BABY'S OWN TABLETS
A HELP TO MOTHERS

There is no other medicine of as great a help to young mothers as Baby's Own Tablets. These Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels; sweeten the stomach; correct constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and make the cutting of teeth painless.

Mothers who keep a box of the Tablets in the house always feel safe from the sudden attacks of illness that seize their little ones. If baby's Own Tablets are given on the first sign of illness the baby will soon be right again. Concerning the Tablets Mrs. B. G. Carver, Lyndale, P.E.I., writes: "I always keep Baby's Own Tablets in the house and find them a wonderful help in keeping my baby well."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Agreement at Last

Capetown Argus: Mr. Havenga's announcement that the Union has achieved a Customs Agreement with the two Rhodesias will be welcomed with profound relief on all sides. Time was when the Nationalist Party resented the bare idea of Rhodesia joining the Union. Only seven years ago General Smuts was attacked with the utmost violence for daring so much as to offer terms which might lead to such a result. Mr. Havenga's statement marks the definite abandonment of that little South Africa attitude, and perhaps we may hope that the effect of the new orientation will not be lost in the north. Rhodesians will at any rate know henceforth that any approaches they feel able to make will be welcomed by all parties in the Union and not merely by one.

NO MORE STOMACH TROUBLE

"No more stomach trouble. Can eat anything," writes Mrs. E. White. "Throat and any indigestion, heartburn, flatulence, and all the 'fruit-a-tives'. Constipation, sick headaches and overeating. Now, heart quiet, sound sleep, no indigestion, no flatulence, no heartburn, no sick headaches. Get 'Fruit-a-tives' from drug store today."

About two hours after eating many people suffer from sour stomachs. They call it indigestion. It means that the stomach nerves have been over-stimulated. There is excess acid. The way to correct it is with an alkali, which neutralizes many times its volume in acid.

The right way is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia—just a tasteless dose in water. It is pleasant, efficient and

Austria to Build
Scenic Highways
in Work Program

Vienna—The Austrian Economic Council, representative of all branches of trade, industry, commerce and agriculture, recently established by the Government to advise regarding the best means of overcoming the present economic crisis, has put forward a number of definite schemes of development which the Chancellor, Dr. Johann Schober, declares will be acted on forthwith.

To alleviate unemployment several new important roads will be built. One of these is through the Wachau, along the Danube from Melk to Krems, which is one of the favorite tourist resorts in lower Austria. Another new route is from Graz to Klagenfurt, known as the Packerstrasse, which will be an important link between Italy and Hungary.

The third is known as Glaciersstrasse along the slopes of Austria's highest mountain in Salzkammergut which will considerably reduce the distance for automobiles between Bavaria and north Italy and open up a scenic area of unusual attractiveness. Further development of waterpower plants in the "Hohe Tauern" mountains in Salzkammergut and west Tyrol are planned. When these works are completed Austria will have large stores of electrical power for export, an item which it is hoped will compensate in its trade balance for the coal it lacks. The large sums required for these schemes must come principally from the new international loan Austria expects to float soon.

Clover and Honey Maker

Clover and honey have always been intimately associated and with good reason. Figures supplied by the Lennoxville Experimental Station of the Dominion Department of Agriculture show that clover leads as a source of nectar supplying the honey fruit during the year for 40 days; fruit blooms supply nectar 28 days of the year, the dandelion for 23 days, the raspberry and goldenrod each for 20 days, with pussy willow starting the season with a 13 day supply.

Why the World Must
Abandon Gold Coin

"Lloyd's Bank Monthly Review" publishes a new departure this month by publishing a contribution by a well-known economist and announcing his intention of doing so month by month. Professor Gustav Cassel writes on "The Functions of Central Banks."

"Ever since the war a growing scarcity of gold has threatened the world with the consequence of a continuous lowering of commodity prices," says Professor Gustav Cassel. "resulting in a general economic depression. The amount of new gold required to be provided each year for the purchasing power of gold to be maintained at a constant level increases in proportion to the rapid economic progress of the world, whereas an already insufficient production is expected to be reduced very considerably during the next two decades. The only conceivable means of preventing this calamity is a systematic reduction of the monetary demand for gold."

"The gold-economizing policy that I have advocated ever since 1920 contains two factors. Firstly, the use of gold coins as a circulating medium should be abandoned. The introduction of the new British currency note redeemable in gold coins, and India's abandonment of the idea of putting gold coins into circulation are the chief features that mark the success of this policy. The second measure for securing economy in the use of gold consists in a reduction of the central banks' requirements of gold reserves. The Genoa Conference in 1922 recommended the co-operation of the central banks for this purpose and a certain concentration of gold reserves in some leading financial centres. Under the leadership of the Bank of England, this policy has undeniably attained very valuable results, and it seems quite certain that without such deliberate efforts the present situation would have proved very much more troublesome."

"Many people do not like to have a managed currency." The fancy that it should be possible for the world to return to a "natural state of things," where the value of gold was determined by general market conditions and not subjected to the influence of any deliberate policy. People also oppose the idea of co-operation with other central banks, believing that national independence in monetary policy could be secured by isolated action.

