Warden's Banquet.

The Warden's Annual Banquet was held at the Campbell House, Cayuga, on Thursday evening last. About seventy five sat down to the very fine dinner, with Mr. Richard Sherk, the Warden, as host.

The Cayuga High School Orchestra supplied the music most acceptably. Mr. A. M. Carthew, the manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, led the community singing, and Harrison Arrell, K.C., County Solicitor, acted as toastmaster.

Professor Graham of the Ontario Agricultural College was the chief speaker of the evening and gave a very interesting and instructive address. The principal though running through his address was that most men do not think enough. He said only one man out of ten knew what work to do and how to do it without being told and that this applied to farmers as well as to those engaged in industrial work. He said, however, that about one half of the other nine farmers married a wife who was capable of managing the farm as well as her husband and that the result was that about one farmer out of five managed his farm as it should be managed to get the most out of it.

Mr. Oakes, the Warden of the county of Lincoln, and Mr. Cline, chairman of the Finance Committee of the county of Welland brought greetings respectively from their respective counties.

The following was the toast list:
The King—God Save the King.

Our Country—Proposed by B. E. French, reply by Mr. C. Senn, M.P. and Dr. R. N. Berry, M.P.P.

County of Haldimand—Proposed by Geo. L. Miller, reply by Daniel Glenn and Archie McDonald.

Bench and Bar—Proposed by J. L. Mitchener, reply by Judge Hopkins, Col. J. C. Wessie and W. T. Robb, K.C.

Agriculture—Proposed by Frank Lailaw, reply by Gordon Skinner.

The Guests—Proposed by R. S. Colner, K. C., reply by Mr. Cline, chairman of Finance committee of County of Welland, Mr. Oakes, Warden of the County of Lincoln, W. A. Fry, J. L. McInnes, Elias Hoover.

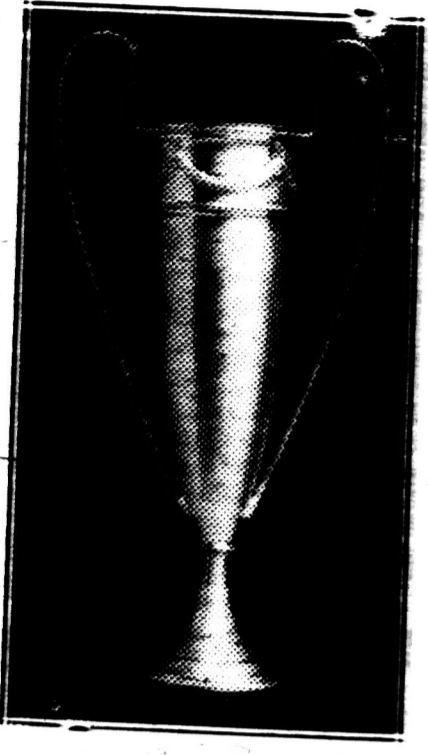

Our Host—Proposed by Thos. Camelford, reply by Richard Sherk.

After the toast list had been disposed of, Thomas Jepson, on behalf of the members and officials of the County Council, presented the Warden with a gold watch and chain, suitably engraved.

During the evening many flattering remarks were made as to the very capable, efficient and impartial manner in which the Warden had discharged his duties during the past year.

One of the most successful gatherings of this kind was brought to a close by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" led by Geo. L. Miller of Jarvis.

REEVE AGAIN HIGH MAN.

The above cut of our worthy reeve and indavagatable worker in the interests of Jarvis and vicinity shows a true likeness of a man, whom to know is to respect.

Mr. Lea Marshall began his career in the dairy business at the cheese factory established just west of the village by the late Walter C. Parsons and later successfully conducted by the present J. J. Parsons. This was away back about 1900 when drawing milk over a clay road was real business, and the man who had the courage to haul milk in those days, thru mud and rain, six days a week, and put up with the daily complaints of the producer, surely deserved a place in "Who's Who", or a memorial in the "Hall of Fame". But still more dismal was the lot of the man who made this product of the farm into a real selling commodity. Twice a week when the pay cheques were issued, he had about half the patrons lodging complaints about "low test" and "short weight. Lea Marshall passed successfully through this trying period, and after serving a few years as a curd mixer, he decided to attend the Dairy School at Guelph, and at the end of his tuition graduated with first-class honors, as a fully qualified buttermaker. Shortly after graduation he acquired what was known as the Black Creek Cheese and Butter factory, previously owned and operated by J. J. Parsons in connection with his Jarvis factory. This was when Lea's real battle started, but his untiring efforts were finally rewarded by having worked up a good business, when the officials of the then prosperous Caledonia Dairy decided to branch out, and erecting a modern plant in Jarvis. When this in was finally settled they completed a deal with Mr. Marshall for his Black Creek plant and offered him a position with the new company as manager. This he accepted, and it can be said of the officials of the Caledonia Dairy, that they knew how to choose an efficient manager. When the plant started to operate in 1924, with Lea Marshall as manager, they employed eight hands in the whole outfit and handled about four million pounds of milk and two hundred thousand pounds of cream. To-day, they employ twenty two hands and during the past year have handled 11,750,000 lbs. of milk and cream, which has been manufactured into butter, cottage cheese and casein, besides shipping daily to many points in Ontario, great quantities of whole milk and cream. It is estimated that this plant has paid to the milk producers of this community since they began operations, over $1,500,000.00, which means much to the farmers of this district. The Hamilton Dairies, Limited, who now control this establishment, deserve every consideration for maintaining in this neighborhood an institution that means so much to the farmers and so long as they can retain the services of the present manager, Mr. Lea Marshall, their continued success will be assured.

