The Erratic Mr. Mart I had to laugh At old man Mart; He lost his head Then lost his heart.

The normal way, I've heard it said, Is to lose one's heart And then one's head.

Grandmother—"Well, dear, have you done your good deed to-day?"

A cable message can go around the world in eight minutes. But of course gossip is much cheaper.

He—"Wouldn't you like to hear me sing 'Because I Love You'?"

Maisies—"The jury awarded me five thousand dollars damages from that fellow who kissed me."

Mamie—"Gee! that's swell."

Maisie—"But he hasn't got the five thousand dollars and nobody else has offered me a kiss."

The height of something or other is getting out on the wrong side of a lower berth in a Pullman.

Mine Too I call my girl Wrigley's because she is always after meals.

There is no reason why women can't succeed in business. A woman who can get the rolls and the gravy and the roast and the potatoes and the coffee all on the table steaming hot at the same time and then get all the family there too, can succeed in anything.

Now, I want some humane moth-balls; something that won't harm the moths but will just make them lose their appetites.

A thing done right to-day means less trouble to-morrow.

Nothing For Murphys "Anything for the Murphys?" inquired a freckle-faced girl, putting her head in at the postoffice door.

"No, nothing," replied the clerk. "Anything for Jane Murphy?" pursued the girl.

"No."

"Anything for Bob Murphy?"

"Nothing, I tell you."

"Anything for Biddy Murphy?"

"No, nor for Pat Murphy nor Dennis Murphy, nor for Pete Murphy, nor Paul Murphy, nor for any of the Murphys, individually, jointly or severally."

The girl regarded the clerk for a moment in open-mouthed astonishment.

"Well, she said at last, 'have you anything for Clarence Murphy?'"

Jones—"Do your daughters live at home?"

Mrs. Smith—"My, no! They are not married yet."

He made no enemy here below. For him death held no terror; And now he's where the "Good Fellows" go.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

"I hope," said one wife to another, "that you don't nag your husband."

"Only when he is beating the carpets," said the second one. "When he is thoroughly irritated he makes a much better job of it."

The thing that looks dangerous about the new-fangled underwear for men, in all the pretty patterns, is that someone's apt to get the fool idea it will take the place of pants.

Don't expect to be taken for a genius if you're only a common crank.

Making the Railway Beautiful

1.—John Caesar, pioneer of Canadian Pacific Station Gardens. 2.—First Canadian Pacific Station Garden at Markdale, Ont., 1881.

John Caesar, like his great prototype, "same, saw and conquered." When he first started as station agent at Markdale, Ont., back in 1881, it was just a station with the rails running past it. He decided that passengers should sit up and take notice when they passed through his territory...

RED HOT JULY DAYS HARD ON THE BABY

July—the month of oppressive heat, red-hot days and sweating nights; is extremely hard on little ones. Diarrhoea, dysentery, colic and cholera infantum carry off thousands of precious little lives every summer.

The Tariff Policeman

The traffic policeman is usually associated in our minds with sharp rebukes for unknown offences or a summons to court for infringement of traffic regulations. That he may be, after all, a most human and humane individual, is confirmed by an incident which the writer recently witnessed.

But What Is That?

The weeds are rank. The grass uncult. The vines swing wild. The door is shut.

The clock has stopped. Stark is the bed. The fire's out. My love is dead—

But what is that? In here! Out there— Was that the wind Along the stair?

Was that a hand That stirred the curtain? Was that a laugh? I am not certain—

Love! Are you there? Or is it only That I am mad As well as lonely? —Elizabeth Hollister Frost in the London Spectator.

The French Debt to the U.S.A.

Philadelphia Ledger: It is reasonably certain that the people of this country have no wish to be hard upon France. Indeed, the terms of the Mellon-Berenson agreement, which in effect canceled the principal of the French debt and arranged for the payment of the interest alone, show unmistakable generosity. But it is now more than three years since that agreement was made, and though its obligations have been met regularly by the French Government, it has not yet been ratified. Speeches like M. Henri Franklin Bouillon's, leader of the National Union group in the French Chamber, who spoke of deliberating with a knife at our throats, make interesting reading, but they are of assistance neither to his own Government nor to this one in reaching a final settlement of the debt question.

The Disappearing Indian Quebec (Evenment Cons): In the greater part of the old hunting-grounds of the natives of the country, there barely remain a few thousand descendants of a human family which lacked neither intelligence nor nobility. Outside British Columbia, and the least hospitable parts of the Province of Quebec, there are no longer any forests where the proud nations who have been despoiled and humiliated can taste the illusion of their lost liberty. And it is the representatives of the most generous nations of the white race who have accomplished this inhuman work. Can we, after this warning, blame the yellow races for rebelling against European penetration? Men are no whit different from fish or ants. Instead of dominating by intelligence and kindness, the survival of the fittest is ensured by war, strategy, exploitation, fraud and destruction.
