LOCAL AND GENERAL

Rev. J. B. Smith is preaching at Grace United Church at Jarvis, on Sunday next.

Miss J. B. Smith returned home on Sunday, after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. L. Walker, in Simcoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Harris and Mr. and Mrs. George Harris of Buffalo, visited relatives and friends here on Sunday.

Glenn and Marjorie Reicheld entertained a number of their friends to a Halloween party on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. LaPlante and family of Leith, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Church, during the past week.

The Rebekahs will have a sale of home-cooking and a 15c tea at John Brown's Drug Store, Saturday, Nov. 17th, from 3 to 6 p.m.

Mrs. John Church had the misfortune to fall while visiting in Simcoe and sprained one of her ankles, causing her considerable pain.

The November meeting of the Jarvis Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Thos. Harris on Wednesday, November 21st instead of November 14th, at 2:30 p.m.

More reading matter in a week than any other Canadian farm paper in a month—the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal. Only a dollar a year, or three years for $2, now making wonderful improvements.

John Crozier passed away on Friday, October 26th, at his home on Mud street, Hagersville, after a lingering illness. Deceased was a bachelor and had continually lived in that community. He leaves three sisters: Miss Crozier and Mrs. Craddock at home, Mrs. Thos. Cowan, Hagersville, and one brother, William, of Springvale.

School Teacher Attached
Not so very long ago, Henry was very anxious to go into one of the professions, so in order to make enough money to keep up with his expenses, he took up school teaching. Well, teaching isn't so easy now-a-days as it used to be, and Henry had to work doubly hard to do his day's work and also keep up with his private studies. More than that, he had to spare some of his slender earnings to help keep his widowed mother. His father died some fifteen years ago from tuberculosis, and, in time, and long before his goal was reached, Henry, too, had outworn his slender reserve of strength. Now he has had to give up his position as a teacher, and his life's ambition, and enter the Muskoka Hospital for Consumptives, where a long fight is before him. It may be many months before the experienced medical attention and nursing he is getting at this institution, the last hope of so many unfortunate like him, will do their part and keep him on his feet again. Wouldn't you like to help in this work? A subscription would be welcome. Such may be sent to Hon W. A. Chilton of A. E. Ames, 225 College Street, Toronto 2, Ontario.

"The Floral Route to the West"

Gardens and Fountains at C.P.R. Station, Kenora, Ont.

Station Garden at Montreal West, Que.

The task of beautifying the lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway across the Dominion is increasing to a great extent each year. The importance of horticultural work in all its branches has been realized and according to plans recently formulated by the Floral Committee of the Canadian Pacific, the work will be greatly extended next spring. Already 1500 parks and station gardens have been constructed along the lines. "The Floral Route to the West" is the name by which the Company's garden system is known. Years ago John Caesar became station master at Markdale, Ontario, one of the first stations to be officially opened by the C.P.R. after taking over the Toronto and Bruce Railway. His love of flowers prompted him to plant a little garden at his station. From this evolved a three thousand mile route of blossoms.

One of the problems with which the Floral Committee have to contend is the great difference in climatic conditions of the sections through which the lines run. It has been found that the bested poppy will grow in profusion at Lake Louise and today the Lakeland Poppy at this famous mountain resort is known the world over. On the route from North Bay to Fort Williams the country is very rugged and the winter is severe. Here it has been found that the pansy plant, which is hardy, is most suited to the climate. Thousands of these plants have been planted along the lines in this section each year. Not Rambling Rose have taken a prominent place of late as they blossom all summer and require little attention. In fact, a careful study of climatic and soil conditions is being made by the Floral Department of the Canadian Pacific. The interest in the work taken by the employees of the Company is manifest in the wealth of beauty to be seen at the stations on the lines across the Dominion. The beauty of many C.P.R. stations have been an inspiration to many townspeople to beautify and improve the appearance of their homes. Each year cash prizes are given to the station masters producing the best results, which has a stimulating effect on enthusiasm. However, it is not always the finest gardens that are awarded the prizes. Many features are considered in judging them, such as the time of bloom, quality of the soil and the quantity of personal labor involved in obtaining the results.