The cup as shown above, was won this year by Mr. Marshall, presented by the Canadian Creamery Association of Ontario to him at their convention in Toronto last week as first prize for butter having the lowest yeast and mold count of all samples submitted for the past six months, he also won second prize for quality of butter sampled from each creamery.

OBITUARY

MARGARET CHURCH

At the home of her sister, Mrs. Dellar, on Tuesday, December 9th, Margaret Church, relict of the late Samuel Glasfield passed away very suddenly in her 74th year. The immediate cause of death being acute indigestion.

The late Mrs. Glasfield was the youngest daughter of the late John and Maria Church, and was married about fifty-three years ago to Samuel Glasfield, who predeceased her some twenty years ago. She leaves to mourn her passing five daughters, who are all married, living in the United States. Also one sister, Mrs. Dellar and one brother, John Church, both of the village of Jarvis.

After a service at the house, conducted by the Rev. P. E. Deeth, the remains were forwarded to Ypsilanti, Michigan for interment.

Amateur Night

Mr. Reg. Ion, who in the hard times of 1916-18, between the 'rest camp' and the 'front line' entertained the boys from "over here" and who took many a whallop on the jaw, just to hear the boys say, "Say friend, I am glad I am looking on," and who always got up smiling and looking for more, is putting on a real show on Saturday night, December 13th, at 8.30 p.m.

This is a real amateur night and Mr. Ion is looking for recruits that will help him in making this entertainment a real success. Among the many aspirants to offer their powers are:—150 lbs.: Bulldog Wood, vs. Arizona Neak, two rounds. 140 lb. Milldog Fitzgerald vs. Texas Faulkner, two rounds, and many others too numerous to mention.

Through the generosity of Mr. Herb Peacock who has donated the hall for these bouts, many thanks are due, and it is hoped that many will turn out and try their luck and skill at a little friendly bout. The admission is FREE and Jack Kennedy will supply the music. The medical profession, Leatherdale and Jones will be there and all the Red Cross nurses to supply the necessary "first aid."

Following this amateur night, there will be real matched bouts in the near future.

Reg. Ion, Official Referee.

The Jarvis W. I. are sending a box of fruit, jam, jellies etc. to the Simcoe Hospital. Anyone wishing to donate leave at Mrs. R. A. McCarter not later than Tuesday, Dec. 16th.

SENT TO PENITENTIARY.

Simcoe, Dec. 8.—Wallace Martin, 23-year-old Indian, who broke from the Norfolk county jail Friday, received a sentence of two years in the Portsmouth Penitentiary to-day. Martin described how he had concealed five hack-saw blades in his socks and carried them with him into the jail here. The saws, he said, had been bought in Buffalo prior to his arrest there. He gave a detailed account of how he had sawed through two locks in the local jail, borrowed a ladder from the tool house, and scaled the walls to freedom. Martin was to have been transferred to the reformatory on the day of his escape to serve a two year sentence. As it now stands, he has two years less one day determinate and fifteen months indeterminate at the reformatory before starting upon today's two years' sentence in Kingston. Sentence was imposed by Police Magistrate R. E. Gunton, W. E. Kelly, K.C., appearing for the Crown.

Y.P.A. Meeting.

The Young Peoples Association of Knox Presbyterian church was held on Friday evening December 5th and was well attended. The president, Mr. John Brown was in the chair. The lesson was read by Evan Bingleman. Prayer was offered by the pastor. The topic was given by Miss F. MacKenzie who dealt very effectively with the history and work of the Canadian poetess, Pauline Johnson, after which an interesting discussion took place in which several took part. The meeting closed with the benediction.

Wedding Bells.

SYMES-EDWARDS

The home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Edwards was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, December 6th, when their daughter, Lily, was united in marriage to Mr. David Symes of Rockford. At the appointed hour the bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of wedding music rendered by Miss Minnie Edwards and took position beneath an evergreen arch, where the Rev. A. S. Truethood of Simcoe read the beautiful marriage service of the United Church of Canada. The bride was dressed in white crepe-de-chine and carried American beauty roses.

