THE MYRTLE HARE CONCERT

ing was rendered.
Rev. Mr. Breasley, pastor of the church, introduced the artists of the evening. He referred to Miss Hare as a daughter of this vicinity, her parental home being at Chesapeake and her Alma Mater, Hagersville High School. Reference was also made to the memorable concert which was Miss Hare's first in Hagersville, and to the distinction which she and her colleagues earned that evening. The piece made that evening in the hearts of the people was shown by the large audience that greeted the same three young ladies on this night of unfavorable weather.

Miss Hare possesses a voice of richness, range and power, enchanted by a charming personality. She sings with modest abandon, and with insight and appreciation interprets to her audience the emotions that moved the composer. The imagination becomes creative under the charm of her singing and one is made to feel the exceeding worth of the beautiful and true. Miss Hare sings with her soul as well as her voice, and imparts to others the true moral purpose that characterizes her own manner. Her discriminate choice of selections revealed something of the high standard that she has set for herself. Her rich and trained voice together with her platform amenities are the credentials by which she will be recognized in musical circles as one of Canada's outstanding contraltos. She will be welcomed by music lovers in Hagersville at any time she returns. Again many will come to hear her.

Miss Gidley, whose mastery of technique was apparent at both organ and piano during her first visit here, confined her numbers to the piano. Her interpretations of the selections chosen were marked with individuality and unassuming dignity. As a famous artist at the marble is able to release the man, so Miss Gidley at the piano is able to release the inarticulate in human hearts and "disturb them with the joy of elevated thoughts."

Miss Bowden, endowed with a pleasing personality has developed a high degree of skill in her chosen field. Though her audience knew the high standard of her work, they had to enlarge their knowledge of her gifts. She secures immediate appreciative attention, and with directness of purpose modified with a most pleasing reserve, she emancipates both thought and emotion. Though her impersonations bear the stamp of her own individuality, attention is not fixed on the artist herself. She presents her characters simply and naturally, penetrating to their character and motives without exhibiting all of her own powers. Her buoyant grace and sympathetic appreciation of her audience were spontaneous.

Those who heard the artists of this splendid evening's entertainment manifested satisfaction indicative of a more purposeful devotion to the better class of music and dramatic art.—Hagersville News.

EATS BIG STEAK AND FRIED ONIONS—NO GAS

"Every time I ate I had terrible stomach gas. Now, thanks to Adlerika, I eat steak and fried onions and feel fine."—Mrs. J. Julian.

Just ONE spoonful Adlerika relieves gas and that bloated feeling so that you can eat and sleep well. Acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and removes old waste matter you never thought was there. No matter what you have tried for your stomach and bowels, Adlerika will surprise you. J. M. Schreiber, Druggist.

THE FEBRUARY ROD AND GUN and Canadian Silver Fox News

Covering a wide field of outdoor activities, the February issue of "Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News," just published, is an exceptionally interesting number. Bonny-castle Dale, well known writer for the magazine, this month contributes an unusually interesting story on hunting brant on the Pacific and Atlantic coasts. An enlightening discussion of the Rainy Lake damming proposals is concluded by Arthur Hawkes.

Among other stories and regular departmental features are some splendid hunting and fishing articles as well as informative material on bird life, guns and ammunition, trapping and dogs. Samuel Alexander White's fine series of fiction on the old fur trading days in the North West is concluded with another thrilling complete story. Another interesting article is one by Robert James, descriptive of the island of Anticosti at the mouth of the St. Lawrence.

Here and There

Saint John—Almost 200 new Danish colonists were added to the settlement of New Denmark in the course of the past year, and the population of the colony is now 800. Colonists are prospering and a further increase in activity is expected in 1928.

Morris Ackerman, acknowledged as one of the leading authorities on fishing and hunting on this continent, urges protection and a close season for great northern pike, gray trout and dore in Ontario and reduction of number allowed to be caught in a day below the figure of four specimens now permitted. Otherwise depletion will cause heavy loss in diminished tourist traffic.

French-Canadian folk songs are becoming more and more popular as was shown by the recent recital at the Jacob Sleeper Hall, Boston, addressed by J. Murray Gibbon and illustrated by songs by Charles Marchand, well-known singer of French-Canadian songs. Boston University students and many members of the Canadian Club and of Boston Musical societies attended the recital.

Ottawa—A shipment of six bacon type pure-bred swine from Canadian farms to New Zealand has recently been made. Three of the hogs were Canadian type Berkshires from Ridgeway, Ontario, and were prize winners at the Royal Fair. The other three were Tamworths from Ontario and Quebec breeders. This is the first year that hogs have been imported into New Zealand from North America since 1916. Other shipments are expected to follow shortly.

The annual dog-racing classic—the Eastern International Dog-Sled Derby—will again be run in Quebec City, February 20-22 next under the auspices of the Winter Sports association of that city. It will cover 120 miles in the three days and already some of the best known mushers in the United States and Canada are entered for the race which carries a cash prize of $1,000 and custody for a year of a handsome gold cup.

Calgary—More than $500,000 worth of cattle from the farms of the province of Alberta were exported to the United States between July 1st and November 30, 1927, according to the report of the American Consul at Calgary. The shipments include some 12,000 head, comprising stockers, feeders and butcher cattle. The American markets at the present time are very inviting to stockmen in Western Canada and shipments have shown greater activity during the past six months than in any similar period since 1922.

Canadian Pacific Express, railway and steamships and finally an airplane were employed to carry two boxes of roses from Brantford, Ont. to Paris, France as a gift at Christmas. They were sent by Lt-Col. J. B. Maclean of Toronto to Princess Carolyn de Faucigny-Lucinge and to Countess Oden de Lubersac and only the heavy snowfall that swept Great Britain at that time prevented them from being placed on these ladies' breakfast tables on Christmas morning. As it was, they arrived two days later, as fresh as though they had just been plucked.
