SERIOUS FIRE AT NANTICOKE

Nanticoke was threatened early on Saturday morning last when fire destroyed three barns on the farm of Charles Martin, known as the Weidrick farm, and situated on the edge of the village.

The loss is estimated at $7000, with about $3000 insurance. Spontaneous combustion, caused by ragweed in the wheat, is blamed for the blaze. Practically the whole season's crops were destroyed, as well as implements and a clover thresher belonging to a man named Gilmore of Hamilton.

A general alarm was sent out through the telephone central, and farmers for miles around, as well as the Jarvis fire department, responded, but could do little else than stand around and watch the blaze, although efforts to save the other farm buildings were successful when a bucket brigade was formed.

The danger to the village was aggravated because there had been no rain there for more than a month, and the wells in the village are dry, or nearly so.

THOMAS HARRIS PASSES

The community was greatly shocked last Wednesday morning when it was learned that during the night one of our most respected citizens, in the person of Thomas Harris, had suffered from apoplexy, and never regained consciousness, passing away on Friday morning.

The late Mr. Harris was born in Caledonia in 1873 and spent his early life in Selkirk, moving to Jarvis about 30 years ago and establishing the butcher business which he successfully conducted until his death. The deceased was a public spirited citizen in every sense of the word, and where help was needed he was always one of the first to respond, and many indeed are the ones he has assisted without any thought of recompense or reward, and his passing will be deeply regretted by the large acquaintance that he enjoyed.

He leaves to mourn, his widow and five children, Jasper, George, Mrs. Beck of Buffalo, Mrs. Willard Yallop of Cayuga and Thomas at home.

The funeral was held on Monday with service in St. Paul's church in charge of the Rev. F. C. Walling, and interment in the adjoining cemetery. The Canadian Order of Foresters Nanticoke, to whom the deceased belonged, officiated at the graveside.

The pallbearers were: John Wodham, Gus Weil, F. M. Howson, Geo. Webb, Jos. Owen and J. H. Pess. The honorary pallbearers were: William Parkinson, E. T. Carter, F. W. Reicheld, William J. Hodges, J. S. Burwash, W. J. Elliott, Reg. Leatherdale and Geo. L. Miller.

The floral tributes were as follows: Business Men of Jarvis, wheel; Board of Trade, pillow; Family, Gates Ajar; Encampment and Odd Fellows, a wreath; Canadian Order of Foresters, wreath; Sisters of Reekah lodge, wreath; Sprays: Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. J. MASONS COMMEMORATE FIFTY-FOURTH ANNIVERSARY Mastery Sermon by Rev. F. C. Walling, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Greatly Appreciated by Brethren and Congregation—Rector Does Not Agree With Modernists Who Preach "No Life Beyond Grave"—Deplore, Increase in Crime and Falling Off in Church and Sunday School Attendance.

"Men who meet within the precincts of a Masonic lodge are the representative men of the community; men who are leaders in the progress of this municipality; men who champion the cause of home and loved ones; men who are leaders in the church—who take a leading part in the warfare of the Church of Christ; and I say to you men, in those immortal words that have rung true down the ages: 'Stand up for Jesus.'"

These were the closing words of a very masterly and highly instructive sermon by the Rev. F. C. Walling at St. Paul's church on Sunday morning last, at which service the Brethren of King Solomon Lodge, A. F. & A. M., No. 329, were present in commemoration of the 54th anniversary of the lodge. About 50 brethren were present, V. Wor. Bro. Ivan V. Holmes, Director of Ceremonies, taking charge.

There was also a large congregation in attendance. Such well-known hymns as "Holly, Holy, Helly," "From Ocean Unto Ocean," "Nearer My God To Thee," and "The Son of God Goes Forth to War," were appropriately chosen for this occasion. Hearty congregational singing, ably led by the choir of St. Paul's church, was a feature of this beautiful service.

Just before his sermon, the Rev. Mr. Walling bid the members of the Masonic order welcome. He had hoped, he had his stay in Jarvis continued, to have thrown in his lot with them. "I can assure you," he said, "of the great pleasure and privilege it gives me of welcoming to St. Paul's church this morning the members of King Solomon Lodge, of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons; it will do us good to have you here with us, and we hope that you will receive good from having come to worship with us."

