CHOIR CONCERT

Did ye hear about the rare Ould-Time Irish Concert with solos, duets, choruses, costumes an' all, that's going to be held on Friday evening, 16th o' March at the Wesley United church at 8:15 o'clock sharp? Ye'd better not be missin' it. Tickets 35c. children 20c.

RUNMUTH'S COMET

The above comet, although well placed for observation, is seen with much difficulty except by large telescopes. It is not a very large body and its distance from the earth is so remote that its brightness is as a star of the 12th magnitude. Dr. Marsh has located its position, but the object being on the limits of the power of his telescope, prevents a positive outline of the object. However, the comet is coming nearer to us, but will not be visible except by the telescope.

HOOVER—VOKES

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Tuesday, February 28th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Vokes of Nanticoke, when their daughter, Gladys Evelyne, became the wife of Oscar E. Hoover of Selkirk.

The bride, who was prettily gowned in white crepe de chine, and carrying a bouquet of roses, entered the drawing room to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Mabel Kindree, and was given in marriage by her father. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. J. Lamb, of Hagersville, a former rector.

After the reception the happy couple left on a trip to Detroit, and on their return will reside at Selkirk.

IMPORTANT!

BRITISH SETTLEMENT SOCIETY OF CANADA

This Society is at the present time endeavoring in the next 3 or 4 months to place about 100 British families in Ontario. These families are nearly all thoroughly trained and experienced farmers. They require dwellings in the vicinity of their employment. Anyone in need of farm or domestic help should enquire for further particulars to the Head Office, 43 Victoria Street, Toronto, Ont.

BEGINNING THE FIFTIETH YEAR

By Farmicus

With this issue this great family journal makes its fiftieth annual bow to the citizens of Jarvis and surrounding districts.

Many changes have taken place since Frank N. Pettit first yanked the Johnson bar of the old Washington press in The Record printing shop. Rural phones were then unknown, motor cars were beyond the realms of fancy and the city daily came only to the privileged few.

The Record came to fill a long felt want. In those days the map was dotted with typical Birds-eye Centres, each one boasting a breezy correspondent. Their weekly budgets descriptive of neighborhood doings sparkled with gems of native wit. There was also much good natured cross-firing between the various scribes, which added to the general interest.

It is regrettable that the files have been destroyed. They reflected the life of the village and district and were invaluable historically.

The usual staff around the office in the early days consisted of the boss, journeyman, two-third and devil. Today, with the aid of modern machinery their combined duties are performed by one individual. All of which may be in the way of progress, but the larger aggregation was an important factor in news-gathering and in many ways added to the spiciness of the sheet.

Some time during the middle eighties, Pettit transferred his interest in the plant to Elliot and Rodgers, who were succeeded after a brief period by J. W. Rodgers as sole proprietor. Following the death of the latter, Mrs. Elva Rodgers conducted the business successfully until 1926, when the plant was acquired by the present Record Printing Company.

During Mrs. Rodgers' period of management the present commodious office building was erected and a power press installed. The present owners have since added a linotype machine to the equipment.

Of the old squad of Record type stickers of bygone years "Patsy" Brock holds the record for term of service. A complete list of graduates of the case is not available. Some have been conducting plants in other fields, among them Ernie Swing of the Atwood Bee.

Throughout the years of its existence The Record has served the community continuously and faithfully and never better than it is doing at the present time. It has amply justified its existence. Proof of that lies in the fact that it has continued serenely on while many of its contemporaries of recent years have fallen by the wayside or merged with other publications.

The present combination of boss and printer's devil is a newspaper man of long and varied experience and though he assures us that "the worst is yet to come," we have every reason to doubt his word. While the manager's middle name is "Work" the outlook is hopeful for The Record.

Another pen will herald its centennial. We shall content ourselves with quoting for the management the time honored Scotticism:—"Lang may yer lum reek."

MRS. ELIZABETH CRAWFORD

Mrs. Elizabeth Crawford, widow of the late Thomas Crawford, died at her home in Jarvis on Monday, 5th of March, after a week's illness from pneumonia. A sad circumstance is that her only daughter, Josephine, had been very ill for some weeks with bronchial trouble, and though somewhat better is still confined to her room.

Mrs. Crawford was a daughter of the late Joseph and Rachel Abraham of Jarvis, where she was born and spent her early life. After her marriage she lived for a time in Simcoe and later went with her husband to Tillsonburg, where she resided until his death 12 years ago. She then returned to Jarvis to be near relatives.

She was a member of the Presbyterian church and a generous supporter of its missions, and other work. She was an earnest bible student and loved to converse with friends on religious subjects.

She was 74 years of age and is survived by one daughter, Josephine, and two sisters, Mrs. Meikle, of Toronto, and Mrs. Jones, of New York City.

The funeral took place on Wednesday, March 7th, the services being conducted by the Rev. Dr. Marsh, and the interment was made at the Simcoe cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

I hereby wish to thank the neighbors and friends for the kindness and sympathy shown during my recent sad bereavement.

Josie Crawford.

DEATHS

Melissa Saunders, beloved wife of John William Saunders, passed away quite suddenly on Tuesday evening at St. Joseph's hospital. Deceased was born in Jarvis 54 years ago, and had been a resident in Hamilton for the past eight years. The funeral will take place from her residence, 332 Wellington street north, to Hamilton cemetery, on Friday at 2 p.m.

NANTICOKE W. I.

The monthly meeting of the Nanticoke W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Ira Evans on Thursday, March 8.

The meeting was opened in the usual manner by singing the opening ode, followed by repeating the Lord's Prayer, after which the minutes of the February meeting were read and confirmed. This was followed by a discussion on the St. Patrick's supper which is to be held on Friday, March 16th. It was decided that the fee be 40c and 25c.

A splendid paper on "Home Adornment," prepared by Mrs. John Vokes and read by Miss Mae Hedges, was given. Miss Cora Henning then favored us with an instrumental selection. Miss Mabel Thompson then gave a very interesting reading entitled, "At the Sign of the Shamrock." Mrs. Secrett then favored us with a vocal solo, "Come, Sing to Me." The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem, after which a dainty lunch was served by our hostess.

There were 11 present.
