SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

Every Church a School

The Shriners will scarcely be gone when the Sunday School workers and Young People come. Toronto will be the scene of the international convention of religious education from June 23 to 29. The Christian Youth Conference of North America will also meet in Toronto, June 27-29th. Both gatherings will be at the Canadian National Exhibition Grounds, lately vacated by hosts of merry-makers and soon to be occupied by the 6,000 leaders of Youth with the inspiring slogan "Every Church a School in Christian Living." Toronto's finest hospitality has been pledged to these earnest and keen-minded students and teachers of religion and many notable speakers are coming to make the occasion of enduring significance. Canon C. E. Raven of Liverpool, Dan Poling of New York, Dean Weigle of Yale, Prof. Soares of Chicago and the famous George A. Coe of Columbia University are to lead the thinking of thousands of registrants for the week of inspiring study and fellowship. Mindful of the Sunday School Movement's background of devotion and sacrifice, a statue of Robert Raikes will be unveiled as a permanent memorial in Queen's Park. His excellency, Viscount Willingdon Governor-General of Canada will take part in these events.

Clear Election is Predicted By Ottawa Observers

The calm before the political storm has ended and the storm will be on with ever increasing force for the next six weeks.

Two-and-a-half million Canadians it is estimated, have access to radio receivers in their homes and probably a minimum of half a million listened in on the trans-Canada hook-ups which broadcast both Premier King and Mr. Bennett in their opening speeches of the campaign.

The Bennett hook-up embraced twenty stations from Cape Breton to Vancouver and reports received in the capitol show that he and the premier were heard in the most remote outposts of settlement.

Provincial broadcasting will be used throughout the campaign by both leaders, while many candidates will make use of local stations to reach the public. There will be few national tie-ups for they compel the speaker to make a completely different address for each occasion, a job which is not relished in the heat of the campaign in which a leader will travel probably 12,000 miles, meet thousands of people personally and be called on for from three to five speeches a day.

Good progress is reported with nominations by all parties, though co-operation between the Government and independent members to eliminate three-cornered contests is not as simple a matter as it was in 1926. This year some of the most severe criticism of the budget was voiced by the independents and there is no guarantee that they will support Mr. King in the event of a close result.

Some indication that Mr. King anticipates such a result was embodied in his closing statement to parliament in which he stressed such a possibility. In fact all close observers at the capital appear to be agreed that the outcome will be close and that the side it will swing to will be largely determined by conditions throughout Canada between now and polling day.

NEW DUTIES FOR AUTOMOBILES

That automobiles are coming into new service—that of acting as feeder transportation for airplanes—was demonstrated recently when the first 32-passenger Fokker four-motored airplane was put into service between Los Angeles and Oakland, Calif. It required nine Oldsmobiles to transport the 32 passengers and four members of the crew to the Oakland airport. Five of the giant planes will be used on this run, each making a round trip daily.

A comparison of the Oldsmobile sedan and the monster Fokker graphically shows the huge size of this monoplane. The wing of the Fokker is twice as high as the top of the Oldsmobile, while the tire and wheel of the plane tower above the radiator of the car. One of the features of the plane is the fact that it can be used for night travel, having berths for sixteen passengers.

Broadcast Unveiling of New Wolfe Statue

Thousands of Canadians were better able to visualize the unveiling of statue in Greenwich Park of General Wolfe, hero of Quebec, when a radio broadcast of the proceedings took place. Marquis de Montcalm unveiled the monument.

In the villages of Quebec and the lonely farm-houses on the Western prairies thousands of Canadians were able to hear the picturesque and romantic ceremony which took place on the banks of the Thames where Wolfe was trained as a soldier. It was the occasion of one of the greatest gatherings ever organized by Canadians in England. Representatives of the families of General Wolfe and of Montcalm, were present in addition to the French Ambassador, members of the British Government and delegates to the Imperial Pyms Conference. The Canadian Club dinner at night, at which the Duke of Cornwall was present, and at which Sir Campbell Stuart presided was the largest ever held by the club.

PRESENTATION

Members of the local Rebekah Lodge will be interested in the following news item from Port Dover.

At the last regular meeting of Silver Lake Rebekah Lodge the retiring District Deputy President Mrs. A. K. Greenbury, was presented with a handsome P.D.D.P. Jewel. The presentation was made by Mrs. J. Smith, F.D.D.P., and the address by Mrs. M. Brock, P.D.D.P. The District President, whose territory included the lodges of Port Dover, Jarvis, Selkirk, Cayuga, Simcoe, Waterford, Port Rowan, and Hagersville, fittingly responded in the following quaint jingle:

When thinking of my term of office As a time that has gone by, I shall remember many things that will make me happy And probably some that will make me cry.

But whether I'm glad or sorry, And whether I cry or smile, You'll know that I shall be looking At this jewel every little while. And it'll remind me of our pleasant journeys

In winter and summer too, And the things said and done that have helped me Carry on till the term is though. And my Staff, I am proud to have had them

For a faithful and good little band, Who always, whenever I needed them Were ready by me to stand. So I'm proud to have held this office And glad to be here tonight, And this jewel will ever remind me That these F., L. and T. friends are just right

And whenever I feel downhearted And things don't go all right, I'll get out this lovely jewel And polish it up real bright; I'll keep rubbing and rubbing and rubbing Till its shine will remind me of you And then I can't help remembering Those friends who have helped me through.

HER CROSS LITTLE BOY WOULDN'T EAT OR SLEEP
"My little son had poor appetite, couldn't sleep and was cross. I gave him Vinol and it ended these troubles like magic."—Mrs. L. DuCrest.
Vinol supplies the body important mineral elements of iron, calcium with cod liver peptone. This is just what thin, nervous children or adults need, and the QUICK results are surprising. The very FIRST bottle brings sound sleep and a BIG appetite. Vinol tastes delicious.
J. M. Schreiber, Jarvis, Ont.
