CREAMERY MONOXIDE

Fitz has been very busy the last few days supervising Willie in the haying.

Thorne received a nasty cut which removed a considerable portion of his thumb nail. But due to the first aid rendered by our chiroprapist, he is progressing nicely.

Jim is in the seventh heaven of Happiness working around the boilers these warm days.

If you have noticed anything insipid in Muriel's actions these past few days the new truck driver from Caledonia is the cause of it all.

Linty's generosity was appreciated the other day when he treated the staff to some refreshing pop.

Bob says beefsteak is immense, but that veal, oh, boy!

It is reported that Fitz has purchased the automobile de luxe formerly owned by Brad McMillan.

The person or persons taking such a keen interest in nature's product, commonly known as timothy, which was overhanging the sidewalk in front of the factory, will now find that these many provoking grasses have been entirely removed, making progress more pleasant for the residents of the east end. Now, Fitz is the person who took so much time cleaning up this debris; but it would be

KENWOOD BLANKETS

Are More Than Bed Coverings

Comfort, beauty and usefulness are most effectively combined in these soft, warm, lovely PURE WOOL BLANKETS.

Of choice selected long fibre wool in a weave and finish that give unusual comfort. The fleecy, luxurious nap is a part of the fabric—does not wash away. These blankets are pre-shrunk to retain shape and size when washed.

There is an unusual amount of long wear woven into KENWOOD Blankets, and they will be found very economical.

There is a range of colors and patterns that affords a selection to harmonize with any decorative motif. Size 72x84 for double and 60x84 for single or twin beds.

Ends are bound with lustrous 3-inch satin ribbon. Be sure to see our exhibition of KENWOOD Pure Wool BLANKETS.