"These ideas are, however, hopelessly irreconcilable with present realities. The gold policy of the leading countries has a very material influence on the value of gold, and once this fact is recognized this value will always in some way be 'managed.' The only question is whether it shall be managed in a rational or an irrational way. A rational management is possible only under an enlightened restriction of the monetary demand for gold."

"During the past year the stability of the world's price level has also been threatened by the eagerness of some central banks to increase their gold reserves. The Bank of France has accumulated a gold reserve far beyond any sum for which it could under any conceivable circumstances have a practical need. By such action the world's level of commodity prices will be forced down."

"The international gold market is, at the same time, exposed to incalculable claims arising out of the enormous foreign exchange holdings that certain central banks, and particularly the Bank of France, have accumulated. It is, no doubt, a sound policy for a central bank to keep a certain reserve of exchange on leading financial centre, but these reserves should never exceed what is practically needed to meet the demands that may arise."

"If they are larger they become a menace to international finance and to the stability of the world's price level. It is urgently to be desired that a substantial reduction of the present holdings of foreign exchange should take place. Countries with a large surplus in their balance of payments should return as soon as possible to the old custom of regularly investing such surpluses in long-term investments abroad. For Paris this is, of course, the true way of recovering its old position as an important financial centre of the world."

"Nevertheless, it is certain that a better insight into the duties of central banks and a fuller acknowledgment of their true responsibility would have, to a great extent, prevented the economic depression which we are now witnessing and which we shall endeavor in vain to overcome until we secure for the world the fundamental conditions of stable money."

DO YOU FEAR
A HEARTY MEAL?

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Will Tone Up Your Stomach Making
Mealtime a Pleasure

Are you afraid of meat-time? Does eating distress you? Would you rather go without food? That is the condition of many due entirely to indigestion. There can be no perfect digestion—hence no enjoyment of meat-time—unless you have rich, red blood. This pure blood is necessary to tone up your stomach and make it capable of properly digesting the food.

Many so-called stomach remedies merely try to digest your food for you. That is a mistake—nature should do it. Tonic results are bound to follow. Tonic up your stomach by driving out the poisons that are in the blood. Make new rich blood and your appetite and digestion will soon be normal—meals will once more be a pleasure.

The one sure medicine to enrich the blood, restore strength and banish stomach trouble and indigestion is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Concerning them Mrs. Wm. T. Thompson, Brussels, Ont., says:—"For years I suffered with indigestion, headaches and dizzy spells. I tried a great many so-called remedies without relief. As a farmer's wife, with three little girls, it was almost impossible to be idle and I just dragged myself through my work. I suffered so I was actually afraid of meal time. A friend advised the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and although I had lost faith in ever being well again I purchased a supply and began taking them. Gradually the dizziness and headaches left me. My appetite improved and soon I was able to enjoy my meals. I gained in weight and my health in general is better than it has been for years. I feel I owe much to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for they relieved me of all my misery."

You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

X-Ray Cures Weak Minds

Vienna.—Wolfgang Wiesner, well known physician here, said that he had discovered an X-ray treatment by which mentally defective children could be made to develop normal intelligence. He said that after a single X-ray treatment a remarkable increase in intelligence had been observed in children at an institute for imbeciles.

This had increased with further treatment until normality was reached.

Spring Cleaning of Car
Before Summer Trips

After short and slow running under winter conditions a thorough checkup of the car is advisable at this time in order to guarantee a spring and summer of carefree operation.

Assuming that the car has come through a hard winter's service in fairly good mechanical shape the service operation should proceed in this order:

First, clean the engine, chassis and body thoroughly.

Clean and grease steering gear; check front wheel alignment, after adjusting the wheel bearings and filling the hub caps with fresh grease; check that the nuts holding the rear wheels to the axle are tight and fastened with a cotter pin.

Put a couple of handfuls of salt soda in the radiator and run the car for a few miles until it is well warmed up. The soda cleans out the scale and rust in the radiator while the borax will loosen and wash out the old oil in the transmission and differential.

Clean the breaker points in the distributor and set them to their proper opening. Clean the spark plugs. To clean spark plugs simply fill the lower part of the plug with alcohol and allow to stand for a few seconds, take a piece of wire covered with one thickness of cloth and rub the carbon from the insulating then wipe clean and dry thoroughly before replacing in the engine. Clean sparking points with every cloth or a knife.

If plugs are badly sooted or points worn to any degree install a new set.

Now It's Apple Sauce

"What we can't sell we can" will soon be the slogan of the apple grower. The Dominion Department of Agriculture is now developing ways and means of extending the market for apples and apple products. Much has been done by grading, dehydration has been developed, and there is a good trade in the canned apple; now it's apple sauce. Fresh from the orchard, cooked, sweetened and flavored with spice ready for the flaky crust, it comes in cans. Already it finds favor with the pie and baking trade and the housewife will find it handy.
