THE FEBRUARY ROD AND GUN and Canadian Silver Fox News

Covering a wide field of outdoor activities, the February issue of "Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News," just published, is an exceptionally interesting number. Bonny-castle Dale, well known writer for the magazine, this month contributes an unusually interesting story on hunting brant on the Pacific and Atlantic coasts. An enlightening discussion of the Rainy Lake damming proposals is concluded by Arthur Hawkes.

Among other stories and regular departmental features are some splendid hunting and fishing articles as well as informative material on bird life, guns and ammunition, trapping and dogs. Samuel Alexander White's fine series of fiction on the old fur trading days in the North West is concluded with another thrilling complete story. Another interesting article is one by Robert James, descriptive of the island of Anticosti at the mouth of the St. Lawrence.

Westerners Show Mettle in East

For the first time in years a western rugby team has given a worthy display against an eastern team. The western senior champions have been completely routed year after year, but on Saturday, December 12, the western Juniors provided a real challenge to the supremacy of the east.

Playing against the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association rugby squad for the Dominion Junior Rugby Championship, the Patricia's Junior Rugby Team of Regina, Saskatchewan, was defeated by a narrow margin of 6 to 4 after holding the lead of 4 to 1 for the first three quarters. In the final quarter the Montreal team sent Ayer into the field as a kicker and he managed to hold his own against husky Brakine, of the Patricia's, who was the star player.

The M.A.A.A. managed to crash through the opposing line for a try. The game at the M.A.A.A. grounds proved a fine exhibition of Rugby despite the snow on the ground. The Regina Leader donated a cup to the champion. This is to be known in the future as the Regina Leader Trophy and is to be played for annually for the junior championship of Canada. Dick Gibson, of the Leader, who accompanied the team, presented the cup to the M.A.A.A. squad at an informal meeting Saturday evening.

The Regina Patricia's travelled to Montreal on the Canadian Pacific flyer the "Imperial" in charge of H.
Wright, C.P.R. representative, and expressed their gratification at the fine accommodation afforded them so that they were able to take the field in fine condition.
They returned to the west also on the "Imperial".

Here are the Pats, western junior rugby champions:
Left to right, front row: D. H. Traynor, flying wing;
R. Middleton, left half; E. Findlay, middle, substitute; F. Metcalfe, quarter; Al Ritchie, coach; A. Malone, quarter, substitute; E. W. Fraser, Toronto; E. Fraser, half; N. Busch, mwp. 2nd Row, left to right: D. Gibson, representing the Regina Leader; E. Elwood, substitute; R. Johnston, right middle; E. Shaw, substitute; G.
Erskine, half; D. Johnston, outside wing. Third Row: Boot York, left middle wing; G. Duff, left outside wing;
O. Kirtzner, right half; J. Cranston, inside wing; V.
McNemara, substitute; J. Crapper, inside; H. Wright, Canadian Pacific Railway representative in charge of the team.
