DIPHTHERIA CAN BE PREVENTED

Diphtheria is caused by the poison or toxin produced by the diphtheria germs lodged in the human body, usually in the throat and nose.

When this toxin attacks the body, the latter seeks to protect itself, and it does so by producing diphtheria antitoxin or anti-poison, which coun-teracts or neutralizes the toxin. If this occurs quickly enough and a sufficient quantity is produced, the body wins and recovery results. Not only does recovery take place but something happens inside this human body which enables it, in most cases, to prevent a second attack of the disease.

Can protection similar to that conferred by one attack of the actual disease be gained without the danger of death and without fear of the suffering that comes with the disease? The answer is "Yes."

Diphtheria can be prevented by the injection of diphtheria toxoid or toxin-antitoxin. This method is known diphtheria immunization. The injections stimulate the body to produce the substances which are the fighting forces against diphtheria.

These substances are not developed at once; it takes several weeks for this to occur, but after the development has taken place, the person is immunized or protected against diphtheria, just as he would have been had he had an attack of the disease.
The menace of diphtheria can be eliminated. Lives can be saved and suffering prevented.—Ask your family physician to give your children this protection by immunizing them against diphtheria.
