OBITUARY

Douglas Glenn, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jabez Stack, Walpole, was taken suddenly ill on Sunday afternoon, September 7th, while the family were visiting at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Jennie Wilson, Railway Street. Dr. McCracken was called, and owing to the serious condition of the child, made several calls during the afternoon and evening, and also on Monday, although the child was showing slight improvement. The doctor kept close watch on the case, but all efforts were in vain, and the child passed away early Tuesday morning at the age of 7 months and 19 days. Glenn was a very bright and healthy child and his sudden passing came as a severe shock to his parents and relatives. The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon, September 10 at 2.30 o'clock from the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Wilson and was largely attended by relatives and neighbors.

Rev. Ernest Butcher of the Baptist church conducted the funeral services and the choir led the singing. Mrs. Butcher and Mr. John Racher sang a very appropriate duet "Will the Circle be Broken ever There". The ten little flower-bearers were Maud Winger, Katheline Karges, Violet Casen, Margaret Casen, Helen Rowe, Jean Reynolds, Annie Salari, Jean Rucker, Evelyn Bowman and Mildred Smith and formed an aisle from the house to the hearse through which the pall-bearers, Rex Salari, Bruce Reynolds, Howard Maxwell and Donald Smith, carried the little white casket.

The flowers were:—Pillow, from Mother and Father, Heart from Grandma, Aunt Orpha and Uncle Will, Aunt Martha and Uncle Arlie, Spray from Aunt Essie, Uncle Charlie, Uncle Morley and cousins Melvin, Forest, and Emerson from Detroit, Cross, Martha and Thomas Fryer, Sprays, Grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Slack and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. Salari, Mr. and Mrs. William Shoup, Mr. and Mrs. W. Reynolds, Clare and Nettie Slack Madeline, Flora, Virginia and John, Robert and Mrs. Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. George Linden, Aunt Ida and Uncle Nelson Hall, Mr. and Mrs. George Robbins and family, The Little Cousins, and Edgar, Alice and Emily Youmans, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Burke, and Rosebuds from Mrs. Arnett Bailey. The funeral took place in Greenwood Cemetery at Waterford. Relatives were present from Jarvis, Waterford, Niagara Falls, Detrit, Collingwood, Rockford, and Springvale. Besides his parents, four brothers are left to mourn the loss of a loved one.

An Angel came with tenderest care
And left with us a lily fair
A lily fair with heart of gold
Each day we watched our bud unfold
Unfolding slowly our bud so fair
Into a beautiful lily rare
Earth was our heaven, we knew no pain
Till an angel came for our bud again
Come for our darling and took him home
To bloom in Heaven for God alone.
Oh God, ease the pain in our hearts
When with our darling we had to part
'Suffer little children' we hear you say,
Oh, Kindly Saviour, teach us the way.

Official Opening Of Cold Storage Plant in Simcoe

Friday last, September 12th, was a red letter day in the history of the Norfolk Fruit Growers' Association, marking as it did the official opening of the new $120,000 pre-cooling and cold storage plant on West St. Simcoe.

The directors made extensive preparations for the entertainment of their guests, who were officials of the Provincial and Federal Departments of Agriculture as well as outstanding fruit growers and buyers from many parts of Ontario and Quebec.

Between the hours of two and five o'clock the plant was thrown open for public inspection and a cordial invitation was extended to every citizen of Norfolk to make a tour of the plant. The different departments and the various details of operation were explained by competent guides. The plant, the only one of its kind in Ontario, was well worth seeing and local people did not fail to avail themselves of this opportunity to inspect it. Grading and packing of apples was in full swing and the visitors had an opportunity to sample the choice fruit in the thousands of hamper that were in the plant.

