UTTERLY WORN OUT

Women Weakened by Worry.

"I don't want to worry, but I can't help it," said a woman recently when told to take things easy and not worry. It is the duty of every woman to save her strength. If she finds herself getting depressed; if she feels utterly worn out; worries over trifles and frequently has nervous headaches, she will be wise to realize her nervous system needs attention.

Starved nerves mean a breakdown. To feed the nerves you must build up the blood. To do this there is nothing to equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These Pills not only enrich the blood but actually create new blood which feeds and strengthens the nerves and banishes the cause of nervous disorders.

Women cannot always rest when they should, but every woman can maintain her strength by the help of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Start taking these Pills now and see how soon improvement will show by increased energy, keen appetite, strong, steady nerves and robust health. These Pills are sold by medicine dealers or by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Modern Generation Are Lazy Thinkers

Professors Says Country Children Have More Thorough Knowledge Than City Children

Sloppy knowledge and lazy thinking were scored by Professor C. T. Curry in an address on "The Relation of the Museum to the Public School," given recently before the Toronto Home and School Council here. Professor Curry first illustrated from his experience of people the fact that home environment was the matrix which held together knowledge gained from academic training. After reviewing the interest in collections of the world's best art and the conservatism that had followed after security in material things had been brought, the speaker pointed the importance of both broader culture and exactness of knowledge in enjoyment of life or accomplishing of fine things. He recalled the interest in such matters after the Romans had brought security into Europe, at the time of the Renaissance and after the conquests of Napoleon. In earlier years this had been the privilege of the few but with the later 18th century public museums had been established.

As a result of the collections developed by Napoleon, the French people had become familiar with art in workmanship. Later the world had to turn to France for the finest productions in many lines. So apparent was this after the great exhibition organized by Victoria and Albert, that the South Kensington Museum movement had been eagerly pushed to bring England similar advantage. "Only by seeing fine things people learn to make and appreciate them," the speaker said.

The Germans had gone further by bringing this work before their children, and by stressing exactness, without which enjoyment of art is limited. In showing the value of exactness, and scoring a tolerance of inaccuracy, the speaker questioned whether students reading literature with only a sloppy knowledge of the references in its words did not lose the meaning and beauty of it. It is a tragedy in education to lead children through poetry or history of a period without such knowledge. Professor Curry showed.

The speaker commented on how many allegedly educated people knew nothing really well. Country children grow up to know some things definitely but city children, unless the broad, exact aspect of their education were stressed, missed this genuine enjoyment.

In becoming familiar with museums the student was saved from lazy thinking since he learned that things did not just happen. That the very furniture with which they were surrounded was evolved through centuries of workmanship and art.

"A pretty girl at the store said to her mother, 'Jack says I'm the nicest girl he ever met, shall I ask him to call?' "No," replied the mother, "why not let the poor chap keep on thinking so?"

"He can not spend half his income." "How so?" "Half of it goes for alimony."

Are They Lost to Canada?

These seven motherless children who sailed in the Anchor-Donaldson liner "Athenia" to join their relatives in the Canadian Timber Limits, finds it impossible to give them the time and attention necessary. The children are in charge of officials of the Anchor-Donaldson Line who will look after them until they arrive at Glasgow where they will be turned over to their Grandparents. It is to be hoped that they will all return later to take part in the future development of Canada.

KEEPING BABY LOVELY AND WELL

Some babies thrive from the hour of their birth while others make so little progress as to be the cause of much anxiety. As a rule it is the digestion that is at fault with these backward ones and they start to go ahead directly Baby's Own Tablets are made the corrective of their stomach and bowel troubles.

Baby's Own Tablets are specially designed for the use of babies and little children. They are absolutely safe and the mother can feel perfectly secure in giving them to even the most delicate child. They are a mild but thorough laxative which banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and allay the pains which accompany the cutting of teeth. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Tavern

Halved is the pear and the mugs are full,
Steamed is the board and the bird's breast white;
On leather, my friend, and the finest wool,
Sit thee down with thy friend to-night!
Thy friend of the yarn and the silence after;
Thy friend for the toast and the talk of trails;
For the arm-in-arm and the throaty laughter—
Sit three down till the long East pales!
Crushed is the peach and the wine is red,
Charcoal'd the lamp and the young corn gold;
Friend of my heart, till thy cares are shed,
Sit thee down as of old on old!

Big Sister: "And what did you tell George when he asked you if you'd like him as a brother-in-law?"
Bobby: "I told him that I'd think it over, but I had several others in mind also."

The Dream Girl
She simple was and all divine,
Her eyes a liquid blue,
As sweet and soft as pansies fine
A-dripping with the dew;
Her cheek, a rose leaf passing fair
And pink as bloom of peach,
A mass of gold her shining hair,
Her ears a seasheil each.

It's all right for a boy to go to college provided he'll come right back the next day and go to work.

Owl Laffs

Nothing is original but original sin.

A small boy was walking home from a music lesson with his violin under his arm when a thief crept up behind him, snatched the instrument and immediately disappeared. It sounds like a dream come true. Millions of small boys like to imagine such a theft while practicing on the piano at home, but it almost never happens.