Chasing for his text those stirring words written by the Apostle Paul to the Ephesians (Chapter 6:14, 15, 16) "Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked; and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the spirit, which is the word of God," the Rev. gentleman dwelt fully with every phrase of the text. He portrayed Paul in prison, bound day and night to his guards in order to forestall hope of escape. It was thus Paul beheld the completeness and the majesty of the Roman soldiers. They were all men of valor and he admired them greatly. Before they were admitted to the ranks of the defenders of the great Roman empire they had to prove themselves "men" and when they received their armor they were filled with pride in that they were then to be numbered with and take their place in the ranks of the conquering Caesar. And so he beheld these soldiers of the king, Paul wrote in the words of the text an exhortation to the Soldiers of Christ to be fully prepared and always ready to meet the foe fighting from within and using those weapons of the living God. The speaker said that Masonry was founded on the Old Book, and the Old Book was as true today as ever it was. He did not agree with those who would tell us that there was no God, no devil, and no life beyond the grave. He imploded his hearers to grasp the high, or things of life, not those low, degrading things that cannot bring comfort and happiness. He would have the congregation to keep ever in mind that great admonition "Keep holy the Sabbath Day" and when one is perhaps tempted to use the highways or go to the lakeside on the Sabbath, to remember that the Sabbath day was holy and not to neglect or absent themselves from the Master's House in search of some earthly pleasures that could never take the place of the house of worship to the sincere and devout Christian. He assured them that it was no easy task to be a Christian and fight the good fight. To the seeking of worldly pleasures the speaker placed the blame for the denuded attendance at church and Sunday school, and the constant present day increase in juvenile crime. Mr. Walling laid at the doors of those who had drifted away from the teachings of the church and had tried to make themselves believe that there was nothing in the great Bible teachings, which he declared most emphatically, was the only hope; and the truths and promises contained therein would never die.

The altar and chancel of the church were bedecked with a profusion of garlands, phlox, zinnias, etc., presenting an admirable setting in the beautiful edifice, for "St. Paul's" is just that.

Following the service a short session was held in the lodge room, in which a resolution was passed thanking Rev. F. C. Walling and the wardens of St. Paul's church for inviting the Brethren to worship; also to the choir and organist for their valuable services on this occasion. Visiting brethren from Hagersville, Simcoe and Port Dover were also thanked for participating in the service.

PLOWMEN OFFER GOOD PRIZES

DIRECTORS HOLD A MEETING AND ARRANGE PRIZE LIST

Over $400 will be offered in cash prizes at the first annual plowmen's match, to be held on Thursday, October 31st, under the auspices of the Holdmand County Plowmen's Association. The directors of this association are determined to encourage good plowing. In drawing up the prize list, they have kept in mind that plowing is the fundamental operation in Agriculture and the basis of good farming.

The directors' meeting was held in the office of the Agricultural Representative at Cayuga and was attended by representatives of practically every municipality in the county. In addition to spending considerable time on the prize list, a committee composed of the President, Secretary and Messrs. Wharton, Smith and Martin, was appointed to act in an executive capacity with powers to carry on the affairs of the organization in case of emergency. The Grounds Committee reported that they would be meeting in the near future but in the meantime it was suggested that the directors report to the secretary any fields which might be suitable for the match, or before September 1st. A departmental judge is also being asked for the match and the name of Mr. Jas. McLean of Richmond Hill, has been suggested to act in that capacity.

Boys' Classes Stressed

In addition to the regular classes, the directors were insistent in having plenty of classes for boys. There are two classes with Plain Plow in Sod, one open to boys under 21 years and Continued on Page 4

BRITISH TROOPS IN EMERGENCIES ARE QUICK TO ACT

The promptness with which the British army acts in emergencies is shown realistically in "Tommy Atkins," a photoplay made in London and Egypt, that has its premiere at the Capitol Theatre, Simcoe, on next Monday, September 2nd.

In the picture a British garrison is shown besieged in a desert fort by rebellious natives who are determined upon wiping out the small force defending the post. The garrison is surrounded and outnumbered but makes a gallant defense until there is only a handful of men left.

At this point a call is made for volunteers—a call for someone to go through the enemy lines and bring relief. Nearly every man in the place steps forward and offers to make the trip. One is chosen and is lowered over the fortifications.

Pursued by desert tribesmen, he makes his way through the enemy country and rides into the nearest garrison. Eagle sounds, troops rush into line and before the last notes of "Boots and Saddles" have died the relief force is off. Fighting every mile of the way, the plucky little band of men, led by the lone man, but a single man dead.

"Who is in command here," asks the commander of the relief force. A solitary figure rises from the wounded, steps forward, salutes and announces: "Tommy Atkins, sir!"