THE BANQUET

At seven o'clock in the evening approximately 300 guests, including many from out of town, assembled about the festive board to partake of the Association's hospitality. The banquet was unique in that it was composed entirely of Norfolk-grown products, headed by delicious turkey from the Ontario Government Turkey Farm at Forestville. This plan was in conformity with Premier Ferguson's recent announcement of a campaign to stimulate the use of home-grown produce and, in reality, inaugurated that campaign.

Among the distinguished guests were, Mr. James B. Fairbairn, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario; Dr. J. B. Reynolds, President Emeritus of the Ontario Agricultural College; Mr. G. E. McIntosh, Dominion Fruit Commissioner; Prof. W. R. Graham of O. A. C.; Mr. P. W. Hodgetts, Director of the Ontario Fruit Branch; Mr. Carl Saunders of Gamble-Robinson, well known fruit distributors; and Mr. George Mitchell of Clarksburg, president of the Ontario Fruit Growers' Association.

Other invited guests included the members of the town and county councils, the Board of Education, the Rotary and Kinsmen Clubs and their wives.

Hon. J. S. Martin Resigns.

Definite announcement of the Ontario cabinet re-organization rumored for several weeks was made by Premier Ferguson to-day.

The changes involve the retirement of three ministers, the inclusion of four new members in the cabinet, and two other international changes.

New cabinet ministers are:

Hon. J. M. Robb, Algoma, minister of health.

Hon. T. L. Kennedy, Peel, minister of agriculture.

Hon. W. G. Martin, Brantford, minister of welfare.

Hon. Leopold Macauley, York south provincial secretary.

Hon. J. D. Monteith, provincial treasurer, becomes minister of public works and labor, and Hon. E. A. Dunlop, minister without portfolio, becomes treasurer.

Retiring ministers are:

Hon. Forbes Godfrey, health and labor.

Hon. J. S. Martin, agriculture.

Hon. Lincoln Goldie, provincial secretary.

Their resignations are attributed by Premier Ferguson to ill health.

Mr. Robert Handley, who has been editing the 'Record' for he past six months, departed on Saturday last for Chicago. Mr. Geo. L. Miller will take up the duties of editor, and, with the assistance of Mr. B. G. Greenbury will carry on. There is no foundation for the rumor that the Record is closing down.

Fire Brigade Get Call to Burn Fire Before Daybreak

About 5.30 a.m. this morning the citizens of the town were alarmed by the sound of the fire bell. Fire had started in a barn belonging to Mr. David Hill, about 6 1/2 miles south-east of Jarvis on the Catholic Church side-road.

It seems Mr. Hill had started his chores at an earlier hour than usual this morning as he intended to help with the threshing at one of his neighbors. Leaving his lantern for a moment while he attended to some minor duty in another part of the barn, a calf kicked it over and the oil ignited the inflammable material around it so quickly that nothing could be done.

The Jarvis Fire reels were called, but owing to the distance were unable to check the fire.

This is Mr. Hill's second loss, his barn having burned two years ago during threshing operations.

Abusing L. C. A.

In London on Wednesday last a woman, who was fined $25 for permitting drunkenness on her premises was shown to have secured 2,870 bottles of beer on her license permit. In the name of common sense, how absolutely ridiculous and what a sad reflection on the "control" of our present liquor act. As has been pointed out, the government must take steps to place some reasonable restriction upon purchases, or a reaction in public sentiment to the present system is inevitable. It may be difficult to fix a per capita allowance but when a vendor sells to one licensee 2,870 bottles of beer, he is acting contrary to the spirit of the Liquor Control Act, which empowers the government to "control" the sale of intoxicating beverages, and not to merely sell them.

The conviction registered last week by Acting Magistrate Langford, in Simcoe police court against Brooks Low, Port Dover man, was yesterday afternoon squashed by Judge Boles, county judge of Norfolk, without costs to the appellant. Low was convicted on September 4th by Magistrate Langford and sentenced to serve six months in the Ontario reformatory on a charge of unlawfully selling liquor. He contended there was no evidence before the court to warrant the same.