Alphonse—"Did you say she has poise?"
Gaston—"Yes, avoidupois."

Abe Martin: Ionia, the little daughter of Mrs. Leghorn Tharp, president of the Colonial Bridge Club, wuz seriously crushed to-day when a stack of unwashed dishes toppled over on her.

Man—"At the circus there was a girl who rode beneath the horse, on the horse's neck, and almost on its tail."
His Neighbor—"That's nothing. I did all that the first time I ever got on one."

Neighbor—"Does you wife know anything about cooking?"
Groom—"Well, I heard her telephoning her mother, inquiring if she had to use soft water for soft-boiled eggs and hard water for hard-boiled eggs."

A poor joke isn't improved by repetition.

Amos Tash—"Where are you going?"

Hi Brow—"I'm going to Pea Ridge to mail a letter. The postmaster at Brushville won't buy my eggs so I won't mail my letters in his box."

First Burglar—"Let's get out of this. We've broken into the house of the heavyweight champion."
Second Burglar—"He never fights for less than a million dollars."

Magistrate—"You are accused of having broken into a bank and stolen $200,000."
Prisoner—"I'm sorry to say I'm not guilty."

Mr. Thomas A. Edison has announced that he is very fond of babies. Mr. Edison, by the way, is very deaf.

Uncle—"My boy, think of the future."
Youth—"I can't. It's my girl's birthday and I must think of the present."

Manager—"I'm afraid you're ignoring our efficiency system, Smith."
Smith—"Perhaps so, sir, but somebody has got to get the work done."

One thing about a kleptomaniac is that he takes things so easily.

Customer—"Gimme a marcelling iron and a bottle of carbolic acid."
Clerk—"What do you want that for?"
Customer—"Gonna curl up and die."

Gentlemen frequently marry brunettes before they begin preferring the blondes.

Sampson Pudding
A brown pudding that is dark brown: Brown your slices of bread in the oven and let them dry like rusks, then break the required amount into your pudding dish and pour in enough cold milk to soften the bread. Let this stand long enough so you feel no hard pieces. Then add sugar, raisins, salt and spice to taste, no eggs. This pudding was baked in a deep pot in shape like a flower pot and was cooked in a slow open for six hours. We ate it, sliced cold with a sweet hot sauce poured over it. Be sure to have enough milk for the long baking requires it, and put a cover over pot during the cooking.

June—"Why did you decide to marry Billy instead of Jim?"
Phillips—"I found I loved Billy best. You see, he proposed."

The Last of the Three "Rs"

To the rising generation as to the old, multiplication is apparently still vexation and the rule of three the school's chief perplexity. More pupils failed in mathematics in the New York high schools during 1929 than in any other subject, according to a report recently issued. In one school more than half of the pupils failed first-term algebra, while failures in high school mathematics as a whole totaled 26.9 per cent.

On the other hand, less than 5 per cent, failed in music and domestic science and 13 per cent. in English, though foreign languages demanded a student toll second only to mathematics.

Doctor—"What you need is a little sun."
Modern Miss—"Is this a proposal?"

ACID CONDITION

the common cause of pain and discomfort after eating--

GET RID of your dread of pain after eating. Eat without fear of "indigestion," sour stomach, disagreeable gas or headaches.

When your food ferments, "disagrees," lies like a lump in your stomach, it's a sign of too much acid. You need not resort to crude methods—take instead an anti-acid that will correct the condition. Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

A spoonful of this pleasant-tasting, soothing fluid neutralizes many times its volume of acid. It restores the proper alkaline balance to an acid-soaked stomach and bowels—assists these organs to function as they should.

Phillips' Milk of Magnesia is what you need when a bad breath, coated tongue, headaches, nausea or biliousness indicates an over-acid condition. Take a spoonful today and for several days and see how it sweetens the system. You won't be nearly so liable to colds or sickness. All drug stores—in 50c bottles.

WHY FAT MEN STAY FAT

"The trouble with me, and I guess this applies to 99 out of every 100 men who are putting on weight, I didn't have the energy or 'pep' to keep it off. Lost all interest in any healthy activity and just lazed around accumulating the old pounds, until I got that 'Kruschen feeling.'"

Start taking Kruschen Salts—that's the common-sense way to reduce—but don't take them with the idea that they possess reducing qualities in themselves.

This is what they do—they clean out the impurities in your blood by keeping the bowels, kidneys and liver in their did working shape, and fill you with vigor and tireless energy.

As a result, instead of planting yourself in an easy chair every free moment and letting fatty fat accumulate, you feel an urge for activity that keeps you moving around doing the things you've always wanted to do and needed to do to keep you in good condition.

Kruschen Salts are the up-to-date Fountain of Youth. Take one-half teaspoon in a glass of hot water to-morrow morning and every morning—be careful of the foods you eat—take regular moderate exercise—then watch the pounds slide off.

Before Her
Baby Came
"I have used several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and find it helps me wonderfully, especially before childbirth. I have five lovely children. After my last baby came I had a miserable pain in my right side so I bought another bottle of the Compound and I feel fine now. I work outside during the fruit season in addition to my housework."—Mrs. Charles Stingerland, R.R. #4, St. Catharines, Ontario.
