Bert's Desire

From a window in a little back street in an Ontario town, a small boy gazed longingly on the "big" strange westerner who had just come to town. The boy's name was Bert. He was a little over five years old, and he was a very good boy. He was a very good boy.

OBITUARY

H. M. SHILDRICK PASSES

In the passing of Harold (Hal) Malcolm Shildrick, prominent hardware merchant of Hagersville, at St. Joseph's Hospital on Friday last, the community loses one of its best known and most highly esteemed residents. A popular figure throughout the entire district, where his genial disposition and his business integrity won for him friends on all sides, his death will be deeply and sincerely mourned.

Suffering from an acute and sudden illness about two weeks ago, Mr. Shildrick was admitted to St. Joseph's Hospital and an operation performed. This was followed by a second and more serious operation last Thursday and little hope was entertained for his recovery.

Born in Hagersville 47 years ago the son of James Shildrick, pioneer hardware merchant of that town, Mr. Shildrick became proprietor of the business established by his father in 1879 in January 1911. His mother, Georgina Shildrick predeceased him three years ago.

For many years the deceased had been an ardent church worker and belonged to the United Church. He was well known in musical circles in the district, being exceptionally talented and possessing a voice of very fine quality.

Four brothers and two sisters survive. Frank Shildrick in Hagersville; Dr. Elgin Shildrick in Cleveland and Edgar and Ernest Shildrick of Toronto; Mrs. Wm. J. Green also of Toronto and Mrs. Chas. S. Brown in Hagersville. The funeral was held on Friday afternoon 2 o'clock, taken to Hagersville Cemetery for interment. A number of Jarvis friends attended the funeral.
