GIRLS PLAY GOOD HOCKEY

On Monday, Feb. 27th, the Dover girls were at home to a picked team representing the finest talent of our neighboring town of Jarvis, where Lea Marshall has taken a great interest in the formation of a girls' hockey team. It was a very good game, although late in starting due to the development of car trouble en route by the visitors. The visitors deserve credit for the fine showing they made. They were playing without some of their star performers and while Port Dover ran up a high score, they never lost interest, but seemed to keep after the puck with the determination of the proverbial puppy and the root. The locals tallied 10 goals and the Jarvis girls found the nets for a lone tally.

The Line-up
Jarvis—Goal, Ruth Hewson; defense, Elma Brown and Ruth Emerson; wings, Bernice Ineson and Marie Ineson; centre, Eileen Marshall; sub, Nellie Saunders.

Port Dover—Goal, Maude Miller; defense, Eva Smith, Arlene Thompson; wings, Jean Wood and Golda Thompson; centre, Eileen Garner; subs, Beth Macdonald, Jean Laurie.

Referee, Jack Brown.

Lunch was served to both teams at the close of the game.

DOVER WINS SECOND GAME

The return game with Jarvis was played last Thursday and while Dover played the same team as Monday evening, Jarvis was greatly strengthened and we were assured that they were playing their regular line up. The game was snappy; it was fast and interesting at all times. The teams were evenly matched, and individual plays featured the entire offering. Jean Wood started the score by a long shot which was well handled, and her example was soon followed by Eva Smith for tally number two. Jarvis failed to penetrate the perfect goal-tending of Toots Miller in the entire game.

The second period was faster than the first but still the Jarvis girls failed to even up the score. They tried strenuously until the gong announced the end of the period and Dover had added two more — Eva Smith and Jean Wood taking the honors, but nevertheless every player gave the best that was in her.

The opening of the final frame set a good pace but toward the end it lagged a trifle, for the girls could not hope to maintain lightning speed all the evening. Jarvis made several determined efforts to find the goal, but the fine work of the Dover aggregation made these spasmodic dashes short-lived, and the game ended 4-0 in favor of Port Dover.

The Jarvis team entertained their opponents after the game to a very excellent lunch that was much appreciated.

Port Dover—Goal, Maude Miller; defense, Eva Smith, Arlene Thompson; wings, Jean Wood and Golda

FIRE DESTROYS HOME

On Sunday morning fire which had started in the chimney destroyed the home of Mr. Frank Fearman, of Oneida, three miles south of the village on the York Road. Unfortunately when discovered, the entire building burst into flames, and it was impossible to save it. With the assistance of neighbors, however, a portion of the furniture was removed from the building.

Dr. Grant's message to Knox church people last Sabbath was a great message. In the morning he spoke of the growth of the Presbyterian Church in Canada; that 2½ years ago she had but 368 ministers, now she has three times that many, and upwards of 2000 preaching places. That her givings to the spread of the gospel went to the 14,000,000 mark.

The evening sermon was the old-fashioned doctrines — Salvation by faith; Regeneration, the new birth; the Divinity of Jesus Christ. It was a great sermon and was heard by a large congregation.

Dr. Marsh preaches on Sabbath at both services. Good music. Come worship with us.
