Scotch City Has Pine Women's Club

Aberdeen, Scotland-The wemen of berdeen seem to have been particularly successful in their achievements in 1928, particularly the Aberdeen Business Women's Club. This club is unique in Great Britain, outside of London, and deserves the admiration it has aroused in other Scottish cities. Its example may well be followed by Aberdeen's neighbors, as the need is great. Miss Bet-tina Clark, the warden of the club, welcomed all inquiries, and Miss B. Walker, who was its founder, was enthusiastic over its possibilities.

It was felt, Miss Clark said, that Aberdeen had .nany young business women who needed a social center and residential club, but the difficulty was how to get it financed. Help has flowed in from all sorts of quarters. but the chief support came from the Y.W.C.A., which generously supplied the initial sum of £2000 at a small rate of interest. Two beautiful old houses in one of the best squares in the city were purchased, and on these there is a bond of another £2000. Over 700 business women have joined, which gives the club £350 in subscriptions alone. * The letting of their beautiful dance hall also is a source of income, and altogether the finances of the club are in a most satisfactory way. The girls, Miss Clark said, day has never been excelled. were keen on having the club tree, and are constantly devising new ways splendid Aberdonian trait, as the visi-

A few days ago a lady went into the glove sdepartment of a large store and askd for a pair of gentleman's gloves. When shown a pair, priced half a guinea, she said, "Oh no: 1 want a good pair. They're for my fiance." She left with a pair costing two guineas. About half an hour later another lady came in and asked for a pair of gentleman's gloves. This time the saleswoman produced the twoguinea gloves first. "What! two guineas!" said the prospective purchaser. "No, no; I want something about five shillings. They're for my
