amount and some can be forced to come into bloom several weeks ahead of time. The easiest grown and the ones that offer the most chance of success when grown in the house are the Paper White Narciosus and the Chinese Sacred Lily, which can be grown in pots in the usual manner or in flat bowls of water, the bulbs being kept in place by pebblcs—these bowls or pots should be kept in a dark cool place until roots have been formed, and when brought to the light they should be placed where they can get the most sunshine, otherwise the leaves and flower stalks will grow very tail and weak. These bulbs are for indoor use only, not being suitable or outdoor planting in Canada. It bribs are planted in succession a week or two apant the period of bloom can be lengthened considerably.—T. For myself, although I find that many things, from rides in automobiles to visits to the theatre, are no bionger treats, the receipt of an old book is still an inexpressible treat. Not a new book, but an old one—almost any old one, providing it is small and classic—I am given handsome new books, which I do not care for. In olden days my greatest treat was to be taken for a ride, either in Paris or In London, upon the front seat of a horse-omnibus or tramear. Such rides are my earliest recollection. They remain in a memory as the epitome of happiness. Nor is this kind of treat altogether removed nowadays.
