VOKES-JOHNSON

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Wesley United church, Jarvis on Saturday, June 15th, when Agnes Marguerite Johnson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson, became the bride of Charles Harvey Vokes, second son of Mr. and Mrs. David Vokes of Nanticoke, Ont.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She looked very charming in a white satin-faced canon dress with a wedding veil in cap effect trimmed with orange blossom. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies. The bridesmaid, Miss Ida Vokes, sister of the groom, wore a pretty dress of green georgette and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mr. Harold Johnson, brother of the bride, supported the groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. E. Deeth, minister of Wesley United church in the presence of the guests and many friends of the contracting parties. Miss Mabel Johnson, sister of the bride, played the wedding march and also played softly throughout the ceremony.

The happy couple repaired to the home of the bride's parents where a reception was held, after which a wedding luncheon was served. About 80 guests were present and the bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. The bridal couple left for Hamilton and points East and North amid the enthusiastic congratulations of their many friends.

WEBB REUNION

A very enjoyable day was spent at Lakeview Lodge, Cheapside, on Saturday, June 8, when about 110 relatives gathered to celebrate the sixth annual reunion of the Webb family. There were 23 families present from Guelph, Georgetown, Ospringe, Hamilton, Dunnville, Caledonia, Hagersville, Jarvis, Nanticoke and Port Dover.

After a sumptuous dinner a short business meeting was held. William Webb was re-elected President and Mrs. V. Meade, Secretary-Treasurer. It was decided to hold the affair at the same place the second Saturday in June this coming year.

The events of the afternoon were a great success, the various sports being keenly enjoyed by all. After partaking of a hearty supper the happy meeting was brought to a close.

MRS. D. COLUMBUS

At the home of her son, Isaac Columbus, on Tuesday, June 11th there passed the soul of Mrs. D. Columbus, wife of the late Daniel Columbus, who predeceased her two years ago. Being in poor health for some years the call which brought her life to a sudden close came unexpected but it did not find her unprepared. She was in her 70th year and was a life long resident of Walpole. Deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. McCarthy and is survived by three brothers: Daniel of Pennsylvania; James and Neal of Jarvis; one sister, Mrs. M. J. Poole of Toronto; five sons: Isaac, Charles, Joseph, Daniel and Wilfrid of Jarvis. The sixth son, Christopher, died an infant. Two daughters, Mrs. E. Blake of Port Dover and Mrs. J. L. Newman of Niagara Falls, N. Y. Seven grandsons and six granddaughters. The funeral took place at St. Ane's church, Walpole, on Thursday, June 13th, at 10:30 where requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Harris.

Hotel Longfellow Built

This hotel, the New Pines at Digby, N.S., was built by Longfellow. Not, however, that he saw it, thought about it or even dreamed or imagined it. What he did do towards it was render immortal the Land of Evangeline, the beautiful Annapolis Valley of which Digby is the gateway, and so create a tourist lure.

The New Pines is being built by the Dominion Atlantic Railway to further aid in the development of tourist traffic in the Maritimes and, with the exception of the outdoor swimming pool, the lines for which were borrowed from those at Banff and Lake Louise, it is a handsome building of early English type of architecture. The opening of the Pines will shortly precede a three day festival at Annapolis Royal in commemoration of the three-hundredth anniversary of the arrival there of Sir William Alexander's Scottish colonists under the charter of New Scotland granted by King James I.
