NAVYCLUB NEWS

The True Canadian Club met in the new hall, Toronto, on Friday, January 19th, and we believe there were very few spectators present at the True Canadian, judging from the large number present despite the other attractions in the vicinity. We were very pleased to see some new faces present and we hope they enjoyed themselves, as we believe they must have. We are sure, with the addition of these new members, the meetings will become more interesting to everyone.

After singing "The Maple Leaf," which is our usual opening ode, the business part of the meeting was spent in arranging for future gatherings. The first one being in the form of a social evening and dance, which will be held on Tuesday, January 26th. The boys of the Club are having a "sparrow match," the losing side to pay for the orchestra. Of course, the girls can help their friends catch sparrows if they wish.

The President, Mr. Harvey Lindsay, gave a splendid report of the annual United Farmers Young People's convention, which gave us some very new, bright ideas on planning the year's work. He also emphasized the importance of real co-operation among every one of the club members, which is the most important factor in the success of any organization. We feel that our new President has the right spirit and plenty of ambition to make a very successful year in the history of the True Canadian Club.

After the business, a splendid program, consisting of readings by Miss Jean Lindsay and Harvey Volkes; educational papers by Miss Kathleen Snowden on the "Life of Pauline Johnson," and by Wansley Lindsay, "Why I Am a Farmer," a song by Miss Gladys Lindsay; "The Eyeopener," prepared and read by Russell Hare; community singing; all of which were much appreciated by all present. The meeting closed with an hour of dancing.

We invite you to any of our meetings.
