ALEXANDER THOMSON

Waterford, Aug. 10. — Alexander (Sandy) Thomson died at the home of his nephew, William Thomson, "The Pines," on Saturday, after a short illness. The late Mr. Thomson was born in Aberdeenshire, Scotland, in 1840, coming to Canada while a young man. He spent many years as herdsman at Bow Park Farm, Brantford, for the late Hon. George Brown, and at Oak Park Farm, Paris, for the late Captain Milloy. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon at Greepwood cemetery, Waterford.

A RECORD TO BE PROUD OF

The results of the Standing Crop competition in Fall Wheat held by the North Middlesex Society for 1929, are shown below.

It is worthy to note that of the 7 prize winners in this competition all of them sowed National Fertilizers on their Fall Wheat.

This competition has been held annually for a number of years, and we believe that, in winning first prize this year, Aler M. Stewart of Ailsa Craig, has established a record unprecedented in any county — it being the fourth consecutive year he has won first prize in this competition. Mr. Stewart has been a steady user of National Fertilizers for the past six years, and he attributes his success in growing wheat, in no small measure, to the use of this famous brand.

1. Aler M. Stewart, Ailsa Craig
 2. Wm. E. Lee, Clandeboye
 3. Harmon Morton, Ailsa Craig
 4. J. McFarlane & Son, Ailsa Craig
 5. Chas. Bannister, Ailsa Craig
 6. Ed. S. Hughes, Ailsa Craig
 7. Fred J. Neil & Son, Ailsa Craig
- Jas. McLean, Richmond Hill, Ont. Judge.—Ingersoll Tribune.

OLD AGE PENSIONS

In view of the uncertainty which exists in the public mind regarding the purpose and scope of the old-age pensions the following outline of the enactment may be of interest:

Qualifications under which a person may be eligible for pension:

(a) Is a British subject, or being a widow who is not a British subject, was such before her marriage;

(b) has attained the age of seventy years;

(c) has resided in Canada for years;

(d) has resided in the Province in which the application for pension is made for five years;

(e) is not an Indian as defined by the Indian Act;

(f) is not in receipt of an income of as much as $365 a year, and

(g) has not made any voluntary assignment or transfer of property for the purpose of qualifying for a pension.

The maximum pension payable is $240 yearly, which shall be subject to reduction by the amount of the income of the pensioner in excess of $125.00 a year.

Where a man and wife can both qualify each is entitled to a pension. Ontario Parents Maintenance Act.

Under this act, a son or daughter having sufficient means is bound to provide for the maintenance of a dependent parent. The Old Age Pension Act will not relieve a son or daughter from this obligation.

Provisions with regard to pensions. (a) Where the pensioner is the owner of an interest in a dwelling house in which he resides and the Old Age Pensions Commission of Ontario accepts a transfer of it to such interest the pension is not subject to any reduction thereof, but the Commission on the death of a pensioner or upon his ceasing to occupy such dwelling house may sell such interest and retain out of the proceeds the amount of all payments made to the pensioner in excess of the amount he would have received if such interest had not been transferred to the Commission.

(b) The right to the Commission to recovery of pension payments out of a deceased pensioner's estate, but this right is not to extend to property passing to another pensioner or to a person who has assisted in maintaining the pensioner.

(c) The pension is not to be liable to any provincial or municipal taxation, and cannot be attached or seized under any legal process, and is not assignable except as hereinafter provided.

(d) Where a pensioner is incapacitated or if it is considered that the pensioner is using his pension otherwise than for his own benefit, the pension may be paid to a trustee to be expended for the benefit of the pensioner.

(e) The Old Age Pensions Commission of Ontario may, with the consent of the pensioner, assume the management of any property belonging to the pensioner.

(f) The receipt of a pension shall not disqualify any person from voting. (Continued on Page 5)

On Second Floor "YOU KNOW THE STORE" JOHNSTON

In loving memory of Mr. William Johnston, who passed away on August 15th, 1923.

Sad and sudden was the call, Of one so dearly loved by all; The blow was hard, the shock severe; We little thought his death so near. Forget him, no we never will, For in God's care he liveth still. A loving Father, true and kind, No friend on earth like him we'll find. For one and all he did his best, And God gave him eternal rest.

Ever remembered by WIFE AND CHILDREN.
