

THE JARVIS RECORD

JARVIS, ONT., THURSDAY, APRIL 2.

$2.00 per Year. $2.50 to United States. Single Copies, 5c Each

In compliance with the request of the Editor of the Record I submit a few thoughts for the consideration of its readers suggested to me by "Easter." We can never understand the joy of that first "Easter Day," because we can never feel the gloom of those three days between the cry, "It is finished," and the glorious words, "He is Risen." We approach the Cross from its Easter Side. No enterprise in this world ever seemed so completely defeated and so hopelessly ended as that of Jesus. With His last cry, hope died. They had never believed He could die, much less that He could die so shameful a death as this. With heavy hearts they buried Him and left Him in the Tomb. The darkest night the world ever knew was the night Jesus was laid in the grave. No possibility of a resurrection ever occurred to the stricken hearts of His followers. But He is risen. And Easter reminds us of this great fact. The cross must never be forgotten. In a certain very real sense Christ saved the world by giving Himself for it. There could have been no Easter without a Good Friday, no rising again without the dying on the Cross. But if our faith stops at the cross it misses the blessing of the fullest revealing of Christ. We need, not merely a Saviour who nearly two thousand years ago went to death to redeem us, but one who also is alive to walk by our side in loving companionship. We want a Saviour who can hear our prayers—to whose feet we can creep in penitence when we have sinned—to whom we can call for help when the battle is going against us; a Saviour who is interested in all the affairs of our common life, and who can assist us in time of need—who can be our real Friend, loving us, keeping close beside us always "Closer than breathing, nearer than hands and feet." We want a Saviour who saves us not alone by one great act wrought centuries ago, but by a life warm and throbbing with love today, walking ever by our side. It is for love that our hearts hunger. The bread that will satisfy us is not merely the bread of memorial, the memory of a great devotion and sacrifice long, long since, but the breath of love, living, present, warm and throbbing. Nothing less than a living Christ will do for us. That is what the gospel brings to us. Easter tells us of him that liveth. He is risen and is alive for evermore. He is with us, All that we need is to be found in the living Christ.

"For warm, sweet, tender even yet
A present help is He,
And faith has still its Olivet,
And love its Galilee."

REV. G. L. EVANS
