CHESAPEIDE

Miss Coffey, missionary to the Indians from Pennsylvania, who has stayed one term in India among the people there, gave a very interesting account of the work on Wednesday evening last at the home of Rev. Earl Sider at a missionary meeting which was held there.

Rev. Neill attended the Presbytery on Tuesday last.

Miss Grace Shepherd, of Bertie, was home over the week-end.

Mrs. J. Kelley, of Toronto, is visiting her people in the community at the present time.

Miss E. McKenzie and mother, of Kincardine, have been visiting at Mr.
Britton's and Mrs. Meehan's recently.

Mrs. G. McBurney entertained friends from Brantford on Thursday last.

Mrs. Wm. Mattice spent a day last week in Hamilton with her relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Atkinson, of Buffalo, have been visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Waterbury, recently.

Mrs. F. Smelser, of Selkirk, visited one day last week, the Misses Kole and Martha Stillyell's.

DISTRICT DEPUTY (Continued from Page 1)

in the realization of the great task that are still set before us." Continuing onward, Bro. Parsons referred to the official visit of Rt. W. Bro.
Stillman, when he held office as D.D.
G.M. and Mr. Parsons expressed regret that he was not able to be on hand to greet the D.D.G.M. when he came to Jarvis at that time.

And so on down to the present time.
The District had been graced with D.
S. G. M. who appreciated to the full the high honor that goes hand in hand with election to the exalted rank of the representative of the Grand Master, and the present en-cumbent of that office, Rt. W. Bro.
T. J. Kirkby, was, too, a man of outstanding ability, who brought honor to himself, to his lodge and to the whole district by the manner in which he had carried out his onerous duties.
He was a man of sterling character, and from his address in the lodge-room it was evident that he had a grasp on the affairs of Brant District and was proving himself a worthy representative of the Grand Master whom we all love and admire.
The speaker thanked the D.D.G.M.
for his kindly remarks in the lodge, and he assured him that everyone present appreciated what he said and his kindly way of saying it. Mr. Parsons also expressed the keen delight of the officers and members of King Solomon Lodge in having with them such a representative number of visitors from Port Dover, Simcoe, Hagersville, etc.

Rt. W. Bro. Stillman, P.D.D.G.M., in a few well chosen words expressed his delight at once again visiting King Solomon Lodge and renewing former friendships. He also gave the brethren an exemplification of what he considered the ideal Freemason, and his "lecture"—for it was really nothing short of that—was followed with rapt attention from start to finish. It was, perhaps, the outstanding address of an evening of exceptionally fine addresses, and Bro. Still-man's high ideal for the 100% Mason will not soon be forgotten, and it is safe to say, wherever men congregate this address will be the leading topic of discussion for a long, long time.

Rt. W. Bro. James E. Ryerson, P.
D.D.G.M., was always glad of an opportunity to return to Jarvis and to fraternize with the brethren of King Solomon Lodge. He also left his hearers with a few thoughts to ponder over, and, as anyone who knows him would expect, Bro. Ryerson also threaded into his talk a few specially selected stories that were well received.

W. Bro. Roy Perrison, the District Secretary, contributed a few words and a happy evening closed with Auld Lang Syne and the National Anthem, which were preceded by a hearty vote of thanks to visiting brethren, moved by Rt. W. Bro. Parsons and seconded by W. Bro. Geo. L. Miller.
