T. E. Morrow returned home from the west on Thursday evening last, after spending nearly six weeks with his son and other friends. He reports prospects very bright there for this year and is very much pleased with the country. He met a lot of Jarvis and Walpole old boys and girls and spent a very enjoyable time while away. Ada Belle, eldest daughter of W. E. Morrow, returned with him and will remain for some time. Ada Belle looks as though that western country had agreed well with her.

Measles seem to be the order of the day. Miss Irene Kinchular, who is learning the millinery at J. A. Burwash's was obliged to return to her home in Varenay Monday, owing to an attack of them.

Embers were carried some distance to the barns of George Munn and in an instant the barns, shed and drive house were in flames, with nearly all the farm implements, hay, grain and poultry.

MAIN STREET APPLE SAUCE

The Wise Cracker

We have a lad in this town. A very witty chap. He's very fond of playing the clown. And calling others, saps.

We give him credit for his wit. Although 'tis stale, we all admit. Well you know, he's a married man. And even though he is an awful ham. Ignore his defeat, time will tell.

He served his time in a padded cell. There is none other, all the land. Like Barber Sam the Radio man.

Mr. J. F. Wood, the Canadian Bank of Commerce, made a flying trip to Rockton accompanied by his chauffeur, in the flying Mass of Tin. No difficulties were encountered on the way.

A motor wise young man took the Editor for a drive last week and passed the remark that he would have no more tire trouble as he had bought new ones. Three minutes later one of those valuable tires was flat. Next time the Editor better take his roller skates along.—What do you say Geo.

A busy bee-hive of workers were noticed yesterday remodeling a store on Main Street. It would surprise you to know who all the Bees were.

We noticed Mr. G. B. MacDonald rushing to catch the train last Friday evening he must have succeeded as we didn't see him around Saturday. What and why all the rush Mac?

some churches, Rev. John Timothy Stone, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church, speaking at the First Presbyterian church, Chicago, told the story of a man who sat through the service one Sunday wearing his hat.

When requested to do so by an usher, he removed the hat smilingly. The usher afterwards asked him if he had worn the hat purposely or if it were merely absent-minded negligence. No! said the man. "I have been attending this church regularly for nearly two years and no one has ever spoken to me in all that time. I just thought I would leave my hat on my head this morning to see if it would serve as an introduction to some one. I am pleased to meet you."

What might have resulted in a very serious accident occurred on Sunday night. Wm. Trowsdale, Jr., while driving along the road at 11 o'clock, his horse took fright at a calf lying on the road and ran away. The horse turned the corner and ran into the ditch, breaking its neck; also completely demolishing the buggy. It is indeed a miracle how young Trowsdale escaped with his life, but with the exception of a few light scratches and a shaking up he escaped serious injury, for which he is very thankful. The horse was a valuable one and will be a great loss to Mr. Trowsdale.
