THE WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

The World Day of Prayer will be observed on Friday, February 15th, at 2:30 p.m.

This has become one of the great days in the life of missionary women the world over. All the ladies of the community are cordially invited to join in this service, which will be held in Knox church.

The Ladies Society of the Jarvis continuation school are planning to have a public meeting in Peacock's hall on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 7.

LOCAL & GENERAL

Miss Grace Hunter left on Saturday to visit with relatives in Bradford.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller, of Pt. Dover, spent Sunday with relatives in Jarvis.

Miss Grace Walter, Toronto, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Walter.

Mrs. John Church has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gunton, in Simcoe.

Mr. Norman Balkwell is a patient in a Hamilton hospital and we understand that he is undergoing an operation today.

The Varenay W. I. will hold their February meeting at the home of Mrs. B. Lundy on Thursday, February 7th, at 2:30 p.m.

C. S. McCarter and Geo. L. Miller attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Berry, mother of Dr. R. N. Berry, in Caledonia on Monday.

The February meeting of the Jarvis Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Brown on Wednesday, February 13th, at 2:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Walter, Mr. John Walter Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. John G. Walter, spent Friday last with Mr. and Mrs. Bigger, of Mount Hope.

Vivit our store and see the new range of Spring Hats, featuring felt and straw, and straw, and flowered topt hats. Miss M. Harrison, The Ladieswear Store, Hagersville.

Miss Sarah Hind spent the week-end in Caledonia and attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Perry, mother of Dr. Berry, on Monday afternoon.

The Anglican Sunday school will hold a concert in the Nanticoke town hall on Tuesday evening, February 12th. A splendid program is being prepared. Come and spend a pleasant evening with the children.

At a largely attended meeting of the Norwich and Bookton congregation of the Presbyterian church in Canada, held on Monday of last week a hearty and unanimous call was extended to Rev. Dr. Marsh, formerly of Jarvis.

The Silver Star Rebekah social evening, which was to have been held on Feb. 8th, had to be postponed on account of conflicting dates and illness, and will be held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Walker on Friday evening, February 15th, instead.

A large number of the members of the Booster Club, with their husbands and friends, gathered at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Parsons on Friday evening last, to enjoy a social evening. Cards and dancing were indulged in, followed by an excellent luncheon.

A communication from Jarvis folk who are touring the States, we learn that a memorial is being chiseled in solid granite at Stone Mountain, 16 miles north from Atlanta, Ga. It is estimated that it will take 10 years to complete this monument, the cost of which will be approximately $5,000,000.

ADDRESS APPRECIATED

The Young People at the United church were greatly favored with a splendid address from the Rev. C. J. Lamb of Hagersville, on Monday evening. Mr. Lamb took as his subject the thought-provoking topic of "Time." He handled it in an able way, pointing out that we all have the same amount of time, but we are not always wise in our use of it.

Mr. Charles Davidson presided, and Miss Florence O'Donnell gave a piano solo, and Mr. Charles Davidson and Miss Mabel Johnson a vocal duet. There was a splendid attendance.

CHEAPSIDE

The Ladies Aid of the Baptist church met at the home of the Misses Stillwell on Tuesday afternoon last and have planned to hold a Valentine social on Friday evening, February 15th, at the home of Mrs. J. C. Hare.

We hope to hear how Mr. Valentine came into existence, also other interesting features on the program, besides the eating time which adds so much to every entertainment.

Miss Margaret Neenan was over Sunday in Hamilton with her relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Weaver visited their daughter in Buffalo recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McBurney and family spent Sunday in Hamilton with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McBurney.

Henry, Wilton Honey and Bud Priest were called on the Petit jury for the case of McConnell vs. the Michigan Central Railroad trial at the Ontario Court in Toronto on Monday.

The Canadian Club met in the hall on February 1st to organize for the year. The meeting was presided over by the president, who sang, after which the business of the past year was concluded. The finances showed a healthy condition, there being a balance of $10.00. Harvey Vokes performed the duties of chairman for the evening and Miss Snowdon as secretary presided. Officers for the year were elected as follows:

President—Carroll Lindsay

Vice-President—Allan Doughty

Secretary—Harvey Vokes

Treasurer—Jean Oakes

Members—Mr. and Mrs. John Vokes

A special committee was appointed to arrange a series of programs for the year, being: Jean Oakes, Corn Henning, Russell Hare and Carroll Lindsay.

The Eyeopener was edited and read by George Crosby, which proved very educational as well as humorous.

A dance will be held in the hall on February 8th, Rhode's orchestra of Dunnville, will furnish the music. The proceeds will be donated to the Welch Miners' Relief fund.

The next meeting will be held on February 22nd and the program will be in the hands of Blanche Snowden, Allan Doughty and Milton Henning.

Wedding bells soon—Watch for the valentine!
