H. C. I. COMMENCEMENT

Miss Rudolph had been five years at the college and had shown a fine record. Miss Gwyn, an unusually bright student, had attended the collegiate for one year, coming from Battleford, Sask., to complete her education in the east. Miss Rudolph's total winnings were $1,000 and Miss Gwyn's $800.

Miss Pecover and Miss Spira were also awarded university scholarships. "Nothing had been more appreciated in the history of the school," Mr. Morris declared, "than two special scholarships given this year, the donor of which wished his name withheld." The winners of these, Miss Rudolph and Miss Gwyn, were thus given further assistance in financing their university courses.

A new medal, deeply appreciated, was that donated by Mrs. John Freeman, in memory of her husband, the late John A. Freeman, who, for a number of years, had been a teacher of classics in the collegiate institute.

Rev. William Barclay addressed the young people, emphasizing the necessity of self discipline. "I do not believe that the youth of today is more frivolous or given to pranks than they were 30 years ago," he said, "but in this age, with its numerous advantages, there is just the fear that you will find things too easy, and this is where self discipline comes in."

A musical program given by the students was thoroughly enjoyed and included several numbers by the orchestra, under the leadership of Captain Cornelius.

E. S. Hogarth was in charge of presentation of awards. The list of awards was as follows:

The Norman Slater scholarship—Dorothy E. Rudolph, presented by Norman Slater.

Two special scholarships, Dorothy E. Rudolph and C. Elizabeth Gwyn, presented by A. W. Morris, principal. Edgar Levy gold medal—Dorothy E. Rudolph, presented by Dr. Seaton. J. M. Buchan gold medal—C. Elizabeth Gwyn, presented by Mr. Butcher. The W. H. Ballard medal—Awarded to Grace E. McNeill, presented by Dr. W. H. Ballard.

The Chairman's gold medal—Awarded to Margaret M. Slater and presented by George W. Ballard, K.C.

The Hamilton Herald gold medal—Awarded to J. Lawrence Forté; and presented by Dr. Burns.

The Lyceum medal—Awarded to J. Clare Wilcox and presented by John P. Flynn, president of the Lyceum.

The A. M. Cunningham medal—Awarded to Richard H. Craddock and presented by Frank Robbins.

The Erland Perney Medal—Awarded to Edwin D. Eagle, presented by Frank E. Perney.

The John A. Freeman memorial medal—Awarded to George W. North, presented by Mrs. Freeman.

The Carter scholarships—Awarded to Dorothy E. Rudolph and C. Elizabeth Gwyn, presented by M. J. McCarvin.

Oratorical contest prizes, donated by W. M. Loran, M.A., awarded to Muriel Jacobson, Reginald E. Hais, and Paul Daniels, and presented by Charles Kerr. Debating club prizes, awarded by Lyceum to Reginald E. Hais and F. G. Miller, and present-

THE ONTARIO GRAIN POOL

Join the wheat pool and reap all you sow. The Ontario Wheat Pool is not a gold mine, or a mine turning out streams of gold to its members. Rather, it is a compact, well ordered farms company, co-operative with a clear objective and following a well defined path. Its objectives are: 1st, getting as fair an average price as can possibly be secured for farmers' wheat; 2nd, eliminating the opportunity of its members being exploited by middle men; 3rd, providing the handling service at cost. In other words, securing for the members all the money his or her wheat will bring in the market from farmers granaries to the consumers. The pool member gets all his wheat will bring and reap all he sows.

There is no winter wheat for export this year, so Ontario mills shall grind the year's crop and the farmers shall get bran and shorts from their own wheat. On the whole the members of the grain trade throughout the 16 counties in which the pool is organized show a reasonable spirit of co-operation. They want the business of pool members because it is profitable to them and many of them admit frankly that the development of the pool has brought bigger returns to growers than they have got under the old system of marketing, so why not join the wheat pool and reap all you sow.

Contracts can be seen and signed with the following canvassers in the Jarvis district: John Walker, Charles Sheppard, J. C. Bush, Arnold Werner, Ardy Benn, or J. F. Martindale, member of the Advisory Council Ontario Grain Pool.

by R. H. Wallace. Vox prizes, donated by Fred Cloke, Cloke's Book Shop, awarded to Jean Morton, F. Graham Miller, F. M. Richardson, Reginald Hais and J. H. Bell, and presented by Mr. Devitt.

This was followed by awarding the Canadian club history scholarships, awarded to public school students; the presentations being made by F. I. Kerr, president of the Canadian club. General proficiency scholarships, given by the board of education to entrance candidates, John Fogg making the presentations. Proficiency medals to lower school students, presentations by S. G. Whitlock, H. V. Clark, F. G. Miller, A. E. Hudson, Mr. Millar and Miss E. Sheldon.—Hamilton Herald.

More reading matter in a week than any other Canadian farm paper in a month—the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal. Only a dollar a year, or three years for $2, now making wonderful improvements.
