REGENERATION - REGENERATION

The statement that has often been made, that history repeats itself, will surely prove true, if the present generation continues to let their morals and principles become a secondary thing in life, as they are doing to-day.

History reveals to us, that in the past centuries, when the morals of the people became vile and corrupt, something had to be done. There must be a cleaning up day.

Dating back to the early days of the Reformation, we find the powerful hand of God reaching out to chastise and purge them of their sinful ways.

In the days of Martin Luther we saw the great Reformation. There it was the great struggle of the churches striving to bring before the people, the true doctrines and teachings of Christ. The teaching of principles and morals upon which Christianity is based. A Christianity that leads to a higher and better life.

In this present age of modernistic times, the present race of people have drifted unconsciously into a serious condition of affairs. Every phase of life is disrupted with a spirit of unrest. The contented spirit of home life is gone. Homes are broken up by the selfish desires of the husband for his club life—business trips etc. On the other hand the wife demands more social privileges, finer clothes, midnight parties, whereby she meets some penniless sheik, dressed like a millionaire, who tells her of his supposed to be great wealth. The result is, the wife becomes dissatisfied with home and husband, with no thoughts of children or mother, she leaves all for a life of debauchery and ruin.

Never in all the history of the ages has there ever been so much crime and unrest in the world. The prophets are predicting a reformation. My views of life are far from being pessimistic, but it is time some of us had the scales removed from our eyes and realize the serious condition of these times.

It is no wonder the gods of prosperity have closed their doors to us. The selfish lust for more pleasure, wealth and social standing has dragged us into a world of unrest and financial ruin.

The endearing word of Love has lost its meaning and scoffed at and trampled on. One time it was the great key note of all that is sacred and holy, but to-day it is thrown aside and selfishness has taken its place. The people of to-day have no respect for the principles that were cherished by their fore fathers. No respect for home life, parents, religion and all those things that are the fundamentals of real happiness. So it is no wonder we are facing the serious issue of the present state of affairs. It seems almost impossible to avoid a reformation of some kind. A reformation will mean terrible suffering, and suffering and sorrow in the final school through which we all must pass if we would learn to know life and God. Learn to appreciate the small blessings as well as the large ones.

To overcome these present conditions, we have but to turn to the great Philosopher, who in His day, faced similar conditions. To Him there was only one solution—Regeneration. "Ye must be born again." People of to-day who think themselves so wise, in this modern age, are just as blind as those in the days of Christ. They ask how can a man be born again? Time and space does not permit me to enter into all the requirements of the New Birth, but if you want to enjoy real life, throw away your selfish ideas, fill your heart and soul with pure and wholesome thoughts. Select the best books to read. Aim for the highest and best in life, and the result will be happiness. But to bring about regeneration, there must be that willingness on your part, to try. There should be no force used, like in the olden times, to drive people to accept religion. There should only be that willingness on the part of each person, to aim for the high standard of Christianity which can be attained through the door of Regeneration.

Many people do not realize, that it takes a real man or woman to be a true Christian. Christianity to-day has become so commercialized and self centered, that it has lost its real significance.

Do not be so hasty in your judgment of other people's faults when behold your own life is filled with faults, selfishness and lustful desires. Reform your own life and ways and enter into the bigger and better life.

What we need to-day is men with strong character and personality, endowed with the power of leadership. A life worth while.

Gives forth a smile. Revealing the life within; So let your heart be strong. Filling your life with gladness & song. For the day you rejected sin.

PARKINSON - ROOVER

A very pretty wedding took place on Saturday, June 29th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon F. Hoover, in Hamilton Township, on Saturday June 29th, when their daughter, Edna Ellen became the bride of John Alexander Parkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Parkinson of Varence.

The bride entered the drawing-room on the arm of her father to the strains of the Wedding March, with Miss Dorothy Hoover at the piano.

The couple were supported by Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor of Detroit, and Little Miss Anna Parkinson, sister of the groom, was flower girl.

After a splendid Wedding Luncheon the happy couple left for Niagara Falls, and from there to Detroit, where they will make their home.

The wedding was a big success. The groom looked quite sublime. And the bride looked her very best. While the wedding bells did chime.

After the ceremony was over, and they were ready to be away. With their grips all neatly packed. And hearts happy and gay.

But one look at their car. It surely was a sight to see. With all the comic strips thereon. More tin came there could not be.

So with the rattling of old tin cans. And with rice and old shoes galore Jack said it was his last event. And would never come back for more.

Edna said "Now Jackie Dear." "You would if I asked you to," Jack said "Oh yes! Huh! Maybe!" All right Jack I guess you through.
