade, Toronto Stock Exchange, the Standard Stock Exchange, Investment Bankers' Association, Dominion Mortgage and Investment Association, Toronto Real Estate Board and others. The officers and members of the Executive Committee of the Better Business Bureau are as follows:

Chairman—C. L. Burton, President Toronto Board of Trade.

Vice-Chairmen—C. E. Abbs, President Toronto Stock Exchange; A. M. Macrae, rep. Investment Bankers' Association.

Secretary-Treasurer—J. A. Kingsmill, Room 706, 45 Richmond Street West.

P. P. Baker, Dominion Mortgage and Investment Association

F. J. Coombs, Investment Bankers' Association

R. T. Stanley, Retail Merchants' Section, Toronto Board of Trade

F. J. Crawford, Standard Stock Exchange

J. C. Suydam, Toronto Real Estate Board.