The first public utterance in regard to the introduction of day-light saving time in Simcoe was heard at a Rotarian luncheon when Rotarian H. L. Selby, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce branch in Simcoe, committed himself as favorable to this plan.

Dr. McIntosh suggested that the Ontario Government be petitioned to make regulations governing the question of time throughout the province.

Car Markers Change.

In next year's license plates the color scheme is to be somewhat changed. After having black lettering on a white background, or vice versa, for this and other years, black lettering on an old gold background will give a much snappier appearance. Sample plates have already been stamped, and on them "Ont., 1931" will appear at the top of the marker instead of at the bottom, as in former years. The bolt holes will be made at the top of the plate.

Drivers Should Be Insured.

Welland Tribune:—Magistrate J. C. Massie, speaking to the Tribune, referring to the increasing number of highway accidents, made the following statement regarding the insurance of cars:

"I think that it would be a move in the right direction if the insurance companies would insure the driver of the car instead of the car, because at present a man may own a car and insure it and some irresponsible driver take the car out and do serious damage to life or property, and the car is still insured. If the driver of the car had to be insured and not just the car, and the car owner become responsible for having a properly qualified driver at the wheel, the owners would be more particular who drove their cars. Drivers, not the car itself, should be insured."

Farewell Party

The Young Women's Mission Circle of Wesley United Church spent a very enjoyable evening at the parsonage when about twenty members gathered to bid farewell to Miss Marie Carter, who is going to Normal School in Toronto.

The evening was spent in games and ended with a weiner and marsh-mallow roast.

The Mission Circle had a most successful year under the Presidency of Miss Carter and the girls, altho sorry to see her depart gave her a hearty farewell and wished her all success during her term at Normal School in Toronto. The circle is under the guidance of Miss Leonora Allen, and the young ladies of the congregation are greatly appreciating this privilege of good fellowship and service.

The Booster Club

The efforts of the Booster Club have resulted in many benefits for the town. But are their efforts appreciated? As a rule the people attending their dances are mostly outsiders. Why the people of Jarvis do not respond to their efforts is a mystery and it certainly is discouraging to those who are doing their utmost to make the Club a success and to help help in the many things that are much needed in our village.

At the present time the Booster Club is endeavoring to raise enough money to make possible the building of cisterns at various places in town to give us much needed fire protection. So let us show our appreciation of their efforts and turn out to the next Booster Club dance and encourage the Booster Club to "Carry on with the good work."

Boost Your Home Town And Your Home Paper.

When you pull down the town in which is your home, you are pulling down yourself, and when you build up you are building up yourself and your neighbor. Try and banish from your mind that mistaken idea that all the good things are away in another locality. Give your town all the praise you can. It will certainly do you no harm and it will cost you nothing. And above all, patronize your own home institutions — including the printing office.

Jarvis Is Scene of Two Motor Accidents

On Tuesday evening, about 7 p.m. a truck belonging to Edwards' Transport Lines, and driven by Jack Irwin, of Port Dover, collided with a sedan belonging to Andrew A. Miller of Jarvis.

Apparently, Mr. Miller, who was proceeding along Main Street, attempted to turn in without giving the customary signal and the truck was following so close that he could not turn out. No one was hurt, and the truck escaped injury, but the one door of the sedan was dented slightly.

Just before noon yesterday, (Wednesday) two cars came to grief on No. 3 highway. Mr. Theodore Kasper of Detroit, who was coming from New York, where he had met his wife and three children, who had just come from Germany, was driving along the highway when Miss Lenora Allen, Jarvis, turned into the driveway at her home. The American car was going so fast that it could not stop in time and, in trying to avoid hitting the other car, dented front fender of the Allen car, jumped the ditch, and crashed into the corner of the brick residence occupied by Jack Nichol, breaking the gas meter at the corner of the house, and smashing the front of the car. Luckily no one was hurt seriously, although all the occupants of the American car were badly shaken and received several slight cuts.