The couple were attended by Miss Fanny Edwards, bridesmaid, Mr. A. Wharron, groomsmen, Dorothy Edwards, flower-girl, Nelson Edwards, ring-bearer, and Mr. G. Edwards, the bride's father who gave the bride in marriage.

The groom's gifts were, to the bride, a gold wrist watch, to the bride's maid, a brilliant necklace, to the groomsmen, a pair of gold cuff links, to the organist, a manicure set, to the ringbearer a pair of cufflinks, and to the flower girl a necklace.

A bountiful dinner was served and the usual toast proposed and responded to. Many congratulations are tendered the couple for a long happy married life.

The Sanduski branch of the W. I. held a very pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. Cecil Werner on December 4th. The meeting was opened in regular form with the President in the chair. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. A letter from the Navy League was read and $6.00 voted for same. It was decided to hold the January meeting in the form of a social at the Sanduski school house on January 9th.

Instead of the usual Christmas exchange of gifts, a collection was taken for a parcel for a child in the children's aid society, $3.42 being collected.

The program consisted of the usual community singing, a splendid Christmas paper by Mrs. W. Mattice, entitled, "Giving, not getting makes life richer." An excellent report of the Hamilton Convention by Miss Bell Macdonald. It was unanimously voted to send a shower of Christmas Cards to Mrs. Westerby, at the Sanitorium, Hamilton. The meeting closed in regular form after which lunch was served, and a vote of thanks tendered the lunch committee and Mrs. Werner for her kind hospitality. Roll call found 30 present, collection, 90c.

In a letter of thanks from Mrs. Graham of Aird's Cottage, Mossdale Kirkcubrightshire, Scotland, she says in part: "I do not know how to thank you for the friends for all they have done for me. I am afraid they have gone to a lot of trouble, but we are happy to think that the grave of our boy (Willie Graham) has a stone up. We were surprised to learn of such a lot of Scotch people in Port Dover.

"May God bless you all." The above Willie Graham referred to was killed on the Dover-Jarvis Highway by being struck by an auto and at the time of the accident was an employee of Mr. Neil Elliott, south of the village.

DEATH CALLS TRUSTEE OF ONONDAGA SECRETS

Esther Buck to be Buried at Brantford with Tribal Rites.

Brantford—Way back before written history in North America the Iroquois carefully guarded the secret remedies of their nation, the "Ge-No-Dah," to which believers of the ancient tribal faith attached strange and powerful healing properties, provided the administration was attended by the proper ceremonies. In recent days, on the Six Nations Reserve, the old tribal Council entrusted these carefully preserved secrets to Esther Buck, daughter of Chief John Buck, who, in an hereditary Council as an Onondaga, was the firekeeper of the Council and was one of the most trusted members of the tribes now known as the Six Nations. The practices of the early days are recalled by the passing, at her home, on December 4th, suddenly of Miss Esther Buck. The body was laid to rest Saturday in the Onondaga burial ground, near the Onondaga Longhouse. The interment was carried out with the ancient tribal rituals, befitting the descendant of a family of such importance to the councils of her people.

Mrs. J. H. Misner underwent a serious operation in Norfolk Hospital yesterday morning. The patient is doing as well as can be expected, says a report from the hospital just before going to press.

The above was taken from the "Maple Leaf" of last week and refers to a former resident of Jarvis, wife of the Reeve of Port Dover. The Record wishes for her a speedy recovery.

Words of Praise For Norfolk Apples

A. Fulton, commercial representative in the British Isles for the Fruit Growers' Association of Ontario, reports as follows from London "During the past week, I visited a number of North of England provincial markets, and it was a pleasure to hear the complimentary remarks made regarding the splendid standard of packing being maintained by the Norfolk Fruit Growers and the Newcastle Packers this season. Both these packers are receiving premium prices over ordinary packs being offered at Liverpool and Glasgow. They contain a degree of uniformity and attractiveness that appeals to the buyers. Keep up the good work, Norfolk and Newcastle, and render every assistance to other districts in encouraging the adoption of uniform standards and central packing houses.

The demand for attractively colored barrelled apples continues quite active on the British market, although values are decidedly easier. This is attributed mainly to the heavy supplies of cheap boxed apples."

Melody Mike Greet's You

Canada is sold on "Melody Mike." Every Monday night when you tune in on your radio this is the genial old soul who delights you and whose popularity across the Dominion is attested by the fact that more than 15,000 fan letters of praise and congratulation have been received in a month by the Canadian Pacific Radio department under whose auspices "Melody Mike's Music Shop" feature has been sent out over an all-Canadian C.P.R. network. This huge fan mail is doubling and at the end of November 970 letters came in on one day. The opinion of radio fans is borne out by the views of radio station authorities—most difficult of men to convince—who state that in their considered opinion, this feature is with one exception the most popular radio offering on the air today. Remember too that artists, presentation, and radio outfit are all-Canadian.
