

Re-surface old walls and ceilings with Gyproc

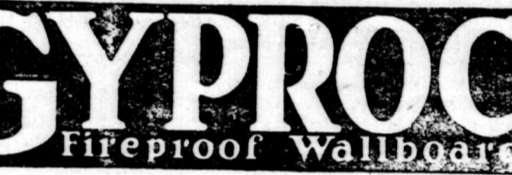

HERE is a wallboard that does not burn, made from gypsum rock into sheets 4 to 10 feet long, 4 feet wide and 3/8 of an inch thick. It is used for interior walls, ceilings and partitions.

As well as being fire-resistant, its structural strength, insulation value and its draught and vermin-proof. Use Gyproc Joint Filler for sealing the joints between the tall, broad sheets of wallboard.

When you are "doing over" any room in the house or adding new ones in the attic or basement, use Gyproc for walls and ceilings because you can nail it directly over the old surface. Gyproc is also an excellent base for Alabastine, Gypox or wallpaper.

Gyproc is Canada's pioneer non-burning gypsum wallboard. Ask your nearest dealer for full details and a Gyproc direction sheet. Or write us for the FREE booklet, "Building and Remodelling with Gyproc". 374

SELKIRK

Russell Hurst of Buffalo spent the week end here.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Hoover and Miss Beulah Smith of Hamilton and Mr. E. B. Hoover of Caledonia spent the holiday at their home here.

The members of the I.O.O.F. will attend the divine service on Sunday June 14th in the Town Hall. Rev. M. S. Siple, Simcoe will conduct the service and special music will be rendered by the united choir also by the choir of the 1st M.E. Church of Buffalo N. Y.

The Council are re-surfacing the road on Erie St. south.

Miss Vileta Bothring of Toronto spent a week's vacation at her home here.

D. W. Hilborn has been confined to his bed but is improving.

The friends of George Dean are glad to see him about again.

Mrs. Dorey Effinger, Buffalo is spending a few days with her father who is ill.

The 3rd of June celebration was a decided success. The day was all that could be desired. The parade in the morning led by the AmphiPhone was witnessed by a large crowd. The fishing schooner piloted by skipper, Hall, Hoover, and Winger sailed its way through rough seas and carried off first prize. Selkirk won second place.

The hard ball games in the afternoon were both one sided. Caledonia winning easily from Selkirk and Hagersville from Fisherville.

Badly softball games drew quite a bit of interest. The Hagersville led in the first game gained an easy 7th against Selkirk and held it till the 7th inning, the score being 11-19. In their half of the innings the Selkirk ladies gave the crowd a real thrill by some heavy batting and winning by a score of 22-19. In the second game the Fisherville girls proved too much for Selkirk and carried off the prize easily.

The game in the Town Hall in the evening drew a large number of people from all around the vicinity.

I. D. Hoover passed away very suddenly on Wednesday night, June 14th at his home in Selkirk. He was in his 68th year and was a prominent business man of the commu-

Horse Shoe Contest

On Saturday evening, June 13th, one of the outstanding Horse Shoe Pitching events of the season took place at Nanticoke when six of the choice players from Chesapeake played an equal number of expert players from Nanticoke.

Excitement ran high when at the end of the third game the score was a tie. After changing the score keepers, who were all from Chesapeake, the fourth game proceeded to a climax when the score stood at 29 to 15 points in favor of Chesapeake.

Miss Walker saved the day for Nanticoke by landing two horseshoes on the round peg thus finishing the game. The streets of the village were lined with spectators.

Insurance Picnic

Clouds and rain on Saturday did not prevent the fifteenth anniversary picnic of the Norfolk Farmers Mutual Insurance Company being a very enjoyable and completely successful event. The picnicers gathered at Simcoe at an early hour and in a caravan of 12 cars, motored to Welland and Thorold, visiting the canal locks and elevators at Welland and the paper mills and the electric works at Thorold. Picnic lunch was enjoyed at Colborne Park. Welland. Frank Johnson was in charge of the very successful arrangements for the outing.

confronted the other car." He indicated Paul Veniza with a jerk of his head. "I'm far from as well as he was last night. At least you'll admit that I'm a good doctor. And this morning you are not fit to go out for both of you. I'll phone and tell them not to send the limousine. Still Claire hesitated. Paul Veniza had crossed his shoulders. "You can see as you like, but I don't imagine a smart croup like I have here will give him any joy to have him. Suit yourselves; or you won't answer for the consequences." "I'll go," said Claire simply and gently back upon the couch again. "It's better that way," she said, for a moment talked to him in low earnest tones, then kissed him, and rose, and walked out from the room. Crang, with a grunt of approval, started toward the telephone.

"Wait!" Paul Veniza had raised himself on his elbow. "The red surged into Crang's face, and changed to mottled purple. "Damn you!" he flung out hoarsely. "Hold your cackling tongue! This is my wedding morning—understand? He laughed out raucously. "My wedding morning—and I'm in a hurry!" Paul Veniza raised himself a little higher. White his face was white as death.
