RENTON

Mr. M. Porter is taking down his barn and building it larger at time of writing.

Very dry and no rain in sight. Your old Scribe brought in an egg laid yesterday. It was so dry the shell was cracked. All chicken raisers should see that the hens have plenty of water. Who can beat that, Mr. Editor?

Note—Since Prohibition in the U. S., the chicken raisers in Southern California are forced to feed their hens cracked ice to keep them from laying hard-boiled eggs. Editor.

The heavy frosts of last week killed the tomatoes, corn and potatoes, in fact, nearly everything that was green.

Mrs. Ira Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fisher, of Toronto, were week-end guests at East Lynn farm with Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Secord. They all went to Houghton sand hills and Turkey Point on Sunday.

Mrs. Carrie Ferris, of Normandale, returned home on Sunday last after visiting a week with her brother, Ma'tland Tisdale and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Almas and Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Secord of Hamilton, spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. D. Secord at East Lynn farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Andrews and Clarence, attended the wedding of Miss Grace Mordue and Mr. Frank Eames at Mount Pleasant.

Misses Mildred and Mary Tisdale spent Saturday last in Brantford.

Mrs. Harvey M. Dagg and Mrs. W. A. Corlis, of Toronto, and Mrs. J. W. Moe, of Simcoe, and Mrs. Jonathan Austin of Lynn Valley, were the guests of Mrs. Percy L. Potts on Friday of last week.
