Letter From An Old Jarvis Boy

The following letter from an old Jarvis boy is indicative of the interest taken by all the old boys and they like to keep in touch with old times, and old faces. At times their thoughts wander back to boyhood and the many happy times spent around the old hearth. The only way to renew these happy hours is to order the "Record" forwarded once a week and keep constantly in touch with these old familiar scenes of childhood. We appreciate the subscription. G.L.M. C. S. McCarter, Esq, Jarvis, Ont.
Dear Chas:—

Your letter received enclosing renewal of Royal Fire Insurance Policy No. 447740 and I now enclose cheque to cover relative premium.

I suppose the old town is going along much the same as usual with nothing unusual happening. I intend taking a motor trip through Jarvis shortly on my way duck shooting at Turkey Point and hope to see some of the old boys.

I have seen Coyne Allen a few times while spending some holidays at Turkey Point. Several of the Jarvis people have dropped in to see me at Midland and renew old times.

Heavy Abraham, Albert Booth, Eg. Leatherdale, Bunk Underhill, Jack Brown, Jimmy Reynolds, etc. and I was indeed glad to see them. This town offers great attractions to the summer visitor and with the passenger boats plying daily through the thirty thousand islands of Georgian Bay from Midland to Parry Sound, brings in a lot of tourists, and together with our population here of 8,000 makes it a busy place and an ideal spot to spend a vacation.

You might ask the Jarvis Board to send me their paper and advise me the annual fee so I can forward them my cheque.

I suppose the old timers are gradually dropping off and the young blood stepping up. I was surprised the last time I was in Jarvis at how the younger group had sprung up, a lot of them I hardly knew.

Give my regards to Dr. Leatherdale, Geo. L. Miller, Coyne, and any of the boys.

Hoping you and yours are enjoying good health, and also your brother Robert, I intend calling in to say hello to him the next time I am down there.

Yours very truly,
E. J. Glenfield.

Annual Plowing Match Held At J. S. Martin's

The annual plowing match of the Norfolk Plowmen's Association was held yesterday on the farm of the Hon. J. S. Martin, at Port Dover. All classes were fairly well filled and exceptionally good work done considering the extreme dryness of the soil. A dozen or more tractors were at work in the various tractor classes and these seemed to attract the crowds more than the high cut plowing. The crowd in attendance was very large and this goes to show that the farmers are taking a much keener interest in these events than in former years.

Loose Gravel Is Cause of Smashup

On Tuesday morning last, between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock, Franklin McMillan, while driving along the Dover Highway, struck a ridge of loose gravel which completely turned his car over, damaging it considerably. Brad was thrown into the back seat and was slightly cut and badly bruised.
